

HOLMAN-MEIER GLASH REVIVED

Ghost Sessions Ended but Not Warfare Between Two Old Members

have had an opportunity to investigate several of the matters coming before this board," Stadelman continued. "It looks funny to me if the governor would not call a meeting of the board of control in a case of emergency."

"It is not funny," Holman replied. "There have been periods as long as six weeks without a meeting of the board of control."

Holman then informed Mr. Stadelman that in cases where he desired to conduct an investigation he, Holman, would be willing to defer action. At one time during the discussion Governor Meier asked if there was any more business to be considered, and suggested that the board adjourn.

"Let's not be in too much of a hurry," Holman responded. "We have a considerable business to transact."

Proposes Relief Fund Be Utilized

Governor Meier made it plain that he was chairman of the board of control and that he was not adverse to holding meetings each Monday, providing such action was acceptable to Mr. Stadelman and the state treasurer. Next week's meeting will not be held until Wednesday, due to an appointment made by Stadelman before he was appointed secretary of state.

Holman suggested that approximately $12,000, representing a balance of a relief fund raised by state officials and employees subsequent to December, 1931, be applied toward the cost of operations for patients in the state tuberculosis hospital.

"I think this would be a humane act," Holman said, "and would not inconvenience or injure the contributors."

William Elmsig, secretary of the board of control, declared that this money was contributed for relief purposes and there was a question whether the donors would allow it to be used for operations. He also said that Dr. Grover C. Bellinger, superintendent of the state tuberculosis hospital, was now consulting with a Portland surgeon in hope of obtaining relief for the patients and that the operations would be paid for out of state funds.

Bellinger Expected To Report Soon

"There is no emergency in connection with these patients," Elmsig said, "and we should await action until we have received a report from Dr. Bellinger."

It makes a lot of difference who is dying," Holman retorted. Stadelman declared that it looked to him as though Dr. Bellinger would take immediate action in case of an emergency and not allow unnecessary delays to stand in the way.

Holman also called attention of the board to the state law which requires that its members shall visit the state institutions.

"I have been doing that," Holman continued, "and I have learned a lot about what is needed."

Stadelman replied that he not only intended to visit the institutions but that he would attempt to comply with all other state laws.

A meeting of the state land board, which was to have followed the board of control session, was postponed at the request of the governor until next week.

think most of these will be paid by March 15 in full."

Dairymple said a number of taxpayers were taking advantage of the three per cent discount for full payment by March 15. He has not yet determined what percentage of the taxpayers had used this privilege.

Under the new law a great amount of extra work is piled up for the tax collection department. Every cent of rebate as well as every cent of interest paid on back taxes must be distributed ratably to each tax levying unit as its interest appears. Much extra bookkeeping is required. Heretofore, interest on back taxes went to the county general fund and there was no discount to figure.

Virtually all delinquent taxpayers on levies made before this year have recently received written notice from the sheriff's office of the amount they owe.

as the factor that would decide what action would be taken on foreign airmail contracts.

Postoffice department officials, watching the progress of this inquiry, declined to comment on charges by republican members of congress that administration, in its wholesale cancellation of domestic contracts, failed to set in the case of the Pan-American line. This line, one republican said, had on its directorate "prominent democrats."

The chairman of the senate committee investigating air mail subsidies, Senator Black (D-Ala.), in a radio address tonight, said that much of the $58,000,000 of air mail subsidies paid in the last years of the republican administration had gone to companies "favored" by Walter F. Brown, former postmaster general.

These were the companies, Black said, that figured in a series of meetings in Washington in 1930.

He was indicted with two other men last October on charges of swindling hundreds of persons by accepting fees to locate them on mineral lands in Alaska.

Butts escaped from a sheriff's deputy last year at Monterey, inspectors say. Maderia and Chester Lloyd said, after his arrest on a state charge.

Damage Slight In Earthquake At Santa Rosa

SANTA ROSA, Cal., Feb. 16.—(AP)—Earth shocks described by seismologists as "up and down quakes" occurred here today. Eight tremors also were felt last night.

Weird rumblings accompanied the shocks, which caused cracks in the county court house and upset vases and crockery in a store. Dr. Albert J. Newlin, director of the Ricard memorial observatory at Santa Clara university, described the quakes as of mild intensity.

Mystery Ailment Baffles Doctors

CHICAGO, Feb. 16.—(AP)—Gertrude Siers died tonight at her eyes, ears, nose, throat and from every other mucous membrane, as she had bled for a week, while physicians searched for a remedy in her strange case.

Sixteen transfusions of blood had failed to keep a normal supply in the body of the 30-year-old telephone operator, but they kept her alive and her doctors said it was the only possible treatment.

Taking the blood which seeped so freely from her weakened body, they injected it into guinea pigs to see whether the animals might develop the same condition of thrombocytopenic purpura, a disease which attacks the platelets of the blood. Platelets are cells which cause blood to clot when it reaches the air.

Dr. Charles H. McKenna said the cause of the disease was a mystery. It is rare in its acute form such as Miss Siers' case.

The bleeding from mucous membranes under the skin causes purplish stains which give the disease its name.

Freshmen Beat Grand Ronde by Stopping 'Hoot'

The Willamette university Freshman basketball team continued its successful career Friday night, defeating the Grand Ronde independent team 24 to 16 on the Willamette floor in a preliminary to the Willamette-Puget Sound contest.

Midway of the second half the score was tied 11 all, but the freshmen concentrated on stopping "Hoot" Gibson, ex-Bearcat, and piled up a big lead at the close. Gibson scored 10 of his team's points. Scoring of the Bearkittens was fairly evenly divided.

"In this respect our problem is identical. A great emergency exists. Our tuberculosis hospitals are full to capacity, with long waiting lists and carriers of the dreaded disease are at large. Our insane asylums are over-populated beyond reasonable limits. We have no adequate means of providing for our criminal insane. Our blind children are housed in unsafe, non-fireproof buildings, all of which creates a condition not only detrimental to the welfare of our citizens, but extremely hazardous and dangerous.

"I most earnestly solicit your support on behalf of the people of Oregon, and I trust you will weigh the applications upon their merits."

MOVABLE SLIDES FOR SKIERS, PLAN

DETROIT, Feb. 16.—(AP)—The boys who jump off man-made cliffs on skis are having visions of making their leaps in the not too distant future off portable slides and hills that would be shipped around the country like traveling circuses.

They admit they may be building castles, or scaffolds, in the air, but some of the professional ski jumpers who are here for a meet next Sunday said today prominent figures in the sport world are considering the idea, and predicted it would be "a gold mine."

Among them were Alf and Sverre Engen, Anton Lekang, the Haugen brothers and the Hall brothers. Impressed by the crowds which have turned out for tournaments this winter, they were unanimous in the belief that these thrilling sections where the most thrilling of winter sports now is seen only in the newsreels would turn out in even greater numbers for ski exhibitions.

Snow, they pointed out, is no problem, since it is now being shipped hundreds of miles for ski tournaments.

"Jacob Ruppert, who owns the Yankee stadium, is contemplating the erection of an artificial slide and hill, all in one section, for next winter," said Lekang, the 1932 amateur ski-jumping champion who now is a professional.
