

COUNTY CONVENTION AT PRATUM SUNDAY

Leach and Ross Will Give Addresses; Juniors Have Excellent Program

HAZEL GREEN, March 20.—Program for the 1634 quarterly convention of the Hayaville Sunday school group to be held at Pratum Methodist church Sunday, March 25, has been announced. In the senior division, morning features will start at 10 o'clock with Mrs. J. Merriman leading devotions and Rev. G. M. Baergen of Hayaville and Mrs. L. Massie reviewing the lessons. Pratum Methodist and Menonite churches will furnish the music and Dr. D. H. Leach of Salem will bring the sermon. Basket dinner at noon will be followed by 1:15 o'clock song service and a business session.

Music for the afternoon will be given by the Brooks Sunday school, the Frelsian family, Gus Klempel, Kathleen Phelps and Pratum Menonite girls' quartet. Dr. Britton Ross of Salem will give an inspirational address. Paul Silke will be pianist and W. E. Branch song leader for the adults.

Junior Program

The junior program, announced by Mrs. H. F. Shanks, the county children's leader, has Katherine Scharf as song leader, and these numbers:

Opening at 10:30 a. m. with song service; devotions by boys from Pratum M. E. church; classes for beginners and cradle roll, Cora Talkington, primary classes, Lunelle Chapin, senior class, Mrs. T. H. Thompson, story hour, Irene Mason and Linnelle Chapin. Noon service. At 1:15 o'clock: Song service, roll call and offering; harmonica group by Hayaville girls; songs from Brooks Sunday school; violin number, Doris Mason and Kenneth Towns; reading, Beulah Graham of Salem; song, Billy Woltman and Kenneth Park of Hazel Green; talk by Mrs. W. O. Livingstone of Silverton; recitation, Clear Lake Sunday school; instrumental music, Pratum Menonite; "Easter Joy," Middle Grove Sunday school.

GIRLS' LEAGUE TO STAGE NIGHT CLUB

INDEPENDENCE, March 20.—The Girls' league of the high school is busy preparing for their "Night Club" performance March 30, in the high school gymnasium. Mildred White is general chairman.

Committee are: Advertisement, chairman, Ione Moore; posters, Pauline Sloper, Audrey Baker, Maxine Hammett, Beth Rose; tickets, Frances Knott, Max Fark, Amy Stockton, Isabel Cox; hand bills, Eileen Hunnicutt, Elaine Easton, Vivian Allen, Eve Perry; food, chairman, Lillian Cotten; Margaret Foster, Margaret Noble, Mildred Hartman; menu, Marjorie Cooper, Louise Hisey; waitresses and ushers, Doris Mattison, Marjorie Botssett, Zora Berry, Frances Hillif, June Charbonnet, Loree Burch, Doris Moffit, candy, Jean Thompson, Ellen Gilliam, Virginia Stalacker; card tables, Marjorie Charbonnet, Ruth Seelye, Pauline Noyes, Lois Arrell; program book, Katherine Hartman, Doris McGowan, Ruth Davidson; checking booth, Edna Grover, Nadine Green, Dorothy Louise; purchasing, Meryl Corbett, Dorothy Barnhart, Suniko Inouye; clean up, Hulda Sasakib, Elizabeth Hall, Yoshiko Inouye, Mildred, Lillian Thurston, Mildred Todd, Violet, Todd, Leota Babhart, Edith Richardson, Frances Porter, Dolly Kleybe, Rosabell Slyh, Faye Black, Iris Snyder; cashier, Arlene McCoy.

FLORA HEDRICK IS ROSEDALE CHOICE

ROSEDALE, March 20.—The Intermediate Christian Endeavor held a social in the basement of the church Saturday night, about 18 were present. Milo Ross is the advisor.

The school board met Saturday night and hired Mrs. Flora Hedrick of Salem as teacher for next year. Miss Mamie Bostrack will teach at Auburn next year.

