PATTERN

By ANNE ADAMS
What a grand spring tonic this frock is for the sub-deb! It's gay and youthful for the gay occasions in a young girl's life—and every girl is clever enough to make it herself and capture the admiration of her friends. We've made it easy for her with our large sewing instructor included with this pattern. Aren't the precious sleeves, the rippling flared collar and pointed seamings too lovely for words? The sash may be ribbon or self fabric, as preferred. For commencement time, white crepe or organdie would be perfect; for parties and such, choose a dainty printed dimity, lawn or wiswe.

Pattern 1796 is available in sizes 8, 10, 12, 14, 16 and 18. Size 14 takes 3 3/4 yards 39 inch fabric and 1 1/2 yards 4 1/2 inch ribbon.

Complete Symphony to be Played by Philharmonic

THE Salem Philharmonic Symphony orchestra, is preparing for its concert April 9, with the Willamette Philharmonic choir, but it is also looking forward to its program for next year and the years to come. The concert in this, the second year of the orchestra have been in a sense groundwork for the future.
Jacques Gershkovich, conductor, has had to face the fact that some of the instruments needed in the orchestra are not available in Salem. For instance, in the present group are English horn, oboe and bassoon players from Eugene. Players themselves must be trained; there are always enough violins and trumpets, but the more rare instruments have to be provided, too.
The advent of the symphony naturally roused interest in its activities, and the next few years will undoubtedly see an all-Salem organization. The youngsters of the town, ambitious to play with the symphony, are even now preparing for the day when they can realize their hopes.
Gershkovich has already made preliminary arrangements for music for next year. A representative of the Portland Junior Symphony, which Gershkovich also

Extra $350 Asked, Foreclosure Case

An additional judgment of $350 is asked by Mary Schuman in a supplemental mortgage foreclosure proceeding filed in circuit court yesterday, the plaintiff claiming Ralph Nelson removed "willfully or carelessly" the lights, light fixtures, plumbing, bath tub and heating tank of the house on which she held a mortgage. Plaintiff alleges the property taken goes with her mortgage claim and to the extent of the movable property's worth, her rights have been damaged. The original complaint was filed against W. H. Fox and others and Ralph Nelson and others.

Gay Flowers Embroidered in Wool

Somehow as winter draws to a close, we long for color in our homes. This lovely basket of flowers that lends itself to a variety of colors would add a decorative note to any room. Besides being attractive as a picture is also would make a lovely cushion. The picture measures 9 1/2 x 12 inches.

ARCHERD HEARING CONTINUES TODAY

A habeas corpus proceeding in behalf of Charles Archerd, ex-warehouseman and implement dealer here, will be continued here at 10 a. m. today before Judge L. G. Lewelling. L. F. Pruess, Archerd's counsel, having failed yesterday afternoon to complete his argument. Pruess went into legal detail in asking Archerd's release from custody, but his principal contention lies in the alleged failure of Judge L. H. McMahan to request Judge Lewelling, in writing, to handle the case after McMahan disqualified himself.
Lewelling, it is understood, was busy and McMahan asked the chief justice of the supreme court directly to appoint another trial judge. Subsequently Judge Arlie G. Walker of Yamhill county was named. Attorney Pruess asserts that McMahan, in writing, should have requested Lewelling to serve and since that request was not entered in the court's records, Pruess contends due legal process was not had in Archerd's trial.
District Attorney Trindle said yesterday his argument against the requested writ of habeas corpus would be brief. He scouted the idea that Archerd's trial had not been regular and fair.

It's so convenient to keep a package of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN in the kitchen. Serve it as a cereal. Use it also as a healthful ingredient in your cooking. For muffins, breads, omelets, waffles, etc.

ALL-BRAN brings your family the "bulk" that is so helpful in correcting common constipation. Two tablespoonfuls daily are usually sufficient. In severe cases, with each meal. How much better than rickling patent medicines!

Laboratory tests show Kellogg's ALL-BRAN supplies "bulk" and vitamin B to aid regular habits. This "bulk" is similar to that in leafy vegetables. ALL-BRAN is also rich in iron for the blood.

Special processes of cooking and flavoring make Kellogg's ALL-BRAN finer, softer, more palatable than ordinary raw bran.

And because it is all bran—with only flavoring added—it brings you more "bulk" than part-bran products.

Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.
