Legion Auxiliaries Meet In Conference Here On Monday

SALEM will play host Monday to officers of the state department of the American Legion auxiliary and members of other units at a conference of district No. 2.

A luncheon for all visitors is scheduled for 12:30 o'clock at the fraternal temple with members of Capitol unit acting as hostesses. Immediately following the luncheon a business session will be held taking the form of a school on general activities with discussion of plans for the coming year.

A no-host dinner at the Marion hotel at 6:30 o'clock will precede the mass meeting at 7 p. m. to be held in the auditorium of Salem high school. The public is invited to attend the mass meeting which will include both the Legion and auxiliary. Later the guests will go to the legion hall for dancing and refreshments.

The American Legion auxiliary is the largest patriotic organization of women in the world with its 8000 units of which 89 are in Oregon. Women eligible for membership in the auxiliary are especially invited to attend the conference.

Among the distinguished guests who will attend are Mrs. Dorothy Eakin of Dallas, department president of Oregon; Mrs. Mable McInturf of Marshfield, department secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Ella Delner of Newberg, district president; Mrs. Callie Heider of Sheridan, department finance officer; Mrs. Elsie Graham of Portland, department child welfare chairman; Mrs. Gladys Turnbull of Portland, district president of district No. 1; Mrs. Marion Delaney of Salem, state historian; and Mrs. Gayle Kreson of Dallas, department legislative chairman.

D.A.R. Enjoy Address on Defense

"NATIONAL defense is the peace program of the Daughters of the American Revolution. It means not only military defense, an adequate army and navy, it means the preservation of our American institutions—home, school and church. It means the preservation of the constitution of the United States," said Mrs. Frances Looney Cornell in a spirited address before the D. A. R. Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Cornell approved of the appropriation bills before congress now for building up the navy, and defended a strong army and navy as the greatest security for peace, quoting the late President Calvin Coolidge.

Mrs. H. G. Smith was hostess for the meeting. A social hour and tea followed the business session. The table was covered with a beautiful lace cloth and centered with an exquisite bouquet of forget-me-nots and pink rosebuds. Mrs. Oscar Hayter and Mrs. Frank Settemier presided at the urns.

Miss Amy Harding of Woodburn and Mrs. W. E. Chandler were special guests. Members present were Mrs. John H. Carlin, Mrs. C. A. Sprague, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. Ora L. Cooper, Mrs. H. T. Love, Miss Edna Minkus, Mrs. W. B. Johnston, Mrs. W. G. Boyer, Mrs. C. C. Geer, Mrs. John R. Allgood, Mrs. Lewis Griffith, Mrs. H. J. Ostlund, Mrs. W. B. Connor, Mrs. F. W. Settemier, Mrs. Oscar Hayter, Mrs. Frances Cornell, Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Mrs. Carey Martin, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Miss Lillian Applegate, Mrs. Fred C. Ritter, Mrs. David Looney, Mrs. Stephen B.