Farmers are busy in their orchards. The prune trees are in blossom and all feel encouraged with the beautiful sunny weather.

The Griggs ranch, near the church, has been sold to a Mr. Smith, from Montana, who with his family will reside there. Mr. and Mrs. William Hoffnell, who have been residing there, are moving to the Lou Wain place.

New Grocery Store for Hubbard Will Be Opened April 1

HUBBARD, March 20.—C. E. Bradford will open a privately owned grocery store in the Thompson building April 1. He with his wife and two small boys will reside in the building.

The alumni play, "Here Comes Charlie," will be given at St. Luke's hall at Woodburn Thursday night, March 22, instead of Friday night as first announced.

A birthday dinner was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Silke in honor of the birthdays of Mrs. Eugene Silke and Mrs. Paul Silke whose birthday was Monday. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Paul Silke and Paul Silke, Jr., Dorothy Bowen, Salem; Mrs. Daisy Phenicie and Norma Plummer, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Silke and Harold Silke.

The Merry Mixers, 4-H club, had a St. Patrick's party at the home of the leader, Mrs. Eugene Silke.

Surviving are two daughters, Stella Kerten of Portland and Mrs. Rita Phelps of Laurel, Ore.; a sister, Mrs. Emma Naylor of Molalla and three grandchildren.

Gypsy Women Try Gag on Aged Man but are Stopped

TALBOT, March 20.—A car load of gypsies caused considerable excitement here Monday. They came to Mr. Jorgenson's house, near the Mitchell fox farm, and asked the old man for some bait.

Community Clubs

The federation of community clubs will meet at Roberts Saturday night, March 23, when the program will be presented by several clubs of the county.

The executive committee meeting of the federation, planned for Wednesday, March 21, has been postponed, with no new date set.

SALEM HEIGHTS, March 20.—The Roberts community club will present "Here Comes Charlie" a three act comedy at the Salem Heights community hall Friday night, March 23. The cast is: Dorothy Salchenberg, Elton Purcell, Mrs. Bob Judson, Dorothy Rice, June Edwards, Forrest Edwards, Bob Judson, Mr. Salchenberg and Pate Rice. Directors, Mrs. Roy Rice and Mrs. Forrest Edwards. This play has been twice presented with big success. A small admission will be charged, half of the proceeds going to each community.

AUBURN, March 20.—The community club met at the schoolhouse Friday night with Mrs. Murray Johnston, chairman of the program committee, presiding. Sam H. Brown of Gervais was the speaker. The rest of the program was: "Romola March" by the Auburn orchestra; orchestra music, entertainment by the Hollywood small boys' orchestra; talks by Martin Ferrey who is running for county judge, J. S. Coomer, who is seeking the office of county commissioner, and Arthur Brown who is aspiring to the office of constable for this district; trumpet and trombone duet by Robert; and Gus Klempel, Barbara Barham, accompanist.

TEACHERS CHOSEN AT MIDDLE GROVE

MIDDLE GROVE, March 20.—The March business and social meeting of the young people's Christian Endeavor was held at the W. H. Scharf home with 22 present. Mildred Wacken was chosen to fill the office of president left vacant by the resignation of Genevieve Scharf.

Mrs. Veda Miller of Salem and Miss Mildred Gardner of route seven, Salem, have been hired for the coming school year to teach the advanced and primary grades, respectively.

The O. W. Jewett home is being improved with a new coat of paint and cement walks.

Several acres of strawberries are being planted in the community. Among those setting out new patches are A. J. Herndon, William Peddeon and Lena Bartruff.

Mrs. Mary Karten is Laid to Rest at Belle Passi Grave

BROOKS, March 20.—Interment for Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Karten, 88, who died in Portland March 14 after five years' illness, was held at Belle Passi cemetery at Woodburn March 16. Funeral was held in Portland. She was born in Illinois, December 15, 1847, and in 1885 married Dr. Joseph W. Karten in South Dakota. They went to Omaha, Neb., in 1888 and in 1895 to Woodburn, then to Gervais, where he died in 1905. She taught school many years.

