Huskies Tie Up Series With 43-41 Victory in Overtime

GALER IS STAR IN ROUGH TILT

He Along With Trojan Ace Guttero and 3 Others Go Out on Fouls

By PAUL ZIMMERMAN LOS ANGELES, March 10-(AP) -In a wild, hard-fought over-time contest which saw five players ejected on fouls, Washington evened the Pacific Coast conference basketball championship series here tonight by defeating Southern California, 43 to 41.

It was a close battle from start to finish. The Trojans held a 20 to 17 lead at half time, but Washington pulled up even with five minutes to go when Bob Galer, star forward of the Huskies, dropped in a basket from deep in the court. They see-sawed back and forth with Washington in command the greater share of the way. In the dying seconds of the regular contest, Harold Foss, Trojan substitute center, tied the score again, sending the game into overtime.

The Trojans took the lead at the start of the five minute overtime period when Foss again tipped one in from under the basket, but Captain Hal Lee and Jack Hanover made good on three free throws to put the Huskies in a lead they never relinquished. Coach Hec Edmundsen's quintet played a brilliant floor game, out-speeding the Trojans most of the way. Southern California, with its attack built around Lee Guttero, played its usual methodical game, with the tall, rubberlegged center scoring six field goals and half a dozen charity tosses to claim high scoring hon-

He was out on personal fouls, however, before the overtime period started, as was Captain Sax Elliot, which handicapped Coach Sam Barry's five.

The Washington players ejected from the wild scramble were Gaier, who went out in the overtime period, Don Wyman and Clyde Wagner.

Washington's victory sent the series into a third game which will be played here Monday night, since the Trojans won the first contest last night, 27 to 25. Summary:

Salem Swim Team Proves Easy Winner

Salem high school's swimming team opened its session auspiciously Saturday afternoon, defeating University high of Eugene 47 points to 27, in Gerlinger pool on the University of Oregon campus. Although handicapped by the absence of Bob Brownell, sprint star, and Thomas Wiper, backstroke expert, the Salem high boys came through with seven out of eight first places. The Salem high team is coached by John Creech, former University of Oregon star. Winfield Needham of Salem high swam an exhibition 220 in an effort to break the national interscholastic record but his time was 2:25, somewhat above the mark. In a water polo game following the meet, the Salem high team defeated Eugene 9 to 1.

With Old Sol cooperating in grand style, the golfers are jumping right into the thick of activity. Today the first round of matches in the Industrial league playoff will be completed. What's more, the qualifying round in the spring handicap will be wound up also. There's been no advance notice of this event, but that's a small matter; nearly all of the golfers were out Saturday and have already played their qualifying round. The same score will be recorded in the league playoff, in case the player is a member of one of the playoff teams. So, although a number of golfers will refrain from their regular Sunday pastime to join in the search for the missing girls, that won't interfere with the club's two simultaneous events.

First round matches in the spring handicap will be played this week and next Sunday. On the last mentioned date also, a 16-man team will go to Portland to play the Oregon Left-Handers' association team. Some places on the 16-man squad are still open and anyone interested should speak to John

The playoff in the Minor City-Y. basketball league will wind up Monday night, Teachers and Pay'n Takit meeting on the Parrish floor at 8 o'clock following a prelim at o'clock between Salem high B team and American Lutheran.

Tuesday n i g h t's wrestling show promises to introduce one new figure of considerable importance to Salem fans; Ken Hollis, who is said by those who have viewed him in Portland to be just about the slickest thing seen around here in a long time. He meets Cowboy Heinz. Bull-dog Jackson, whose wedding in the Eugene arena drew a crowd of about 5000, will be here to meet Stan Crawley, and Jack Curtiss will meet Joe Kirk.

Another wrestling treat is promsed for Friday and Saturday, for those fans who prefer the amateur variety. The state high school wrestling tournament will be staged in the Salem high gymnasium, with matches in all weights from 105 to heavyweight, Coach Pat Hogue is in general charge

Basketball is boiling down to a few choice contests as the state tournament looms larger and larger on the horizon. The Salem high hoopsters may play

Eugene high Monday night but there's nothing definite on that yet, we're sorry to say. Otherwise they will take a complete rest this week except for one day of practice and then a game with the Willamette Freshmen, probably Thursday night; then a little light work up to the time of the big show.

Score one against us. Athena won't be here from the third district on March 21. Too bad-not for the sake of our score at picking them, but because Athena had a gallant little outfit last year, reportedly a better one this year. As we have often remarked about this time of year, the mortality of favorites in county and district tournaments is high-too high. Bend beat all opponents in its end of the fifth district, then lost in the sub-district tourney. We don't worry about the class of the tournament, there will be good teams here from all districts, but as it has been in past years, the best team in some cases will stay at

A few more decisions, for and against our selection, will be known this morning, but we have to get this column written early and can't wait to give you the final score.

Indignant Medford rose up and smote righteous Ashland. Sometimes we agree with Dickens that school teachers, from the very nature of their work, lose the knack of approaching human problems in human fashion. Perhaps that barn roof needed paint. In any case Jackson county could well have been spared any more strife and ill feeling.

Kitball Loop For Schools Is Arranged

A grade school kitball league for the entire county has been organized by Lloyd Girod, former Willamette university athlete who is teaching at Shaw. Play will be conducted in three classes, oneroom schools, two-room or larger schools, and girls' competition. The league for two-room and larger schools is divided into northern and southern divisions, for both boys and girls. Finals in each class will be played in Salem early in May. The rules for boys are those used by the Salem kitball league, the girls' rules being slightly modified from that code. Schedules are:

Cold Wind Helps Par, Only One Pro Surpasses It: Leaders All Fail

ATLANTA, March 10-(AP)-Dick Metz, young Deal, N. J., professional, still held a single stroke lead over the field today after the second round of the metropolitan open golf tournament but par outpointed him as it did all except one of his rivals. The Jersey star, who shot a 67 yesterday to take a one shot advantage, found East Lake course and a cold wind too much and could do no better than 75 today, for a two day total of 142. Luckily for Metz, his closest pursuers of Friday, the professional Johnny Golden of Noroton, Conn., and Tommy Wright, young Knoxville, Tenn., amateur-both with 68's-also soared to 78 and 80. respectively today.

Henry Picard, Charleston, S. ., pro, came through with a smart 68, the only under par 70 card of the day, to threaten second position with his 75-68-143. Charles Lacey, Lakeville, L. I., and Ky Laffoon, Denver, professionals were tied for third with 145's. Lacey was just a stroke above perfect figures today with a 71 to put with his 74 yesterday, while Laffoon returned a 72 to go with his opening round of 73.
