Hamas Upsets Schmeling's Comeback; Wins Decision; Fight Torrid

Greiner and Iverson Score At Close Range, Decide Finale of Series

CORVALLIS, Ore., Feb. 13.—(AP)—The University of Idaho Vandals upset Oregon State's dreams of a basketball championship with a surprise 34 to 22 win here tonight. Last night the Beavers won from Idaho, 40 to 14.

The defeat was the fifth of the season for Oregon State and gave the Vandals an even break for the four-game series. With only two defeats against it, the University of Washington should be able to win the north division championship in stride.

The work of Greiner under the basket and of Iverson from longer range was the deciding factor in the reversal. Big Greiner, who reminded fans here of pictures of Primo Carnera, scored 11 points and made life miserable for Oregon State's guards.

Last night the Beavers were unusually blessed with good fortune in their shooting, but tonight the ball wouldn't obey.

PISTOL MARKSMEN IN FAST COMPANY

The kind of competition pistol shooting the Marion-Polk chapter are facing in the national postal matches is indicated in the following extract from a letter received from the St. Louis, Mo., chapter, consistent winners:

"It took several years of hard work to develop our team. Four of our shooters have made Distinguished Pistol Marksmen at Camp Perry, Ohio. One has been Missouri state champion twice, another won the rapid fire championship of Missouri this year. Lt. Col. L. M. Rumsey, Jr., our coach, has been nationally known as a pistol shot for 35 years, and is a past president of the National Rifle Association. Our chapter team is a composite team made out of 12 ten-man teams that fire a regular-league schedule during the year. We hope that Marion-Polk chapter keeps shooting as it has a strong team and has turned in some excellent scores."

The five shooters representing Salem and the state of Oregon in the series of events sponsored by the Reserve Officers Association, still hold second place, although in competition with seasoned experts representing teams from every state in the union.

Walton League Meets Tonight; Gains Members

Formal application for a charter for the Salem chapter of the Inak Walton league will probably be made following the meeting to be held tonight at 8 o'clock at the chamber of commerce. At the first meeting recently it was estimated 50 sportsmen would be charter members, but indications yesterday were that that number would be doubled.

Dr. P. A. Loar of Silverton, on the executive committee of the state's league, and another representative of the state organization, are expected to attend the meeting tonight. Judge Harry Belt is president of the local chapter, and T. A. Roberts is secretary.

Fistic Lesson From an Expert

An eager school of fistic aspirants hangs on the words of Tommy Loughran, contender for the heavyweight championship of the world, as he explains some of the finer points of the noble art. Tommy is training at West Palm Beach, Fla., for his bout with Champion Primo Carnera.

Whiskers Prove Slickers; Defeat Bearcats 49 to 35 In Lively Court Contest

WHISKERS which fluttered in the breeze did not keep the House of David hoopsters from being voted the "slickest" of the three traveling hoop squads to appear here this season, as they "slickered" the Willamette Bearcats, 49 to 35, Tuesday night on the Willamette floor.

The lads from the reputedly no-longer-existent religious colony in Michigan were younger and in better shape than the other transient hoopsters who have visited Salem, and they mixed it in livelier and, to be candid, rougher fashion. Referee Howard Maple would have needed 20 assistants, one to watch each Davidsite from each corner of the court, to keep track of all the plain and fancy fouling they perpetrated. One went out on fouls and there was no substitute, but the game was nearly over.

Nevertheless the hirsute ones found time to play a lot of basketball, likewise assorted as plain and fancy. They adapted the "pepper game" of their baseball brothers to the court game and made practical use of it in getting the ball into scoring position. Johnston, the slickest of the collection, potted 11 field goals.

The Bearcats played a more aggressive game, in the main, than they have recently, but missed easy shots repeatedly. They held the lead in the latter part of the first half, coming to the front with a rush after letting the Davidsites score nine points in their lone at the outset. Willamette led 21 to 18 at half time.

Leaders Win in Portland Loop

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 13.—(AP)—Today's city high school basketball games were merely a big buildup for Friday night when the still undefeated Washington and Franklin teams meet.

Washington nosed out Lincoln 15 to 15 today. Franklin jumped onto Grant, 38 to 24. Jefferson kept marching with a 38 to 25 win over Commerce and Benson defeated Roosevelt 37 to 23.

BULLDOGS DEFEATED WOODBURN, Feb. 13.—The Woodburn Bulldogs met defeat at the hands of the Lebanon basketball team here Friday night when they clashed on the high school gym floor. The score was 37 to 24, making the sea-

EX-CHAMP HAS NO PUNCH LEFT

Former Footballer Piles up Points; Late Rally by German is Futile

CONVENTION HALL, Philadelphia, Feb. 13.—(AP)—The comeback campaign of dogged Max Schmeling, once heavyweight champion of the world, crumbled tonight before the sledging fists of young Steve Hamas, more famous as a football player than a prize fighter, in another stunning ring upset.