Wyoming Family Purchases Tract in Lyons District

LYONS, March 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Paddock and family, who came here recently from Wyoming, have purchased a small place east of Lyons, adjoining the Orville Downing place. Mrs. Fitzgerald of Portland is here visiting with the Paddocks.

The Fox Valley Parent-Teacher association gave the play, "Mother's Night Out" at the Lyons hall Friday night to a well filled house. Members of the cast did their parts well.

Harvey Ransom of the Ransom store has been quite ill the past three weeks. He is being cared for at the home of his brother, John Ransom at Shelburn. His condition was reported improved this week. Leon Smith has charge of the store.

HOLY NAME SOCIETY WILL MEET SUNDAY

St. Louis to Be Host for Valley Gathering; Grade Nine Plays

ST. LOUIS, March 20.—The annual bi-monthly meeting of the Willamette valley league of the Holy Name society will be held Sunday, the 25th, at the St. Louis hall. The opening of the meeting will be at 7:30 o'clock with vespers followed by benediction. A large crowd is expected and a fine program and luncheon are being planned.

The St. Louis choir, under the direction of Mrs. Schomus, is rehearsing for Easter when they will sing "The Mass of the Resurrection" by Wilson.

Marie Braditch, who arrived here recently for a short visit, has returned to Seattle where she intends to clerk in a variety store.

returns After 7 Years Bill Pagment, who has recently returned from Yakima after having been gone seven years, is now putting out about 20 acres of hops on the old Hager place.

Prosper Lachapelle, well-known pioneer of the Willamette valley, has been critically ill at his home here for the past two weeks and is not improving.

The baseball team of the St. Louis grade school is now organized. The first game was played Friday with Eldridge, Eldridge being defeated 23 to 21. Sunday St. Louis made another victory over West Woodburn with a final score of 14 to 13.

The St. Louis Quilters will meet at the home of Mrs. Kraus Thursday afternoon to complete a third quilt which they are making for the annual St. Louis picnic.

Raymond Manning and Robert Horning are hooping hops for S. J. Smith, banker of St. Paul. His hops are in excellent condition and he expects a much bigger yield than last year. Henry Kirkwood of Broadacres, who has recently moved on the Julian Manning farm, is busy clearing brush and land.

STATE FAIR BOOTH TALKED ON ISLAND

GRAND ISLAND, March 20.—The Improvement club held its semi-monthly business meeting at the schoolhouse Saturday night. A committee, C. A. Rockhill, Roy E. Will, Dale Fowler, Morton Tompkins and Charles A. Ferguson, was appointed to investigate as to the advisability of having a community booth at the state fair again this year.

The program was given by the public speaking class of the Amity union high school, under the direction of the instructor, Miss von Pinnon, and included saxophone solos by Vernon Stephens; humorous readings by George Penrose and Orville Davidson; vocal solos by Cleo Odum; a pantomime, Lorene Tompkins, a skit and debate.

The debate was that the United States should adopt the essential features of the British system of radio broadcasting, the affirmative, Nels Holka and Bob Reed, losing to the negative, Lorene Tompkins and Lawrence Dasaka.

The 4-H poultry club will have charge of the next club program, Saturday night, April 7.

JENNIE LAWRENCE IS CLUB HOSTESS

Rebekah Lodge Benefit at Scotts Mills Draws About 100

SCOTTS MILLS, March 20.—The R. N. A. club met at the home of Mrs. Jennie Lawrence Friday to quit. A pot luck dinner was served at noon. Special guests were, Mrs. Jack Moser, Mrs. Bradford, Mrs. Oliver Brougher, Mrs. T. Taylor and Mrs. Jessie McKillop.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Ada Geren with Mrs. Miller entertaining, the first Friday in April.

