PATTERN

By ANNE ADAMS
This run about sports frock meets the needs of every smart woman—a perfect warm weather frock, and a gem for the vacation wardrobe. It's smart and refreshing. It creates the tall, slender silhouette stressed this season—and it's very, very easy to make! The front panel, the yoke and the perky caplet sleeves are cut in one piece—clever and quick and simple to handle when putting the frock together. The chic tie is casually slipped through a slash just below the neckline. You'll like it immensely in one of the crisp, new cottons in print or monochrome, as you prefer.

Pattern 1819 is available in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40. Size 16 takes 3 1/2 yards 36 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions with each pattern.

MRS. BOOTH HEADS 'HEIGHTS TEACHERS'

Ground Improvements Made For School Include 53-Foot Well

SALEM HEIGHTS, April 20.—The following teachers have been employed to teach in the Salem Heights school for the coming year: Mrs. Agnes Booth, acting as principal, will teach the seventh and eighth grades; Mrs. Barbara Egelston, fifth and sixth grades; Miss Helen Mielke, third and fourth grades, and Mrs. Hylda Tucker, primary.

A number of improvements have been made at the school the past year, the most noteworthy being a new 53-foot drilled well and automatic water system. Water has been tested grade A. Later in the year a pump house will be constructed. The new markers for the safety zone were also completed. The lawn and shrubbery in front of the school house is very attractive now and adds to the appearance of the new building.

Phyllis Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Wilson, fell from a swing while playing and broke her collarbone. The break is mending nicely and she will be able to be back in school in a few days.

CONFUSION ENDED ON BRAN

New Ruling Makes Labels Accurate

To protect the buying public, the United States Food and Drug Administration has advised that every package of cereal labeled "Bran" state on the label exactly what it contains. Before this ruling, even part-bran products were sometimes mistakenly referred to as "Bran." It was not easy for the purchaser to distinguish between a cereal that was entirely bran, or all bran with flavoring, and another that was mostly wheat. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is labeled "ALL-BRAN Deliciously Flavored with Malt, Sugar and Salt," a statement which describes the product fairly and honestly. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has won millions of friends because it corrects most types of common constipation safely and pleasantly. It furnishes generous "bulk"—needed to promote normal elimination. However, ALL-BRAN is not a "cure-all." Certain types of intestinal disorders should be treated only on a physician's advice. When you buy a bran cereal, for the relief of constipation, read the wording on the package. The facts are there! Make sure by asking for Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. It furnishes "bulk" in a form for satisfactory results. At all grocers. In the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.
