MUSICAL DRAMA IS ELSINORE FEATURE

"Wonder Bar" Declared to Be Greatest of Kind
Ever Produced

Out-doing all previous sensational combinations of stars and spectacles, First National's long-awaited international musical drama, "Wonder Bar," will be shown for the first time locally at the Elsinore theatre today.

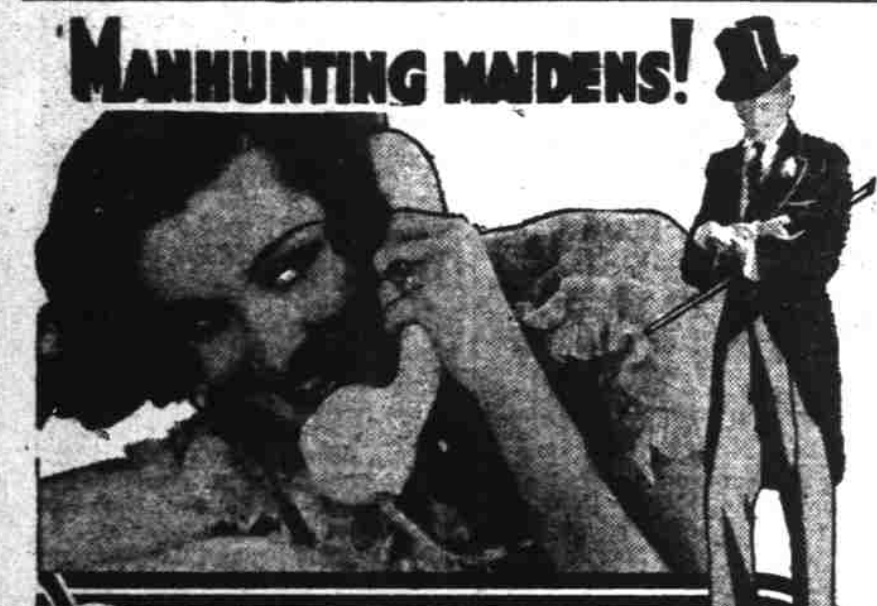

Kay Francis plays the leading feminine role opposite Al Jolson, who portrays the proprietor of the "Wonder Bar." Ricardo Cortez and Dolores Del Rio have the coveted parts of the two dancers, while Dick Powell and Henry Kolker have the roles of the American composer-orchestra leader and the husband of Kay Francis, respectively. Hal LeRoy, the sensational Broadway player, plays the role of himself in a thrilling dance sequence.

Guy Kibbee and Hugh Herbert play the two American tourists with Ruth Donnelly and Louise Fazenda as their wives, in important comedy and character roles. Robert Barrat has the part of the army officer, who drives his auto over a cliff and unconsciously covers up a murder. Fifi d'Orsay and Merna Kennedy will be seen as the two flirtatious hostesses in the fashionable Parisian night club.

"MR. SKITCH" NOW ON AT HOLLYWOOD

Declaring it to be the most poignant and human comedy he has had to date, an enthused Will Rogers will have the stellar part in "Mr. Skitch," the new Fox production starting today at the Hollywood theatre. The story, by Ann Cameron, appeared in the Saturday Evening Post several years ago and is considered a classic of humorous writing.

In the film he is cast as the heroically indolent head of a family of six. Through a bank failure, he and his family are left penniless and put out of their home.

Stars Stud Musicals

Three of the principals of "Wonder Bar," sensational musical drama, at the Elsinore. They are Kay Francis, Dolores Del Rio and Ricardo Cortez.

He gathers up his voracious brood, puts them in a dilapidated car and speeds westward, hoping to secure a job in some other community. Extraordinary adventures with petty gambling and the trials and tribulations of migration from one auto camp to another constitute the comedy-with-pathos elements of the story.

Heading the cast in support of Will Rogers, ZaSu Pitts, the screen's foremost comedienne, plays the part of Rogers' wife. Other members of the cast, noted for its careful selection, are Rochelle Hudson, Florence Desmond, Harry Green, Charles Starrett and Eugene Pallette.

Victor McLaglen, Eddie Lowe and Sally Blane provide the peppy love interest of "No More Women" at the Capitol.

"NO MORE WOMEN" PLAYS AT CAPITOL

Not since Edmund Lowe and Victor McLaglen leaped to stardom as a team in "What Price Glory?" and "The Cock-Eyed World," have they had the opportunities for boisterous clowning that they have in Paramount's "No More Women," coming today to the Capitol theatre on a double bill.