Mrs. James Cully who underwent a major operation at the Silverton hospital a few days ago, is reported getting along nicely.

Benefits Are Held

Ivy Rebekah lodge at the benefit supper Friday served about 100 people. Visitors were from Salem, Silverton and Butteville. After supper the evening was spent in playing games and visiting. Miss Gale Smith sang, accompanied by Miss Mildred Rich, and Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Brougher sang a duet.

The benefit basketball game played Friday night between the town and high school teams, was won by the town team, 28 to 19. This game was played for Joe Schatz, to help pay the doctor, he having broke his arm in a previous game.

BOY TO ROBERTSONS

SALEM HEIGHTS, March 20.—Word was received here that a seven pound boy was born Thursday to Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Robertson of Portland. The Robertsons formerly were residents of the heights. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Robinson, her parents, drove to Portland Sunday to see their new grandson.

GRANGER'S COLUMN

ZYLSTRA TO SEEK LEGISLATURE POST

CHEMAWA, March 20.—The Chemawa grange will hold the regular meeting for March on Thursday the 22nd. Plans will be completed for the benefit program and dance to be held on March 29. Mrs. D. B. Kleihege, who recently returned from an extended trip to the east, will again be in the lecturer's chair and is preparing the program for Thursday evening. Reports on the meeting of the fruit growers held March 15 will be heard and other business of importance will be considered.

Favor Frazier Bill

TALBOT, March 20.—Ankeny grange met in the grange hall Saturday night with a large attendance. An invitational dance will be given at the grange hall next Saturday night. During the lecturer's hour Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Simpson gave a comic skit and Virginia Belknap gave a piano solo. Supper was served.

The juvenile dispensed with their business meeting to plan a program for a later date.

Ankeny grange went on record as favoring the Frazier bill and letters were sent. Representative Mott and Martin and the national grange master to that effect.

Mrs. Eugene Finlay entertained the Home Economics club at her home Thursday with an all day meeting.

Thursday to Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Robertson of Portland. The Robertsons formerly were residents of the heights. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Robinson, her parents, drove to Portland Sunday to see their new grandson.

ZYLSTRA TO SEEK LEGISLATURE POST

Favors a Drastic Reduction in State Expenditures

PERRYDALE, March 20.—Nicklas J. Zylstra, Perrydale, has announced that he will seek the democratic nomination as state representative from Polk county in the coming election. His platform includes:

Favors a drastic reduction in state expenditures which will reduce taxes. He favors the abolishing of the vehicle operator's division; is against any sales tax but favors a high income tax with no exemptions; move capital back to Salem where it belongs; reduce high state salaries; abolish the office of chancellor of higher education; require the governor to reside in Salem; reorganize the state police department to the effect that they work out of and with the sheriff's offices, replace high powered costly police cars with motorcycles to a great extent; reduce personnel and increase their salaries, eliminate duplicate policing in this state, make the state police department an asset to the state and not a liability.

Zylstra favors a 50 per cent reduction in the gasoline tax; curtail operation of highway department until such time when the state can afford new construction; favors high tax on chain stores to give independent merchants a chance to survive; favors common sense truck laws, for the benefit of all truck men, not for a favored few dominated by railroads. Zylstra also favors some strong legislation to eliminate married women from state jobs if and when their husbands are employed.

DIESEL TRACTOR IS RUN DAY AND NIGHT

Fowler Sells Place

A deal was made Saturday whereby L. Bacon, carpenter and contractor of Portland, purchased the Clarence L. Fowler equity in a three acre fruit and nut acreage in Dayton. Mr. and Mrs. Fowler moved to their farm in Unionvale, November 1, and since then the John Nutbrock family have occupied the Dayton property. Mr. Bacon will take immediate possession.

