We dropped in to the Burrell auto electrician place of business on North Liberty street and Mr. Burrell spent some time showing us his equipment and explaining its uses. In time gone by the mechanic had to hunt for motor trouble. Now with all the modern equipment the location of the trouble may be traced easily.

-0-During 1933 there were about 29,900 persons killed and about 850,700 injured non-fatally in automobile accidents within the United States. The deaths, exclusive of fatalities from motorcycle accidents, exceeded by 2.5 per cent the 29,196 recorded for 1932. ___0_

Six years ago-in 1927-motor vehicles in use in this country totaled approximately 23,200,000 as against 23,800,000 in 1933, a gain of 2.6 per cent. In 1927 there were 25,533 persons killed in automobile accidents, exclusive of motorcycle mishaps, as against 29,900 for last year, an increase of 17 per cent.

LOW VOLUME POINT

NEW YORK, April 14. (AP)-For a majority of stocks price changes were inconsequential today. Still hesitant and very dull, the market filled out its two hours in perfunctory fashion, only 501,-160 shares changing hands, the uary. There was a fairly firm undertone to the share list but bidders were unaggressive and net changes were mostly small fractions, the average showing a nominal decline. U. S. Smelting, Pathe Exchange "A", Cerro De Pasco Copper, Norfolk Western, Eastman and Du Pont gained major fractions to nearly 2 points, but Industrial Rayon, Curtis Publishing, American Tobacco "B" and the Allegheny corp. preferreds had losses of similar scope. The Armour of Illinois "A" and 'B" stocks eased slightly while the preferred firmed; the company's reorganization plan is understood to be nearing completion. although it has not yet been normally submitted to the board. Steels were quiet and steady, together with utilities and rails. Packard yielded haif a point us-

Wool Prices Weak,

BOSTON, April 14. (AP)-(U. S. Dept. Agr.) - Sales of wool were very light during the past week. Scattered lots of various grades of fleece and territory wool were moved, but the aggregate volume of business continued to be limited. Prices weakened. The persistent quietness has influenced an increasing number of holders to accept bids that they were not inclined to consider a few weeks
