

Beavers Crash Through Again, Win 28-18 Over Huskies

HIBBARD STARS; RACE TIGHTENS

Oregon State Gains 18 to 7 Lead at Half Time and Keeps Advantage

CORVALLIS, Ore., Feb. 3.—(AP)—Oregon State college remained definitely in the championship running by routing the University of Washington basketball team 28 to 18 here tonight.

As in last night's game, the Beavers led all the way. The fiery, masterful playing of Coach State's men was reminiscent of last season when they braced in midseason and swept to a north division and then a coast championship.

Oregon State dropped in two baskets at the start of the game and the snarling Huskies came back with a goal and foul conversion. However, Coach missed a free throw and Folen of Oregon State made it 5 to 3. The Huskies soon fell behind and were on the short end of an 18 to 7 half-time score.

Galer was again kept in leash during the first part of the game, but did score just before half time. Once started, he went ahead to score 10 points and boost his season's total to 105.

Despite last night's hard-fought game, play did not slow down in the second half tonight. The Huskies continued their close-checking game, but the Beavers had learned they were a unit instead of five individual players. Their scoring was well divided, with Hibbard ahead with nine points.

The Huskies, who were eight in a row before coming to Oregon, met University of Oregon at Eugene Monday and Tuesday.

Vandals Top Cougar Five; Score 33-27

MOSCOW, Idaho, Feb. 3.—(AP)—The University of Idaho's Vandals led all the way in a rough and fast basketball game here tonight, defeating Washington State college 33 to 27.

Idaho scored first within 10 seconds after the starting whistle when Klumb shot a field goal on the first play after the tipoff. As play was resumed, Johnson, Washington State forward fouled him, and Klumb converted a free throw. Klumb boosted Idaho's lead to five with another free throw. Naaland, Idaho forward, fouled Johnson, and the latter converted for Washington State's first count.

Idaho ran the count quickly to 9 to 2 when Geraghty and Klumb scored field goals. Washington State got its other point when Johnson converted a free throw off Geraghty's foul. Washington State rallied near the half, but ended the period behind, 17 to 11.

The Vandals played easy basketball in the opening minutes of the second period, maintaining a lead that averaged 10 points until three and a half minutes before the end. With Geraghty and Fisher out on personal fouls for Idaho and McPhee and Holstein for Washington State, the Cougars started a rally that took the score to 21 to 26 for Idaho. McPhee converted a free throw to end Washington State's scoring, and Klumb counted a field goal to end for Idaho.

Y. Boys Defeat Dallas Scouts
Dwight Adams took a couple of teams composed of members of his Y. M. C. A. basketball class to Dallas yesterday afternoon where they did an efficient job of defeating two scout teams from that community, by scores of 18 to 11 and 13 to 8. The local lads, junior high school students, were especially elated with the reports they brought home. Inasmuch as a recent article in the "Junior Y. News," cleverly put together and illustrated paper published for the junior division members, alarmed their ability as players while commenting on their brilliantly colored new uniforms.

PERRYDALE WINS
RICKREALL, Feb. 3.—Rickreall high lost its second basketball game of the week when it was defeated 21 to 13 by Perrydale high Friday night at Perrydale.

Grid Rules are Okeh Says Coaches' Group; Clarifying Of Some Sections is Asked

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—(AP)—This game of college football is all right as it is, the master minds of the coaching profession decided formally today as they made no specific recommendations for changes in the rule book.

Meeting all day long, the special committee of the coaches association, with about 25 of the most prominent members of the profession representing every section of the country, was satisfied merely to "draw attention" to several rules "that need clarification and amplification."

Chief among these were the rules penalizing a team five yards for a second successive incomplete forward pass, the rule on blocked kicks, and eligible men on a forward pass.

Suggestion that got all the publicity before the meeting—elimination of the touchback feature of incomplete passes over the goal line, increasing the side line zone from 10 to 15 yards, return of the goal posts to the goal line, modification of the "dead ball" rule.

Club at Stayton Has Anniversary Progress is Noted; All of Former Presidents but Two are Present

STAYTON, Feb. 3.—Ten years ago this month a small group of women met in the city hall, to organize a Women's Community club. There was much enthusiasm evinced for such an organization and the club was formed. Their by-laws read that "The object of this club shall be to secure cooperation in civic activities, to advance and promote the social and commercial welfare of the people of the town of Stayton and vicinity and to aid the growth and upbuilding of the general community." This they have striven to do and the club has grown from a small group to the present membership of 72.

For a time they met in the city hall, later the Forester hall and all the time were doing something to get money to build their own home. They gave dances, entertainments, served dinners at auction sales, had food fairs, until finally there was enough money in the treasury to build the fine clubhouse, which is second to none in the state for a town of the size of Stayton. The building was built on property owned by the city, and it is hoped that some day the lot may be turned over to them as their own.

The regular meeting of the club last Thursday was designated as the club's "birthday party," and was an enjoyable affair. There were about 40 members present. The members brought gifts which will be used in the building, coat-hangers, cups and saucers, card table covers, tea towels and other articles.

