Twin Ambitions

Like as two peas in a pod in face, form and disposition, it is but natural that the McMahon twins, Gertrude (left) and Florence, 15-year-old students at Julia Richman school, New York, should have twin aspirations. They are shown as they competed against each other for the metropolitan junior divine championships in New York.

Mrs. Charleton Dies at Age 78; Born in Canada

DALLAS, Feb. 1.—Mrs. E. L. Charleton, 78, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. L. Ballantyne, early this morning. She had been seriously ill for the past two weeks.

She was born January 31, 1856, at Aultsville, Ontario, Canada, and resided there until 1903 when she moved to New York. In 1908 she moved to Salem and in 1926 came to Dallas where she had resided ever since.

She is survived by two sons, C. S. Baker of San Mateo, California, and Wilford Baker of Salem; and one daughter, Mrs. W. L. Ballantyne of Dallas.

STAYTON DEFEATS GATES TOWN TEAM

GATES, Feb. 1.—Gates' town team was defeated by six points in the game with Stayton on Monday evening. This was the third game with Stayton this season as the second was in dispute and found to be a tie game. Bashor of Salem refereed. The score was 45 to 39.

The lineups:
Gates (39) (45) Stayton
C. Ball 2 F. 14 Ware
Cline 3 F. 11 Thomas
W. Ball 2 C. 6 Shelton
Klutke 6 G. 6 Darby
Wrightworth 1 G. 6 Sigmund
Hayward 2 S. 6 Lesly
Goodwin 1

The local grade school has become quite active in basketball this year and has a team which is winning games from the "bigger ones." On Monday night along with the Stayton team the graders played the school team from Lyons, winning by a score of 27 to 2.

On Tuesday afternoon the Mill City grade team came up and the local boys won by a score of 35 to 14. This was a return game. The game played at Mill City last week was won by Mill City by one point.

The lineups:
Gates (35) (14) Mill City
G. Carey F. Stone
P. Herron F. Lavine
J. B. Herron C. Wachter
E. Carey G. Brown

Wife Avers Hubby Took Her Pillows

Choice feather-pillows were taken from the Simmons household after Pamela Simmons, 80, started her divorce suit against her husband, 30, she told Judge L. G. Lewelling here yesterday in a contested divorce case which took a day to try. The plaintiff blamed her husband for taking the pillows.

She also testified that Simmons would become irked with her and order her to the garret or to the cellar, places she did not propose to go because she was "not a dog or a cat."

The couple, one of the oldest ever to seek a divorce here, were married in 1917. They live in the Broadacres district. Counsel for both litigants will argue the case today.

maid for two
First come the rice, old shoes, and your own version of a trip to Niagara. Then—the serious business of living not too seriously and sadly. When you must be your own cook and maid for two—with friend husband doubling as chief bottle washer—you'll find steaming, fragrant cups of Hills Bros. Coffee do miracles helping two live as easily as one. Hills Bros. Coffee is made for those who like good coffee—for families of two or twenty-two who like to count the pennies. It may cost a few cents more than "bargain counter" brands, but its richer flavor and strength make more satisfactory cups of unvarying coffee delight. And you drink coffee by the cup—not by the pound. Always ask for Hills Bros. Coffee by name and look for the Arab on the can.
