PORTLAND, Feb. 15. - (P) Situation in the butter market was changing with current offerings fully up to need, both locally and for shipping account. Demand from the south was chiefly below

mand for storage was slowly gaining as were receipts. There is a daily cleanup of offerings. While general quotations on chickens have not been lifted, advanced prices were being offered and paid in spots even by members of the Portland exchange which dictates the published price of buyers here. There continued a good call for hens and toms while outside demand was chiefly for the toms. Quiet and nominal trading was confirmed for potatoes and onlons at Oregon - Washington primary points. In spots the undertone on both products appeared a trifle weaker.

Portland retailers and wholesalers for the first supply of 1934 spring lambs, none of which have thus far appeared. All country meat prices were held firm. New Flerida potatoes were out distancing the Hawaiian supply here insofar as sales are concerned. Quality of the domestic stock was reported much the best.

Fraternis Hears Plea, Encourage

Taking the problem of caring for the poor as an example of the arduous duties of government officials, Don Upjohn, Salem newspaper man, urged that encouragement be given them rather than only criticism, in addressing members of Fraternis club at the Gray Belle restaurant last night. Upjohn declared that if the poor could agree among themselves

Teacher Contracts Being Mailed Out

Blank contracts to be signed by school boards and teachers were being sent out yesterday by the county school superintendent's office to various school clerks throughout the county. A few districts are reported to have signed contracts for 1934-1935 with their teachers but as yet the bulk of the districts have taken no formal action on their next year's contracts. Many teachers are already making application to the county office here, seeking aid in the location of a teaching posi-
