Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
Catering to the smart matron, and the woman who believes her figure is a problem to clothe because it is no longer slim, is the stunning ensemble sketched. It is planned to flatter the figure, and lend an air of smartness and distinction to its wearer. Utter simplicity is the key-note to its loveliness — the raglan sleeved jacket worn by length for a straighter silhouette; the frock with a gracefully flared collar of contrast, surplice bodice and short raglan sleeves. One of the new sheers would be perfect — in a discreetly chosen print, or monotone.

Pattern 1758 is available in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 38 takes 4 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric and 3/4 yard contrasting. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send 15 cents in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address, style number and size of each pattern ordered.

The new spring, 1934 edition of the Anne Adams pattern magazine is ready. It is the best guide for the busy woman and children in an interesting, helpful book. Send for your copy and to take this spring. Price 15 cents. Magazine and pattern together, 25 cents.

Address orders to The Oregon Statesman Pattern Dept., 215 South Commercial street, Salem. Make necessary enclosures. Your order will be promptly attended to.

Orders customarily are filled within four to five days after the time received by the Statesman.

Two New Fashion Wrinkles

Two of the newest innovations smiled upon by Dame Fashion. At left, the new lingerie outfit of softest milanese chiffon of chardonnais, designed to go with the close-fitting evening frock and to eliminate unsightly seams. At right, the latest thing in pajama ensembles, composed of slacks and crocheted double-breasted veste.

Warm Weather Wear Displayed at Chicago

By RUTH COWAN
CHICAGO, Feb. 6. — Shorts for women instead of petticoats or slips are on the way with the new warm weather wash frocks. A sport outfit composed of shorts, a manish blouse and a separate skirt, all of the same material, generally seersucker, is a highlight at the present spring market of wash dresses, the largest exhibitors' showing ever held in the midwest.

A total of 163 cotton and wash goods manufacturers from the Atlantic to the Pacific are exhibiting in the merchandise mart. In addition there are similar exhibits in the Loop hotels.

This was interpreted by the trade as a trend toward centralizing the wash goods market in Chicago, which, with a manufacture of 40,000,000 wash frocks annually, is Uncle Sam's biggest producer of feminine and juvenile tub duds.

The new short frock, ideal for tennis, golf, bicycling and outing wear, is predominantly developed in seersucker, which is booked as one of the pet fabrics of the coming warm weather.

Seersucker in pin stripes of two colors or candy stripes of many colors looms as a successful rival of pique, although there were some piques, mostly waffle weave, among the 400 wash goods styles modeled Tuesday and Thursday.

Gingham is a big number and so are flowered and figured voles.

Cotton lace is especially good for evening and daytime.

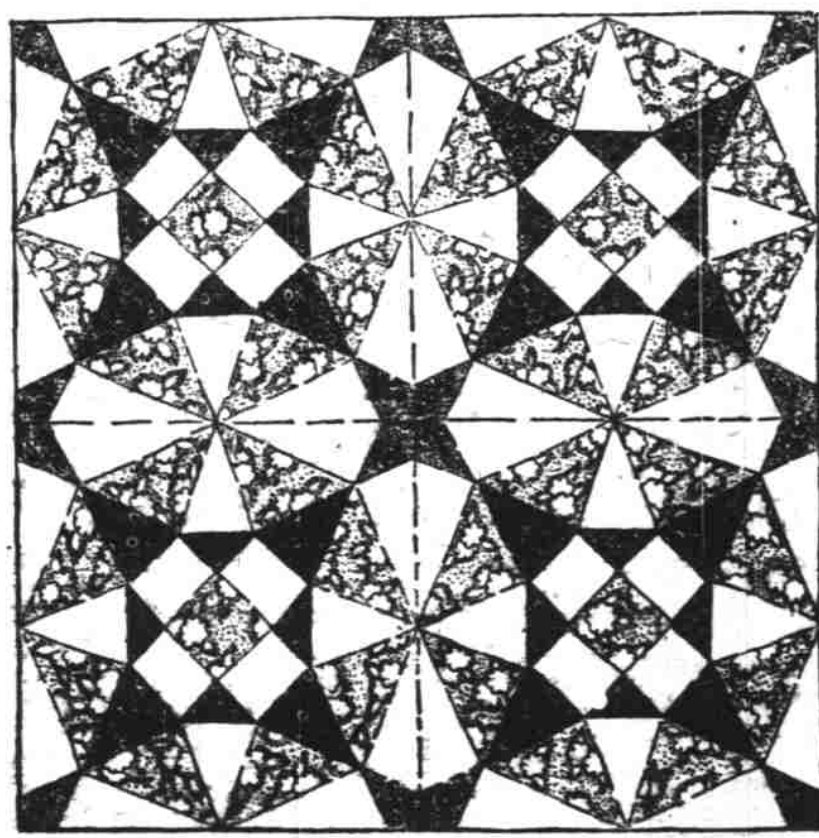

There were beach pajamas, but the newer styles favored beach frocks and knee-length beach coats of seersucker or rough woven fabric.

Jefferson—The February meeting of the Missionary society of the Christian church was held Friday in the church parlor with Mrs. Chas. Loveland and Miss Lou Miller as hostesses. Plans were made for the World's Day of Prayer, to be held Friday afternoon, February 16, at 2 o'clock. Mrs. W. W. Warner had charge of the devotions and program. Talks were given by Mrs. W. H. Sherman, Mrs. Guy Aupperle, Mrs. Hugh Bilyeu and Mrs. Robert Terhune. Special guests were Mrs. McGilvary, Mrs. S. A. Pease, Mrs. G. W. Humphrey, Mrs. Albert Arnold, Mrs. Henry Freeman and Mrs. C. E. Emery.

Scotts Mills—Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Brouger were pleasantly surprised Sunday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Addie Smith, on their 29th wedding anniversary, also her birthday.

Present for dinner besides the honor guests were Mrs. Elizabeth Hosier, grandmother of Mrs. Brouger, Mrs. Janie Christman and son Elwyn, Willie Hosier, Mrs. Ingval Edland and daughter, Aiala Lee, Ada Bumgardner, Oscar Edland, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mills and two children of Silverton, Mrs. Iva Bushey of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Smith and daughter, Gale, and Mrs. Addie Stettler and Betty Jean.

This Quilt is Easy to Make

Stars have always been favored by the quiltmaker. Unlike many star quilts though, Morning Star, as lovely as its name, is very easy to make. It has a quality seen in few quilts; when finished it has the effect of two patterns laid on each other. Simple and quick to construct, the pattern is hand-some carried out in four materials as shown.

Pattern 545 comes to you with complete, simple instructions for cutting, sewing and finishing, together with yardage chart, diagram of quilt to help arrange the blocks for single and double bed size, and a diagram of block which serves as a guide for placing the patches and suggests contrasting materials.

Send 10 cents for this pattern to The Oregon Statesman Needle-Craft Dept., 215 South Commercial, Salem.
