League to Have New Writer's Section

On account of the limitation of membership of the Writers' section of the Salem Arts league and the large number of persons who have expressed a desire to belong to such an organization, it has been decided to organize a second writer's section under the name of "The Blue Pencil." This new section will take up creative writing and make a special study of marketing needs. It will be under the leadership of Perry Prescott Reigelman, one of the original members of the Writers' section. Those interested in affiliating with such a group under the auspices of the Arts league are cordially invited to attend the open meeting of the league tonight in the auditorium of the Salem public library...

These Pictures are Easy to Do

What youngster does not love the poems of Robert Louis Stevenson? Here is a favorite one, developed in two nursery pictures. These have been designed to tell the story in the simplest stanzas, and are very striking carried out in colors. Each picture can be used alone, although the two are a pair. The pictures measure 11 by 15 inches. Nursery Pictures Patterns 631-632. Pattern 631 (the winter picture) and pattern 632 (the summer picture) each comes to you with a transfer pattern of the picture, complete directions for embroidering and framing the pictures. Send 10 cents for each pattern (20 cents for both) to The Oregon Statesman Needlecraft Dept., 215 South Commercial street, Salem.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS. This is a frock for the "not-too-slender" figure—designed with all the problems of the larger figure in mind. It avoids fusy, frilly lines that confuse the eye—instead it adopts the straighter, unbelted silhouette, slenderizing seeming that suggest coat-like lines, and a softly flared collar to flatter the face. The sleeves, too, boast flares or may be worn long. A dainty print combined with a monotone would make up beautifully in either silk or cotton. With the new illustrated instructor for your sewing guide, this frock can be made easily and quickly. Pattern 1768 is available in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48 and 50. Size 36 takes 3 7/8 yards 36 inch fabric and one yard contrasting.

Send 15 cents in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write clearly name, address, style number and size of each pattern ordered. The new special edition of the Anne Adams pattern magazine is ready. All the best spring styles for adults and children in an interesting, helpful book. Send for your copy and be sure this spring. Price of magazine, 15 cents. Magazine and pattern together, 55 cents. Address orders to The Oregon Statesman Needlecraft Dept., 215 South Commercial street, Salem. Make necessary enclosures. Your order will be promptly attended to. Orders customarily are filled within four days from the time received by the Statesman.