W. H. Humphreys Honored at Party on 79th Birthday

STAYTON, March 20.—The 79th birthday anniversary of W. H. Humphreys was the inspiration for a large family dinner party in his honor Sunday at the home of his son, Harry. Enjoying the occasion with him were the Orlo Humphreys family, Floyd Humphreys family, Clair Humphreys family, Warren Humphreys family, and Mrs. Pearl Humphreys and daughter Eva of Salem.

Mr. Humphreys has 13 grandchildren and one great-grandchild. He has spent most of his life in this section.

POLLY AND HER PALS

It's the Principal of the Thing

THIRD VIOLIN?

THEY OFFERED IT TO HER, BUT I REFUSED!

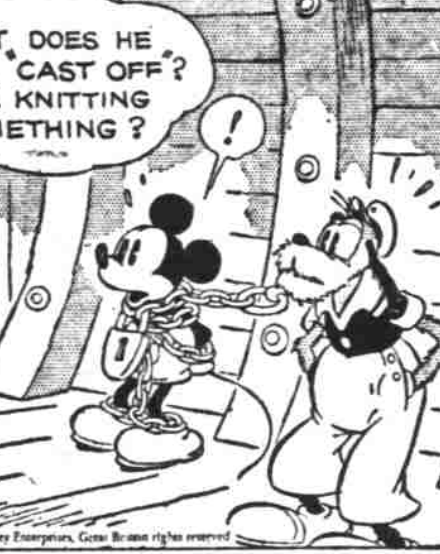

CERTAINLY, SAMUEL—I WON'T ALLOW ANGEL TO PLAY SECOND FIDDLE TO ANYONE!!

MICKEY MOUSE

At the End of His Rope

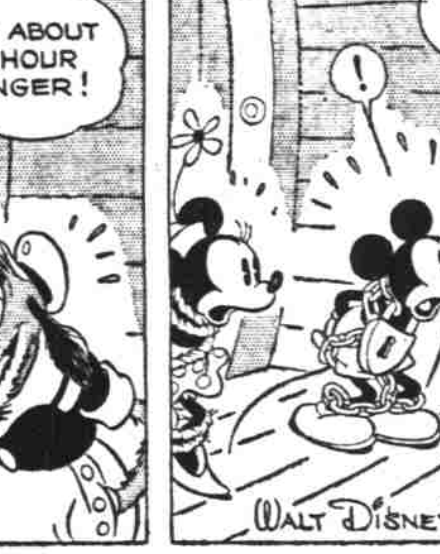

HEY, HICKUP! HOW LONG DO I HAFTA STAY CHAINED UP LIKE THIS?

THAT'S GOOD!

ONLY ABOUT AN HOUR LONGER!

THEN PETE'S GONNA TAKE YA OUT AN' (WOOP! PAROON!) HANG YA TO A YARDARM!

THIMBLE THEATRE—Starring Popeye

Now Showing—"The Perfect Host"

TELL ME WHY

YOU KNOW IT WOULDN'T BE PROPER

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

Burning the Midnight Oil

WELL, THAT MAKES IT EASY—JUST PICK OUT ONE OF YOUR ORPHANS AND TELL HER SHE IS ANNIE ROONEY!!

THE SAINTS PRESERVE US—ANNIE DARLIN!—DON'T YOU EVER SLEEP? SURE, IF YOU KEEP STUFFING KNOWLEDGE INTO YOUR LITTLE HEAD, SOME MORNING YOU'LL WAKE UP AND FIND YOUR HEAD HAS CHANGED TO A GREAT BIG BOOK—THEN WHAT'LL YOU SAY?

TOOTS AND CASPER

A Substitute

I THOUGHT YOU WERE THROUGH WITH RACING? I THOUGHT YOU HAD LEARNED YOUR LESSON!

THAT'S JUST IT, CASPER! IF I QUIT TRYING TO GET SOMETHING FOR NOTHING THEN I'VE GOTTA GO TO WORK, SO I DECIDED TO KEEP RIGHT ON TRYING FOR AWHILE YET!

