

SHEEP SAID SCARCE IN LYONS DISTRICT

Cemetery Annex Plotted; Rebekah Lodge Conducts Installation

LYONS, Feb. 1. — L. C. Trask sold his flock of sheep to a Salem buyer this week. Sheep prices are much better than at this time last year, and sheep seem rather scarce owing to most of the 1932 and '23 crop being sold for mutton.

Louis Trask has leased his farm land to Carl McGee, M. Martin and J. H. Johnston. The men are plowing and getting ready to sow the land to grain. Trask retained the pasture ground.

Several men from this locality attended the county hog control meeting at Scio Tuesday. They got quite a lot of valuable information in regard to raising and disposing of the hogs under the government plans and regulations which are in effect now.

A crew of several men besides Surveyor L. Gees of Mill City, spent Wednesday plotting the new cemetery annex at Fox Valley. The work which has been under way for some time is at last finished and lots are now available in the new plot.

Rebekahs Install Thursday night the Rebekah lodge installed officers: Noble grand, Evelyn Taylor; vice grand, Clara Edna Frame; secretary, Hazel Lewis; treasurer, Eva Bressler; warden, Elizabeth Hughes; conductor, Mabel Bass; R. S. N. G., Allee Huber; L. S. N. G., Effie Maines; R. S. V. G., Inez King; L. S. V. G., Anna Hubbard; inside guardian, Lena Brown; outside guardian, Anna Berry; chaplain, Rosa Berry; pianist, Alta Bodeker.

Anna Hubbard of Hitchcock, S. D., was admitted by card as a member of this lodge. After the business and installation, Mrs. Hubbard invited the members to her home for a potluck luncheon.

SCHEURER HONORED ON 80TH BIRTHDAY

AURORA, Feb. 1.—An event of major interest of the week was the 80th birthday anniversary of W. R. Scheurer, who was honored by 170 friends at the Butteville grange hall Friday night. Scheurer, who seems to have sipped at the fountain of youth, has seen many changes in the town where he has lived for most of his 80 years. He can recall when Butteville was a lively shipping port to which grain, hops, fruit and all produce from surrounding towns in the valley were hauled to be shipped by boat to Portland.

At the tables the colorful pink of carnations was reflected in the tapers. A large birthday cake with its 80 candles was baked by Mrs. George Wurster and Mrs. A. W. Scheidel of Aurora, sisters of Mrs. Scheurer. Fred Dental, a brother Odd Fellows, was toastmaster. Scheurer has been a member for 52 years.
