FOXX SIGNS UP; Mill City Seizes B League County Title in 25-21 Win Over St. Paul Quintet Here NEUSEL BEATS KING LEVINSK

MILL CITY'S basketball team defeated St. Paul 25-21 last night on the Willamette floor, leading all the way after the first quarter, and took the Marion county B league championship. The winners go to the district tourney at Albany next week-end.

St. Paul couldn't seem to work the ball in, and scored most of its points from the vicinity of the foul circle. Both teams were passing wildly, neither showing any consistent offense. The Mill City boys took 61 shots at the basket, converting 11 field goals, while St. Paul converted 10 out of 45. Both quints showed considerable nervousness, throwing the ball out of bounds a good share of the time. Mill City made three foul shots out of 14 chances, and St. Paul made but one out of five. Scoring was pretty well divided among the members of both squads, Wallace of Mill City being high-point man with seven points.

St. Paul led 4-2 at the end of the first quarter, but Mill City found the basket in the second 19-17 at the third quarter. Mill City had the ball most of the time. Parrish junior high school lost

By EDWARD J. NEIL

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN. New York, March 9 .- (AP)-Walter Neusel, blonde German heavyweight came back after a third round knockdown tonight to gain a split decision over Kingfish Levinsky, the big sea food man from Chicago, in a furious ten round engagement that stirred a crowd of 8,500 to a mild frenzy.

An overhand right caught the yellow-headed Teuton on the chin in the third round as the fish peddler was doing his customary wierd gavotte about the premises. Walter sat down suddenly, resting for a count of three.

He came up with the crowd rooting wildly for him, sailed into Levinsky and from then on fought and led 13-10 at the half and a courageous, up-hill battle that won him the vote of one judge, Marty Monroe, and the referee, Arthur Donovan, after the vote of the second judge, Harold Barnes, to Stayton in a slow preliminary, had temporarily deadlocked the 17-16. Stayton's man-to-man de- issue. While the crowd that booed Levinsky repeatedly for foul tactics -hitting on the breaks, after the bell, heeling, roughing-greeted the decision with a roar of applause, the German won by the narrowest of margins.

Donovan gava Neusel seven rounds and Levinsky three, Barnes awarded Levinsky six, gave Neusel two, and called two even. Munroe, whose vote actually decided the issue, gave each four rounds, called two even, but voted for Neusel because Levinsky failed to break cleanly from clinches. Levinsky weighed 2031/2 pounds; Neusel 196 %.

When they did get hold of the ball they were unable the contest took on a rough aspect. Jack Hanover and John Wyman capitalized on half a dozen This seemed to give Capt. SALARY SECRET World Champs Rally Late, Beat Athletics Whose Rookies Do Well

MIAMI, Fla., March 9. - (AP) -The holdout siege of the major league home run king, Jimmie Foxx of the Athletics, ended abruptly today when the big first baseman came to salary terms for 1934 with Connie Mack at a short and amicable conference. According to Mack, it did not take more than two minutes of conversation to settle their differences. Neither the veteran manager of the Athletics nor his prize slugging pupils would dis-close the final terms. It was authoritatively learned, however, Foxx came to terms for not less than $18,000 and possibly as much as $20,000. Jimmie accepted a one-year contract with no bonus clauses.

MIAMI, Fla., March 9. - (AP) -In their characteristic manner. the world champion New York Giants staged one of their late inning rallies today to come from behind and defeated the revamped Philadelphia Athletics 3 to 2 in the opening game of the exhibition baseball season.

Held to two hits by three ookie hurlers from Oklahoma City of the Texas league through the first eight innings, the Giants, with most of the regulars sitting on the bench, cut loose with a savage four-hit attack that netted the champions all of their runs.

Alton Benton, who followed young strong-arms along. Harry Matuzak and Vernon Kennedy on the mound for the A's, was pitching when the big crash came. Phil Weintraub started the rally with a triple. He remained at third while Homer Peel was flying out, but crossed the plate as Joe Martin, up from the Piedmont league, lined a single to left.

Blondy Ryan lined out, but Harry Danning crashed through with a single, setting the stage for pinch hitter Hank Lieber.

Batting for Adolfo Luque, with the tying run on third and the left field for a double.
