COOK HERO OF COURT BATTLE

Grabs Rebound and Tosses Winning Point After Score Tied Again

EUGENE, Ore., Feb. 5. — (AP)—The University of Washington strengthened its coast conference north division lead by defeating a fighting, close-checking University of Oregon basketball team 34 to 32 in an overtime game here tonight.

Mid-court heaves by Galer and Merrin brought the Huskies abreast the Webfoots, 30 to 30, just 10 seconds before the final gun sounded. Oregon missed three free throws in the overtime melee.

Cook put Washington ahead in the overtime period with a tip-in shot after Galer missed a free throw. Bud Jones evened the count with a long shot.

Cook spangled himself with glory by dropping the winning goal on Galer's rebound from a long shot.

At half time Oregon led 10 to 9. This lead was boosted to 14 to 9 in the terrific second half. The close checking on both teams made it difficult to get close shots. Long range heaves with little time for aiming featured the play.

The Oregon lead was 26 to 18 with only seven minutes left to play. The Oregon five looked like a sure winner; the Huskies be-draggled. Then Coach Hec Ed-mundson's men came to life and before the game was over Galer added 14 points to his imposing season's scoring record.

Jack Robertson led the Web-foot scoring with 10 points.

The King and the Crown

By BURNLEY

CARNERA'S LANTERN JAW-- WHAT A TARGET FOR MY RIGHT HAND-- SAYS KING LEVINSKY.

WHO MAY GET A SHOT AT PRIMO'S CROWN NEXT JUNE.

HE'LL KAYO CARNERA

PETE REILLY

SOCK

ONE of the most colorful characters in the modern sports world, "Kingfish" Levinsky, is very much in the limelight just now. Because of the squabble between the various promoters, managers and piece-men involved in the Carnera-Baer tangle, it now seems certain that Madison Square Garden, which has the champion tied up, will sidetrack Max Baer and give the summer title shot to the Chicago "Kink."

To start out his build-up as heavyweight challenger, the Lar-ruping Litvak from the Windy City will attempt to park his goofy right wings upon the chin of Charley Massera, youthful Pittsburgh heavyweight. This embroglio is scheduled to take place Friday at Madison Square Garden. If the Kingfish hands Massera a shellacking, as is expected, he will then take on the German heavy-weight contender, Walter Neusel. Then, if His Majesty comes through these bouts with his fistic reputation, such as it is, still intact, he will be tossed in there with the mountain that walks like a man, better known as Primo-O Carnera, in a battle for the heavyweight championship of this and all other universes.

Meester Levinsky may not be such a bad opponent for Carnera at that. He fought the big guy on two previous occasions, and is still alive. More than that, the Kink seems to believe that he was robbed of both verdicts in their previous scrambles, and he can point to several newspaper accounts of the fighters which support him in his opinion. Then, too, Levinsky has improved tremendously in the last few months under the crafty tutelage of Fisti-ana's Silver Fox, Pete Reilly. The silver-haired master mind has made the King get into really good condition, and has improved his boxing considerably while teaching him to shorten his right hand wal-lops.

Levinsky claims to have put Carnera on the deck for no count in one of their former jousts, and he is very anxious for another shot at the giant Italian's lantern jaw. However, there is always the chance that Prof. Thomas Loughran may upset these plans by out-scoring Signor Carnera in their approaching Miami duel.

LINFIELD QUINT HELD FAVORITE

Lever's Men Hold Victory Over Columbia; Neely, Brostrom Speedy

One of the most hotly contested games of the current North-west conference basketball season is expected tonight when the Willamette Bearcats and Linfield Wildcats clash on the Willamette floor at 8 o'clock. The freshmen will play in a preliminary.

Linfield has played only one conference game, defeating Albany college by a big margin, but Coach Henry Lever's boys have won over Columbia university in Portland and therefore are favored to defeat the Bearcats although under regular rules Willamette might have beaten Columbia Saturday night. In that game Willamette lost the advantage of the field which it took regularly from Columbia here in a previous game.

Sharpshooting honors on the Wildcat squad have been divided recently between Neely and Brostrom, the forwards, although Neely is a little more highly rated. His running mate, Dur-ham, center, and Stewart and Hel-ser, guards, are the other Linfield regulars and all are highly talented.

Linfield has beaten Willamette only once in Northwest conference competition and that was an occasion when the Bearcats had just lost the championship to Whitman and were a trifle "down." However, Willamette's past victories are doing it no good this season, as the series with Pacific revealed.

NORMAL HOOPSTERS BEAT TURNVEREIN

MT. ANGEL, Feb. 5. — The Mt. Angel hoopsters defeated the strong Turnverein team on the local floor Sunday, by a score of 18 to 11.

