

PRINCIPAL REVIVALS TO CLOSE SUNDAY

Revival services now in the fifth week at Evangelistic Tabernacle will be brought to a close Sunday. Attendance and interest have been excellent throughout. Paston Weston states "The evangelists have reserved the best for the last. Evangelist O. R. Cross, Rev. Prinic's assistant, whose ministry has won him a warm appreciation in the hearts of those who have heard him, will bring the message at the morning service, 11 a. m. Sunday. Evangelist A. Prinic will tell a portion of his life story Saturday night, speaking on "From Altar Boy to African Missionary." His subject Sunday night at 7:45 p. m. will be "Voices from Africa."

Mrs. Prinic and Mrs. Cross will offer special music at each service. Evangelist and Mrs. A. J. Prinic who have been in active service in the northwest for several years received appointments in January for life service in inland Africa. They expect to carry the gospel to the Pigny tribes in the most remote missionary outposts under the auspices of the General Council of the Assemblies of God, with headquarters at Springfield, Missouri. The missionary board of the Assemblies of God oversees and cares for about 300 missionaries reaching around the earth. Evangelistic Tabernacle is located at Ferry and 13th streets, one block south and one east from the supreme court building.