Before a crowd of 16,000 that jammed Convention hall as a fight place hasn't been jammed in Philadelphia since Gene Tunney beat Jack Dempsey for the heavyweight title in the Sequoy-Centennial stadium, Hamas battered the stubborn Teuton for the greater part of 12 rounds, slashing his left eyebrow open in the ninth, and easily won the unanimous decision of Referee Spud Murphy and two judges.

Despite the width of his margin, and the seriousness of a gash almost two inches long in Schmeling's left eyebrow, Hamas had to stave off a terrific twelfth round drive of the German to save himself from being battered to the floor.

There were no knockdowns, but the duel wound up in a fever of punching that had the capacity crowd roaring wildly. Beaten so badly that only a knockout could turn the tide, Schmeling rallied near the close of the eleventh, brought a stream of blood from Hamas' nose with the final punch of the round, a right-hand smash to the face, and then hammered the former Penn State fullback until he was weak and wobbly in the final session.

Title Fight Set Six Days Later

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 13.—(AP)—Postponement until February 28 of the world's heavyweight title fight between Champion Primo Carnera and Tommy Loughran, originally set for February 22, was announced today by the Miami Boxing commission.

Setting back of the date for the bout was sanctioned because of a number of other sporting events scheduled for February 22.

CURT COMMENTS

Former Footballer Piles up Points; Late Rally by German is Futile

Emil Pilsso called 24 fouls on the Oregon Normal Wolves at Independence, in that game which they won from the Bearcats 88 to 18 Monday night. The Willamette boys were as badly "off" in converting those free throws as they were in looping field goals, for they made only 10 points out of the probably 30 gift shots.

There seems to be an epidemic of dizziness among hoopsters this year; every other day you read about one of them shooting a field goal for the wrong team. Averill of Oregon Normal did it in that game. The same night a couple of players in the Salem high-McMinnville game lined up the wrong way for a jump ball and we looked for it to happen then, but it so happened that nobody took a shot immediately afterward.

After Oregon State had piled up a big lead against Idaho Monday night, Slats Gill sent in a team composed of Palenberg, Taylor, Kidder, Hill and Bergstrom; four of them from recent state champion high school teams and all familiar to Salem fans as having played in the tournament here. They performed well, too, spectators have informed us. Slats has some mighty good men developing for next year. He doesn't lose all of this year's rapidly improving combination, at that.

Lafayette Girls Lose to Dayton

DAYTON, Feb. 13.—The Dayton union high school girls' basketball team defeated the Lafayette girls here Friday, 44 to 8, and the Dayton boys' team lost to Lafayette, 19 to 18.

CURTISS WINS IN FAST BOUT

New Mexico Grappler Wins Approval; Fails to Turn Other Cheek

Jack Curtiss, handsome grappler from New Mexico, took two out of three falls to win from Art Perkins last night at the armory, and won the favor of a large crowd by retaliating when Perkins exhibited dirty propensities. Curtiss used an airplane spin in winning the first fall, and his special rope-swing to take the third.

Perkins used to be a nice, clean boy, but of late has been adopting the methods of "Bull-dog" Jackson. Just before the last fall Curtiss offered to shake hands, whereupon Perkins slapped his face and used the rabbit-punch a couple of times. The crowd booed.

Harry Elliott, popular as a referee, took two out of three from Mickey McGuire in the feature bout of the evening. McGuire won a fall with his specialty, the Indian death lock, but fell victim to Elliott's whip-wristlocks to lose the other two. The match was fast and clean, both wrestlers exhibiting considerable agility and polish.

"Idealist" Gray won from Don Sugal, 8 to 6, in the curtain-raiser, two out of three, much to the displeasure of the cash customers. Gray pulled hair so much that Referee Walter Tinkit Achiu had to take part in the show. Achiu got a body-scissors on Gray and made him promise nothing at all. Gray, after taking his winning fall, held out his hand to Sugal, and then stamped on the Japanese boy's foot when the loser gamely responded to the gesture.

MACCABEES STILL LEAD JUNIOR FIVES

Save that the Calvary Baptist dropped from second place rating shared with the two other teams into a tie for third with the First Methodist aggregation, Junior City league standings unchanged following Saturday night's last session of regular play. The Baptists and the First Methodists will battle it out Friday night in preparation for the league playoff Saturday at the city Y.

The Maccabees by defeating the Calvary Baptists maintained their league leadership. Presbyterians won by default from the Temple Baptist squad and then proceeded to accept a 15 to 0 tromping from a pickup team. Jason Lee Aces, who with the Presbyterians are now tied for second place, won an easy victory from the United Brethren representatives while the Jason Lee Juniors bowed before the onslaught of the Knight Memorial team.