The game was more or less a give and take affair in the beginning. More rivalry prevailed as the game moved along. At one time the Turnverein gained nine points in a stretch, and the fact that their star player was missing may have accounted for their losing the game.

Lineup: Turnverein: Mt. Angel Phillips, F. Ferschweiler, Lundy, J. Schwab, Collops, J. C. Zolner, Brooks, R. C. Grosjaques, Amoto, G. Baurbannais, Moeller, S. Klinger, Ellsworth, S. Piennet, S. Meyers, S. Keber, S. Berning.

CUNNINGHAM SETS HALF MILE RECORD

NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 5. — (AP)—Glen Cunningham, sensational University of Kansas flier, broke the half mile record for the 113th infantry armory track tonight, stepping the five laps on the flat boards in 1 minute 57 seconds.

Cunningham broke the tape 10 yards ahead of Frank Nordell, New York university's "iron man," coming from fourth place in the last two laps. Content to hang behind to become accustomed to the slippery track, un-banked and with treacherous turns, Cunningham passed Dean Woolsey, of the Boston A. A. and Joe Chapman of the Newark A. C. without any effort whatsoever at the start of the fourth lap and then breezed by the leading Nordell as though the Violet ace were standing still.

The Kansas' time for the first quarter was 58 -25 seconds. Observers estimated his 1:57 was comparable to a 1:55 in Madison Square he ran away from Gene Venzke in the mile only two nights ago.

Merit Wins Cash in Big Golf Meets

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 5. — (AP)—The best golfer still wins the most money in the tournaments although he may have only average luck at taking titles.

Figures on the championships of the Californias compiled today revealed that MacDonald Smith, who collected $2,293.64 cash through the western winter tour, had the lowest average of the professional parade, with 71.1 strokes for every 18 holes he played in competition. Average par was 71.

Paul Runyan, White Plains, N. Y., won the Pasadena open with a 282 total, two strokes under perfect figures. Harold McSpaden, young Kansas City, Kan., set a new par for the 71 layout at Santa Monica in an amateur-9 event, shooting a 62 alone, 9 under standard figures. Olin Dutra, Santa Monica, was five under at Lakewood Country

In "Battle of Champions"

What fistic experts and promoters call a "natural" seems assured as the New York State Athletic Commission gives its approval to the proposed bout between Barney Ross (left), lightweight champion of the world, and Jimmy McLarnin, holder of the welterweight title. A tentative date was set for early May, with charity named beneficiary.

Educational-Legal and The Statesman golf teams wound up in a tie for the championship in the Salem Golf club's industrial league at the close of play Sunday. Whether or not there will be a playoff had not been decided up to Monday night. There is also a possibility that a re-check may place one of the six teams now bunched one match below the leaders, up in a tie with the first two.

The Statesman achieved its high ranking by a narrow margin, winning one of its matches Sunday by a single stroke. This team, while not spectacular, stayed in the race by turning in a five-man score every week. CURT COMMENTS

Maybe the northern division Coast conference hoop race isn't getting hot? You may take your pick tonight but whatever happens, it looks as though this great commonwealth was back in the spotlight in the world of basketball. An Oregon win would help Oregon State mightily—the Webfeet themselves are out of it, theoretically, after dropping that heartbreaker last night. But even if the Webfeet do give the Beavers an assist, it's just like them to come back about March 2 or 3 and spoil it all by giving Gill's boys another licking. That's the way they do things in that league.

We expect to see some hot basketball here tonight, as we roam about by airplane from one gymnasium to the other. Some of you fans ought to accompany us on that jaunt some night. Eight basketball games and a wrestling show. You'd think we would get dizzy, wouldn't you?

Old Henry Lever has been aching for some revenge against the Bearcats and he may cut a slice of it tonight. Just one victory wouldn't go far against all the beatings his wildcats have taken, but we'll bet it would taste mighty good to Henry at that.

DOUGHBOYS BEAT PAY'N TAKIT FIVE BY LARGE SCORE

Pay'n Takit five paid and took it last night on the city Y. basketball court when the Cherry City Doughboys knamed them thoroughly to the rhythm of 36 to 14. However, much of the bakers' victory may be credited to Vanderhoof, who ran up 13. With the exception of Vanderhoof, only Eckman of the Doughboys equaled Ned Hale's eight points for the grocers.

HAMILTON WILL BE NAVY COACH

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Feb. 5. — (AP)—Lieut. Thomas Hamilton will appoint Edgar A. "Rip" Miller as head football coach at the United States naval academy, it was learned here today. Miller, however, will remain at the academy as civilian coach, giving the major portion of his attention to the line.

FRESHMEN ARE HIGHLY TOUTED

If Wintermute Able to Play Game Should be Close; Game at 8 p.m.

