PATTERN

By ANNE ADAMS
For smart housekeepers — this captivating frock that will give you a neat and attractive appearance during your busy daytime hours. And as for making it, there is just nothing difficult about it at all. The front and back yokes are economically cut in one, the semi-belted waistline is readily adjusted, and of course, pockets are indispensable. A tubular cotton print with either self or contrasting ruffling would be nice. The instructor — illustrated sewing lesson — will help you put the frock together step-by-step. Pattern 1625 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32 and 34. Size 16 takes 3 1/2 yards 36 inch fabric.

Send 15 cents in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write full name, address and style number. Be sure to state size.
The new spring, 1934 edition of the Anne Adams pattern book features all the best spring styles for adults and children. Write for your copy of this interesting, helpful book and be sure to include the price of book 10 cents. Book and pattern together 25 cents.

LUCKY STAR
Lucky Star—who doesn't wish for one! Here's one that anyone that uses a needle can have as her own! It is one of those simple blocks that so effectively forms a large motif when the blocks are joined. The stars in the block form the large lucky star. The quilt is effective in four materials as shown.

War Mothers Honor Oregon

Oregon's 75th anniversary as a state was the subject for the February meeting of the American War Mothers' Tuesday afternoon in the American Lutheran church. Mrs. Mabel Lockwood was in charge of the meeting. Singing of "Oregon, My Oregon" under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Waters opened the program. The early history of the state was given in five epochs, the discovery of the Columbia and the overland journey of Lewis and Clark, settlement of Oregon trappers and traders followed by colonists, provincial government, Oregon as a territory and Oregon as a state.

The significance of the word Oregon, of the state seal and the state flower, state bird and best known writers of history and poetry were given by different members of the chapter.

A group of Oregon songs were sung by Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist accompanied by Mrs. Ted Gordon. "Peelers" with words composed by Rev. W. C. Kantner and music by Prof. Clifford Kantner in the year of 1889, and "Oregon, Queen of the West" by Dr. H. C. Epley. Mrs. Addie Curtis gave two readings: a poem entitled "The Oregon Flower," written many years ago by one of Oregon's pioneers, Rev. F. S. Knight, and one of her own poems on the Oregon country.

The chapter was honored with a visit from Mrs. Anna Penney, state president. Other visitors were Mrs. William Rush, Mrs. Marty Conley, Mrs. Mary Kennedy, Mrs. Effie Wetzel, Mrs. Mary Runyan, Mrs. Sumpter, Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist, Mrs. Ted Gordon and Mrs. Helen Persons.

During the tea hour Mrs. Emilie Hendricks, state president and Mrs. Helen Cantner, first chapter president, presided at the urns. Red carnations and fern centered the table illuminated by red tapers in crystal candlesticks. The decorations were in harmony with the occasion, Oregon grape, flags and spring flowers.