Produced for the Paramount company by Charles R. Rogers, "No More Women" presents the famous fighting-funsters as deep sea divers on rival salvage tugs. No one place is big enough for these two romantic boys, not even the bottom of the ocean. All day long they fight for sunken gold forty fathoms beneath the surface of the water, and all night long they fight for the dames. Things get a bit peaceful until Sally Blane appears as the owner of a tug. They both jump at the chance to work with her and fight for her.

When, however, a rival diver attempts to drown one of them, they go into a fighting huddle that furnishes no end of amusement and thrills to an entertaining climax.

Ken Maynard in "Arizona Terror," is the second feature.

Amity, Newberg Future Farmers Exchange Meets

AMITY, March 31.—The local F. F. A. boys will conduct the green hand degree for the Newberg chapter April 9 and on April 11 Newberg will come to Amity to put on the Future Farmer degree and take in two honorary members, for the local chapter. The local boys plan to invite their fathers and the alumni members to see the degree conferred.

'LITTLE WOMEN' ON SCREEN AT STATE
RKO - Radio pictures' dramatization of Louisa M. Alcott's 65-year-old classic best-seller, "Little Women," brings to accurate and authentic life all the beloved characters made famous by the author. The picture begins Monday at the State theatre.

Louisa Alcott, who included herself in the story as Jo, one of the Little Women, is interpreted by the brilliant new star, Katharine Hepburn, who heads the cast of 20 principals.

The other Little Women, Meg, Amy and Beth, are interpreted by Frances Dee, Joan Bennett and Jean Parker, respectively.

All the delightful, lovable characters of the novel walk out of the pages and re-enact this beautiful story about all that is simple, powerful and good in American home life.

Grumpy old Aunt March storms and stresses and crabs as of yore in the person of Edna May Oliver; honorable, lovable Fritz Bhaer, who finally wins Jo's heart, is enacted by Paul Lukas, and Laurie, the irrepressible, impressionable boy next door who wooed Jo, but married Amy, is interpreted by Douglass Montgomery, stage and screen favorite.

POSTMASTER NAMED

WASHINGTON, March 30.—(AP)—The postoffice department today announced the following appointment as acting postmaster: Oregon, Myrtle Point, Elton Schroeder.

Glamorous Hepburn Back

Katharine Hepburn portrays the lovable "Jo" in "Little Women" which starts at the State Monday.

Future Farmers' President to Be Heard in Oregon

Bobby Jones, 17, of Radnor, O., national president of the Future Farmers of America, will be the guest of 1500 Smith-Hughes agricultural students during their annual convention to be held at Oregon State college April 26 to 28.

During his stay in Oregon young Jones will give addresses before the Portland chamber of commerce and the Portland Kiwanis club. Arrangements also are being made to entertain Jones on a three-day coast camping trip with Future Farmers from 20 Willamette valley high schools attending. Jones will remain in Oregon 10 days.

Young Jones is now in the Hawaiian Islands. He also will visit in Washington and California before returning to his home.

Dr. Steeves Made Captain in Guard

Dr. Laban Steeves of Salem, who has been a first lieutenant in the reserve medical corps, has been promoted to captain of the medical corps of the Oregon National Guard and assigned to hospital company 167 at Lebanon.

COMING OUT PARTY FEATURE AT GRAND

Debutante Racket is Theme of Picture Which Has Dramatic Scenes

Capitalizing on the genteel headlines of today's society pages, and playing a searching light on the debutante racket, Fox Film's latest release, "Coming Out Party," will offer the lowdown on high life when it makes its appearance on the screen of the Grand theatre today.

The film is said to reveal numerous secrets of the social circles, such as how ambitious mothers fight for the best "coming out party" nights, why a social secretary gets a 10 per cent rakeoff on all debutante orders, where all the men come from for parties, and a host of other enlightening details that the society page never tells.

This is the setting for the story of a debutante who is deeply in love with a struggling young violinist. Through a misunderstanding, the lovers quarrel, and an intimate reconciliation follows. On the night of her party, the young girl learns that her sweetheart is leaving for Europe to fulfill a concert engagement. She tearfully agrees to marry him upon his return, though she knows it will be too late.

Frances Dee and Gene Raymond have the romantic leads, and head a cast that includes such stellar names as Alison Skipworth, Nigel Bruce, Harry Green, Gilbert Emery, Marjorie Gateson, Clifford Jones, Jessie Ralph and Germaine de Neel.