The University of Oregon Frosh basketball team, composed this year largely of out-of-state players who have won places thereon ahead of several stars who shone in the state high school tournament here last year, will engage the Salem high school quintet on the high school floor here tonight at 8 o'clock following a preliminary in which the high school B team will figure.

The Frosh were touted at the opening of the season as one of the strongest such teams in history, but lost a couple of stars through temporary ineligibility, and they have split even so far with the Oregon State Rooks, who lost to Salem high recently. This indicates that Salem will have a chance if it is able to muster the brand of game it was playing at that time. However when the Rooks went down to defeat here, Salem high was in the midst of a winning streak, whereas it has lost its last three games.

If "Ike" Wintermute, scoring ace for the red and black who has not played in the last two games, is able to return tonight with something like his usual form, it should be a close contest.

KNIGHT GETS DRAW WITH ROSENBLUM

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 5. — (AP)—Making his first bid for a world championship, Joe Knight, slugging southpaw from Cairo, Ga., tonight battled Maxie Rosenbloom, wearer of the light heavyweight crown, to a well earned draw in a 15-round title bout at the Madison Square Garden open air arena here.

The fight, the first title affair to be held in Florida since Jim Corbett knocked out Charlie Mitchell, a British contender, in a heavyweight bout in Jacksonville, 40 years ago, was witnessed by approximately 23,000 persons, mostly southerners, who backed Knight to the limit.

Announcement was made by Garden officials that the crowd drew gate receipts of approximately $35,000.

Starting out strong at the opening bell, Knight carried the fight to the champion in the early rounds, exchanging lefts and rights with equal effectiveness, both Rosenbloom and taking the better of the infighting. The challenger frequently rushed the Harlem Harlequin to the ropes, punishing him severely.

Bill Busick, John Varley Are Elected

William J. Busick was elected vice-president of the Salem Golf club and John Varley was elected secretary, at the annual meeting held at the clubhouse Monday night. Erce W. Kay, president, and D. W. Egan, treasurer, were reelected. Busick and Varley in their new offices succeed Graham Sharkey, who sold his stock in the club to Kay recently.

Directors elected were Varley and Prince Byrd. Holdover directors are Busick, Fred Ritner and Kay.

It was decided that four inter-city team matches would be scheduled this year.

A number of matters in connection with the course were discussed. The budget for upkeep and improvements will be increased to the end that the course is expected to be kept in even better condition than in the past.

TEVENNER APPLIES FOR EXECUTIVE JOB

The name of Ralph W. Tavenner, assistant principal during the last eight years at Salem high school, was yesterday added to the list of formal applicants for the school superintendency here. Tavenner, early mentioned as a possible candidate, Monday filed his application with W. H. Burghardt, district clerk, and Monday was graduated from the University of California in 1912. He holds a master's degree in the arts from the University of Oregon.

His first teaching experience was at Coos River. Later he taught at Independence and Monticello and was principal at Enterprise for three years. He came to Salem following a year as principal of Corvallis junior high school. He has also been an education instructor in the University of Oregon extension service.

Reed and Perkins to Meet Tonight; Bulldog Jackson Is on Mat Program Here

Fans who have been waiting, more or less impatiently, for Robin Reed and Art Perkins to finish their quarrel begun here over a month ago, will get their fill, presumably at the armory tonight.

Reed is put more or less "on the spot" in this match because it was reported signed, then called off and the announcement was that Reed had taken a run-out powder. In view of Reed's past willingness to meet all comers, only a few fans will accuse him of being back "Bulldog" Jackson; his reasons probably had to do with the bigger gate and bigger fight available if he could induce Matchmaker Herb Owen to stage the bout in Portland instead of here. Nevertheless the Redsport editor will probably hear a few raspberries tonight.

In their first meeting here, Perkins won but he might not have except for Reed's tactical error in trying to enliven the affair by pinching Perkins' midriff; this angered the home boy and he cracked a hard one to the jaw that put Reed out. The time was nearly up when that happened and the bout would have ended a draw.

Walter Tinkit Achlu, the colorful Chinese, will meet Nelson, a newcomer from Great Falls, Montana.

There has been a change in the plans for the opening bout. Instead of another appearance by Don Sugal, Owen has decided to bring back "Bulldog" Jackson, matching him with Jack Curtiss, who defeated Mickey McGuire last week.

Repeating the special attraction of last week, the management has announced that women fans will be admitted free.

LIONS WILL VIEW HOCKEY CONTEST

Members of the Salem Lions club are organizing a party to go to Portland Friday night to attend the last of the hockey games between Portland and Vancouver to be played in the Rose City this season. About 40 are expected to go on the junket, John Marr is in charge of arrangements.

From Italy

Fresh from the sunny land of Italy comes Vittorio Tamagnini, feather-weight champion of that country, to do battle with the best the United States has to offer. He is shown arriving at New York, where he will go into training for his American ring campaign.