All the past presidents with the exception of Mrs. J. Mayo, who is in Seattle, and Mrs. J. H. Missler, who passed away, were present and sat in a body. They are Mrs. Edna Sloper, Mrs. H. J. Tate, Mrs. C. H. Brewer, Mrs. Nora Gardner, Mrs. Harley Champ, Mrs. C. P. Neibert and Mrs. B. A. Schaefer. Each was presented with a corsage and gave a short talk. Mrs. Sloper, first president, was given an especially lovely corsage and a life membership in the club. Mrs. Mayo sent a clever note which was read. As Mrs. E. C. Downing played "The Vacant Chair," the members bowed their heads in respect to Mrs. Missler.

Mrs. Mattie Bruce read a history of the club and Miss Audrey Davis sang two pleasing numbers. She was accompanied by Mrs. Victor Phelps.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. B. A. Schaefer, Mrs. E. C. Downing and Mrs. Felix Wright.

cones hospital to maintain it as a standard hospital.

"In the past the Deaconess hospital has carried on a large portion of the charity and credit hospital service in this city. The Deaconess management plans in the building of the new unit to give hospitalization also to those who can better afford to pay for it. Numerous improvements and purchases of equipment have been made in the recent past with the intent of meeting the conditions of a standard hospital.

On invitation of the board of trustees, Dr. Malcolm T. McEachern, president of American College of Surgeons, is expected in this city soon and then the final plans for standardizing the Deaconess hospital will be drawn up.

Dawson Resigns As Port Official
Kenneth D. Dawson of Portland Saturday resigned as a member of the Port of Portland commission to take effect immediately upon the appointment of a successor. Dawson said his resignation was necessary for the reason that he was leaving on an extended trip and would not be able to attend the port meetings regularly.

COX WINNER AT AGUA CALIENTE
AGUA CALIENTE, Mex., Feb. 3.—(AP)—W. H. "Wifty" Cox won the fifth annual Agua Caliente Open golf championship with a 72 hole score of 282 today, not only to establish a new scoring record for the event but knock-out a pet golf superstition into the nearest trap.

The Brooklyn pro led the field at the end of the second round, held his position through a gruelling third round and was still out in front by a stroke over Willie Hunter, Culver City, Cal., who, when the firing was over on the Mexican front.

An old golf axiom has it that some of the leaders blow in the third round and those who fail to explode in the third crack in the fourth.

Cox ran the scale in winning the $1500 first money. His four rounds moved up a stroke a day, 69-70-71-72, when more than a stroke advance would have been embarrassing.

Hunter, 41 years old last Monday, was given a handsome birthday present of $1000 for finishing second. The former British star, long resident in the United States, winning the light to the last hole, coming to the 18th with a chance to tie for the lead by getting a birdie three.

He fired a great run 22 feet above the cup and was left with a tricky putt against the grain of the green. His ball stopped a scant two feet short.

Donny Shute, British Open champion, shot a sparkling 68 in the last round to slip into third place with a total of 285.

The Thursday night schedule for the Major league at Parrish is Pade's vs. Freshmen at 7—and that will be a hot one; Valley Moor V-8 vs. Cardinals at 8; Parker's vs. Kay Mills, another close one most likely, at 9.

Also on Thursday night, Salem basketball fans are in line for one of the big attractions of the year—the New York Ghosts, the "most colored" team in the world. They play Willamette on the Willamette floor and are they good? They won 86 games and lost 13 last year. Such colorful performers as "Suit-case" Simmons who wears size 14 shoes and stands 6 feet 4; "Cool Breeze" Anthony who is billed as the world's greatest ball handler, and others will trot their wares for the edification of Salem fans.

CURT COMMENTS

The Industrial Golf league will wind up its winter campaign today, with all teams turning in scores. Medical-Dental is out in front but eight teams have a chance for the championship. Weather conditions have been ideal for golf all of the past week and if they remain so today, each team should have a full turnout. The course is being put in better shape every day.

Tuesday night will be a busy one for the poor sport scribbles. There's the wrestling show, featured by the meeting of Robin Reed and Art Perkins, promised after some jockeying on the part of Reed. Les Nelson and Walter Tinkit Achin will clash, and Don Sugai will be on the program. Last week's arrangement whereby women fans were not required to pay proved so successful that it will be repeated.

And then there will be basketball games Tuesday night on all floors in town. Lindfield and Willamette on the Willamette floor, Salem high and the Oregon Frosh on the high school floor, Parrish and Gervais high on the Parrish floor, the regular Minor City-Y league games on the Y. M. C. A. floor. How's that for utilizing all the equipment and calling out all the basketball fans in town?

Wednesday night there will be the big Pade's-Parker's Major City-Y league game at Parrish, postponed from several weeks ago. Both teams have lost some players since their first meeting at the opening of the league season which Pade's won by a single point; Parker's won a later non-league game by the same margin. Pade's in the past week lost Steelhammer, who joined the Bearcats, and Burch whose arm was injured in Thursday night's game. Of the players on these teams, Scales is leading in scoring with 78 points. Magee of Parker's is next with 54 and Bone of Pade's is third with 48. Pade's has scored 236 points to opponents' 151, while Parker's has scored 187 to opponents' 177.

The Minor City-Y, schedule for Tuesday night at the Y. M. C. A. is Tanager vs. Western Paper at 7 o'clock, Kay Mills vs. Oregon Paper at 8, Pay 'n' Takt vs. Square Deal which probably will be the feature game, at 9. The Thursday night schedule for the Major league at Parrish is Pade's vs. Freshmen at 7—and that will be a hot one; Valley Moor V-8 vs. Cardinals at 8; Parker's vs. Kay Mills, another close one most likely, at 9.
