SPEERSTRA RITES

FALLS CITY, Feb. 12 .- Funerservices were held in the Methodist church Monday afternoon for Bronno S. Speerstra, who passed away at his home here Friday after a long illness. He was born in Holland near Amsterdam, July 3, 1877, and came to the United States when 11 years of age with his parents, who settled in Wisconsin near LaCrosse. In 1908 he was married to Miss Frances Cole, te which union were born a daughter, Ellen, and two sons, Sam and Gerald, all of whom survive him. He came with his family to Portland in 1914, seeking to regain failing health, and had since resided in this state. * He is also survived by his father, S. F. Speerstra; four brothers, A. H., P. J., S. S. and F. H. Speerstra; a sister, Mas Alice Speerstra, all of Whitehall, Wis., and another sister, Mrs. O. C. Stine of Washington, D. C.

Word has been received here of the death Friday of Fred Zuver in a waldport logging camp. He was killed instantly while running a donkey engine. Zuver had spent most of his life in and around Falls City. Surviving him are his widow, one son and three daughters. Funeral services were held at the Methodist church Monday morning.

How much time will be required to award the contract for the five bridges which it is proposed to construct on the Oregon Coast highway with the aid of federal funds cannot be determined until the contract between the state and the public works administration has been received, J. M. Devers, attorney for the state highway commission announced Monday. He said the tentative contract was en route from Washington to rive here today. It then will be sent to Portland for consideration of the state highway commission. "If the conditions of the contract are such as we can accept GEO. C. WILL-Pianos, radios, sewing them it will be signed at once and machines, sheet music and plano stu-dies. Repairing radios, phonographs and sewing machines, 432 State Street, said. "If, on the other hand, the contract has to be modified or changed, additional time will be required to get actual construction operations under way." The cost of the bridges was esimated at $5,200,000, of which 30 per cent would be obtained as a direct grant. The remaining 70 per cent would be borrowed from the government and be repaid out of bridge tolls and other state highway department receipts.

Mortgage Firm's Noteholders to Get $7567 Soon

Cash totalling $7567 is on hand for distribution to certain noteholders of the Willamette Valley Mortgage and Loan company, in-solvent, E. W. Smidt, trustee of certain of the firm's real assets, reported in circuit court here yeserday. Smidt was named by the court to act for B. F. Glesy who was formerly trustee of the property the noteholders took as security for obligations totaling $13,-500. The property was sold at sheriff's sale and was bid in by Smidt. The total judgment was $16,416. Murl Smidt contracted to buy the mortgaged property - a hop ranch-for $17,600 and has aleady paid $8800 on account. The trustee has received certain miscellaneous income and has disbursed $3130, the bulk of the lat-

Butter, Eggs Steady; Chickend Demand is Strong: Onion Sales Slow

PORTLAND, Feb. 12 .- (P)-The Portland grain exchange was closed today.

Further showing of strength was reflected in the cheese trade generally throughout the country during the week. Prices were strong to higher again in spots. Make continued to be inadequate to take care of demand and storage withdrawals were therefore still increasing in most sections. The advance of 1c made in the Tillamook price indicated that the strength in the western sector was well established. Market for butter was without price change for the week's opening here. There was still a good tone locally but outside markets have recently shown weakness in Egg storage operations have been started here and prices in general appear steady for reales with buyers offering little change at country points.

Carrots, local, dos, good here. This applied to local as well as shipping orders, Cash buyers are offering up to 18%c pound for No. 1 toms for shipping and 18c for hens General chicken demand was Hubbard .75 to Tomatoes, California, case also showing a strong tone localy with buyers freely offering 9-

Ice Cream Code Working; Gives Producers More

With the going into effect of the ice cream code Saturday the price paid to dairymen for cream used in ice cream making was given an immediate boost to a minimum of 35 cents a pound butterfat. The present ice cream price of $1:10 a gallon for wholesale deliveries calls for a cream price of 35 cents to 45 cents a pound butterefat basis. Previous prices paid were from 28 cents a pound down to as low as 18 cents a pound.

No controversy has attended
