VINCENT BUILDING HOME AT MILL CITY

Dance Given on Roosevelt Birthday Nets $70 For Hospital Fund

MILL CITY, Feb. 3. — Paul Vincent, who in company with his mother, recently arrived in Oregon from Hamlet, Me., has bought a five acre tract of ground from Jack Hurt and is erecting a four-room cottage on the place. Several old barns and other buildings have been torn down and these will be replaced by modern outbuildings. The house, one of the old landmarks in South Mill City, burned about a year ago.

Mr. Vincent was sent to the coast by orders of his physician and he and his mother spent about two months in Oregon City and another month before coming to Mill City where because of the delightful climate they decided to make their permanent home.

Under the direction of George Mason, who was assisted by Sam Godwin, the birthday dance honoring President Franklin Delano Roosevelt at Hammond hall Tuesday evening was a great success. An unusually large crowd was present. The big hall was fittingly decorated with flags, red, white and blue streamers and a large picture of the president. Musicians from Scio, Lyons and Mill City furnished the music. Over $100 was taken in which means that approximately $70 will be sent to Warm Springs towards the hospital fund.

Seven out of Ten at Restaurant Select Hotcakes for Breakfast

By D. H. Talmadge, Sage of Salem

It is perhaps true that the person who really knows anything can tell it, and that the better he knows it the fewer words he requires for the telling, but some folks refuse to believe it.

I have persisted for many years in a belief that everything will, given time, work out for the best. And not yet, given time, have I been disappointed.

There is much of real sorrow in the world, but much of that which is called sorrow is caused by selfishness and self-pity. Some folks require almost a lifetime to become acquainted with themselves.

I reckon one kindly act does the world more good than a thousand words of sympathy. Which, by the way, does not necessarily mean that sympathy should be withheld.

You may recall the old story of the lion and the traveler. The lion purred the while he licked his chops. It is a very sad story, and it may be not entirely apropos. I mention it merely because it chances to pop into my head. Pay no attention to it if it causes you annoyance.

We have made a great ado over the "unknown soldier." I wonder if the day will ever come when we shall make an ado over the silent sufferer. Not likely.

Minor mention: The average new level is an inducer of sleep. Seven of every ten men at restaurants eat hot cakes for breakfast. As an interesting example of the inaccuracy of picture show advertising compare the advertisement for "The House on 56th Street" in Tuesday's Statesman with the story as unfolded in the picture. A news story of cold weather in the east stimulates the local fuel market, even on a springlike morning. Street comment on the "One Man's Journey" (Lionel Barrymore) at the Grand theatre the past week was uniformly favorable. The beginning of a new semester in the schools pepped up the book stores. "Law of averages" prophets are hinting darkly at a late spring and a cold summer. Six percent of local news is not publishable. Marie Dressler appears in the Hollywood snapshots hugging a portrait of President Roosevelt to her breast. The lobby at the Grand theatre has been undergoing a change, one feature of which is the covering of the lobby windows looking into the office of Becke & Hendricks—a conservation of valuable advertising space and an advantage to the real estate firm. Of course, a boy can't go to school if his ma doesn't get his pants half-sized in time. A woman on the street who makes a noise like coroduro trousers when she walks may have and may not, and anyway it's strictly her own business. The best biggest money-making stars of the year beginning September 1, 1932, and ending September 1, 1933, based on the reports of 12,000 exhibitors throughout the country in response to a questionnaire sent out by the Motion Picture Herald (New York) were, in the order named, Marie Dressler, Will Rogers, Janet Gaynor, Eddie Cantor, Wallace Beery, Joan Harlow, Clara Gable, Mae West, Norma Shearer, Joan Crawford. The Newspaper Publishers association of California, at a recent session, took a rap at the use of Hollywood antics and the foibles of Aimee McPherson as news, and it's about time. In a recent Hollywood love classic shown locally the hero told the beautiful heroine 14 times that he was "nuts" about her and used the word "baby" 27 times, which some folks in the audience admitted was more than they had a right to expect for their money.

Here's a bit of cash for your spring wardrobe—a captivating cape model fashioned of gay prints. The shoulder cape forms the yoke and sleeves, and ties in a pert bow knot at the throat—and there are clever angles to the bodice, too. Length-giving skirt panels make the hips appear very slender. You'll find many new monotonous, that would also be splendid for this model—combine two of your most becoming shades—or all in one color, this model would be equally smart. Pick your fabrics from the silks, new crepes, and novelty cottons in vogue.

Pattern 1769 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30. Size 16 takes 2 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric and 3/4 yard contrasting. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send 15 cents in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address, style number and size of each pattern ordered.