St. Paul's boys took two drubbings, one as scheduled from the First Methodists and the other a makeup from Knight Memorial.

MAJOR LEAGUERS TO PLAY TONIGHT

Major City-Y. league basketball games scheduled for this week will be played tonight on the Willamette floor instead of Thursday night in the Parrish gym, it was announced yesterday. The change was made because of a double conflict with Thursday night games, the Willamette Freshmen playing Salem high that night and the Willamette-Colege of Puget Sound game looming as a rival attraction.

Tonight's games at Willamette, the last Major league games on the regular schedule, are Freshmen vs. Cardinals at 7 o'clock, Pade's vs. Kay Mills at 8, Parker's vs. Valley Motor V-8 at 9. However, the games postponed from December 28 are yet to be played and have been rescheduled for Thursday of next week.

HOOP HOPES OF DALLAS HIGHER

Corvallis Beaten, Overtime Thriller; Jones Tosses Points to Gain Tie

DALLAS, Feb. 13.—District championship and state tournament hopes of the backers of Dallas high school's basketball team rose many points here tonight when the local team edged out a 22 to 27 victory over Corvallis high in an overtime game after struggling up from behind to tie the score in the last 15 seconds of the regular game.

Jones of Dallas was fouled in the act of shooting, with just 15 seconds left. He coolly converted both points to tie the score at 27-all, then he and Kivler looped field goals and Webb sank a gift shot for the five-point margin in the overtime.

Corvallis scored five points before Dallas hit the loop, and led 5 to 2 as the first quarter ended and 14 to 11 at half time; the visitors made it 20 to 12, then Dallas rallied to tie it up at 20-all as the third period ended. The lead vacillated frequently in the fourth quarter.

The victory was the more impressive in view of the fact that Corvallis defeated Salem high recently on Salem's floor. Corvallis had won an earlier game over Dallas at Corvallis.

Corvallis' B team defeated Dallas B 21 to 15 in the preliminary.

Pay'n Takit defeated Western Paper Converting 28 to 22 in the feature game of the City-Y. Minor league basketball series at the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday night. Pay'n Takit thus remained in a tie with Square Deal Radio, which defeated Oregon Paper 48 to 29, in second place in the league race.

The Teachers clinched the championship for the regular season by defeating Kay Woolen Mills 39 to 8, but there will be a playoff between the top teams and the final verdict is not yet in, as Pay'n Takit have been improving all season while the veteran Teachers have not progressed so rapidly.

Silverton Quint Meets Chemawa Cagemen Tonight

SILVERTON, Feb. 12.—The Silverton high Silver Foxes go to Chemawa Wednesday night for one of their hardest and most important games of the year. This game counts for the county championship and representative to the district tournament.

That the teams are pretty evenly matched and that it should be a close contest, is the general opinion at Silverton. The Indians always seem to display their best brand of ball against Silverton and the Foxes have not been in their top form for several weeks. Silverton meets Woodburn at Silverton Friday night in a game which also counts for the county championship.

Hockey's Tribute to Its Own

By BURNLEY

TONIGHT at Toronto an all-star team of hockey players will play the league-leading Toronto Maple Leafs in a benefit game for the convalescent Ace Bailey, well-known hockey player, who was injured in that ill-starred crash with Eddie Shore on the ice of the Boston Garden rink.

As all hockey fans know, Bailey hovered for days between life and death as a result of the skull fracture caused by his fall on the ice. He finally won out in that bitter battle with the shadowy antagonist, and now is beating his way back to health. But up to date it is at least very doubtful whether he will ever be able to play hockey again. So the benefit game, which should bring him in the neighborhood of $20,000, will be in the nature of a well-deserved tribute to Toronto's hockey fans to one of the greatest players ever to wear the Leaf's uniform.

Such an astute hockey man who the great Lester Patrick, peerless leader of the world's champion Rangers, has called Bailey the nearest approach to the ideal hockey player. This is a truly remarkable tribute, coming from the man who has the famous Bill Cook and the colorful Ching Johnson in his own line-up.

The all-star game should attract a lot of interest all over the hockey circuit. It has been suggested that the National Hockey League make a similar all-star contest an annual or even semi-annual feature of the regular hockey season, thus emulating the annual all-star game which is now a feature of the big league baseball season.

It is generally believed that the all-conquering Toronto sextet will prove too strong for any all-star line-up available, since the masterful team-play of the Leafs would probably overshadow the individual brilliance of the stars in the opposing array.

Such marvels of hockey as Auriel Joliat, shapshooting forward of the Canadiens, Bill Cook, the Rangers' Old Master of the ice, and other far-famed luminaries will sparkle in the all-star line-up, so it should be quite a game, regardless of the result.
