INTERESTS HOLDING BUTTER UP, CHARGE

Carload Onion Lots Moving From Labish at $1 Net, Growers Give Sacks

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 20.—(AP)—Lack of change in the price on cube butter on the produce exchange for the late session was not due to any strength in the general situation but to the desire of manipulative interests to hold values up on the better scores which were not wanted in other markets.

Easiness has replaced strength in the butter trade here and along the coast despite concerted action of exchanges to hold up values as long as possible.

There was no change in the price on butterfat but reports suggest that the greatly decreased demand for ice cream as a result of the arbitrarily advance at retail to 40c quart ordered by the state of Oregon, has thrown considerable sweet cream into churning vats.

Storage operations in the egg market are gaining here and along the coast generally but most interests will not begin handling operations until next week. There was no further price change.

Firm poultry price situation was reflected here. Shortage of supplies continued to include all sorts while demand was generally inclined to increase.

With deteriorating quality, market volume of turkeys was steadily decreasing here but the few good sorts were still finding favor among local retailers. Price was held.

Rather good trade was reported in country killed meats with prices well maintained in all lines and especially in mutton, lambs and hogs. Veal was holding steady.

Limited purchases of carload lots of onions were confirmed at Labish points around $1 net to grower, sacks being furnished by buyers. Volume of business was below normal with many growers anxious to sell.

Trading in the potato market was at low ebb in practically all primary sectors of the Pacific northwest. Jobbing trade here was about steady with the volume small.

RADIO BROADCAST IS PROGRAM IDEA

The beginners and primary classes of the Sunday school enjoyed a Valentine party Saturday afternoon in the aid room of the church. Twenty-seven little folks attended. Guests were Mrs. Edward Richards and Mrs. Virgil Dixon. Teachers were Mrs. Clarence Warner, Mrs. Raymond Palmer, Mrs. Clark Noble and Mrs. Charles A. Ferguson, department superintendent. The junior class of the Sunday school was entertained Saturday afternoon with a party at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Ezra Dixon.

Grains on Skids; Eggs Drop

WHEAT IS LOWEST SINCE JANUARY 13

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—(AP)—Grain prices went decisively downhill today, with wheat ending at the bottommost point reached since January 13. Corn and oats finished the lowest since late in December.

Breaking of long - continued drought in domestic winter wheat territory southwest and west was largely responsible for downturns of prices, and the bearish effects were intensified by fears of Washington legislation hostile to grain exchanges. Tumbles of sterling acted also as an unsettling influence.

Wheat closed unsteady, 1⅛-1⅜ under yesterday's finish, corn ⅜-⅝ down, oats ½-¾ off, and provisions showing 2 cents to 17 cents decline.

Today's closing quotations:
Wheat — May 88¼-⅜; July 86⅝-¾; September 87¼-⅜.
Corn — May 50-50⅛; July 52; September 54.

TONE FIRM, STOCK EXCHANGE TUESDAY

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—(AP)—The weather got in some effective regulation of stock market volume today.

With attendance on the exchange floor and in brokers' offices sharply cut by a blizzard which necessitated a one hour delay in opening the market, dealing were greatly reduced. However, the tone was firm and prices showed slight improvement on balance. Transfers totaled 1,228,520 shares.

Old line favorites were once more neglected from standpoint of volume, though several of these leaders finished with fair gains. Steels looked firm, particularly in the preferred stock division. Chrysler rallied a point but General Motors was less ambitious. Allied Chemical improved about 2. For rails the tone was firm. The Gulf Momile and Northern shares picked up and Western Maryland added slightly to Monday's rise.

Recovery in the aviation section brought gains of fractions to 3 points to those issues which recently had been pressed for sale. United traded briskly, up 2⅛ net, and Wright Aero rose 3. Reports that companies might be allowed to bid on new airmail contracts appeared to have stimulated buying which doubtles sincluded short covering.

Coburn Estate Settled—The estate of the late William Coburn was closed yesterday when S. E. Coburn, executrix, filed a final account in probate court here.
