

Statesman Cooking School Opens in Armory on Tuesday

'HAPPY KITCHEN' IS DIFFERENT IN PLAN

Simplicity, With Practical Solutions of Household Problems, Keynote

Tuesday is the big day for Salem women — bringing The Statesman's long awaited cooking school — the most different kind of a cooking school imaginable. Miss Hester Heath, who is a home economist of note and a practical cook, will be in charge of every session. She will cook dozens of attractive, well-planned recipes and menus in her "happy kitchen."

The will be splendid cooking programs, new and interesting recipes, short cuts in baking, modern ideas on home management — a regular "kitchen laboratory" where you can discover and learn to prepare delicious and healthy dishes.

Miss Heath uses the latest and most modern appliances in her programs — a modern automatic refrigerator, a range with the automatic over regulator control, and a large assortment of small handy utensils she carries with her in her own equipment.

She declares, however, that simplicity in both materials and methods will be the keynote of her "happy kitchen" programs, as she believes that most housewives are more interested in the home everyday practical problems.

Miss Heath says that one of the greatest tests of an efficient housewife, as with a business man, lies in her capacity to meet an emergency. "Of course," says this ingenious cook, "it is a great help to have an emergency shelf, but even if there is no emergency shelf to fall back on, there are innumerable ways of stretching salads 'made for two,' to accommodate four, and 'doing things' to two chops so that everyone will have plenty."

New recipes, ways to make the old dishes look different, little tricks to brighten and lighten the homemaker's task — all will be given at The Statesman's cooking school.

Each day's program will be entirely different and no housewife should miss a minute of the entertaining demonstrations. There will be an appetizer and separate dishes made by Miss Heath right on the platform before the audience and you won't want to miss a one.

There is no obligation or charge whatever. The Statesman invites each housewife to be its guest. The first session starts Tuesday at 2 p. m. promptly. Plan to be there early! Ample seating facilities are ready in the armory, and everything is set. Let's go!

ALBANY PASTOR TO GIVE ADDRESS

SCIO, May 12. — Sylvia Bartu, by virtue of having the highest grades in the class, will be valedictorian for the graduating class this spring. Maxine Arnold, who has the second highest scholarship standing, will give salutatory address. Rose Schwindt, Vivian Rankin and Marjory Moses ranked next respectively. Vivian will present the class history; Rose, the prophecy, and Marjory the will. Dr. M. M. Stocker, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Albany, will deliver the commencement address. These exercises will be held in the Z. C. B. J. hall Thursday evening, May 31.

Rev. Victor Loucks, pastor of the local Baptist church, has been chosen by the class to deliver the baccalaureate sermon, which will be held Sunday night, May 27.

Fifteen seniors will graduate this year. This is a smaller class than has graduated the last two years. Those who will graduate are: Maxine Arnold, Sylvia Bartu, Florence Beran, Donald Davenport, Elvin Gallegly, Elsie Hetzendorf, Everett McDonald, Vivian Rankin, Marjory Moses, Richard Quarry, Rose Schwindt, Marley Sims, Blanche Walter and Stanley Walter.

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, May 12.—The city will plant potatoes again this season for use of needy families next winter and George Chapman will have charge of the project that was such a success last year. There were enough fine potatoes produced last fall to care for the winter's need and produce seed for this spring. There is over a city block or three or more acres of good round disked and ready for planting, and Roy Stevens will assist in the planting which will be done in another fortnight.

The birthday anniversary of Elmer A. Lake was celebrated with a jolly dinner party at their home with covers laid for Mr. and Mrs. Thornton H. Goss, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Lake, Buddy and Dorothy Goss, Adeline Jane and Mary Joanne Lake. Following the dinner party a group of additional friends came in surprising Mr. Lake and complimenting Bob Hinds' birthday. Dancing and late refreshments were enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hinds, Mr. and Mrs. Loyel Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. George Lovall, Mr. and Mrs. Hackley Burton of Jefferson at the joint affair.

Mrs. John A. Gosser was severely bruised and suffered broken ribs Friday morning when she fell down the back steps of her home striking an obstruction with her back. Her calls for assistance finally brought a neighbor, who called for the doctor and helped her get in.

The late Frank Hilke, who passed away at his home 1185 2nd St. Friday morning at the age of almost 75 years, was a Christian, honest neighbor and devoted husband and father. He came with his family from Columbia, S. Dakota to Oregon in 1905, settling at Independence, and moving to West Salem in 1919, where they have since resided. At Independence he farmed and in West Salem was in the wood and wood sawing business. Besides his widow, Augusta Hilke, he leaves 6 living children, 2 of whom reside in the home here, Albert and Hilda Baum. He was affiliated with the Pentecostal mission of Salem.

Mrs. Vernie Hindman was hostess to the "Fortnighters" at her home Wednesday afternoon for their regular meeting. They occupied themselves with making artificial flowers and social chat, followed by serving of delicious refreshments by the hostess assisted by Mrs. C. S. Utterback. Those present were Mesdames Donald Kuhn, Ted Burns, Glenn Davenport, Darrel T. Bradford, E. A. Lake, Thornton H. Goss, C.

S. Utterback and Vernie Hindman, hostess. Mrs. Lake will be the next hostess in a fortnight.

John D. Bodle is foreman of the S.E.R.A. project of improving the West Salem school grounds, constructing the sidewalk along one block and grading the entire surface about both buildings. There are 18 men on the list of helpers and they will work alternate days in two 9-men crews. After the completion of the work it is planned to have the city scarifier smooth down the grounds to give greater uniformity to the surface.

The Maculosis club met with Mrs. Thornton H. Goss Friday afternoon with sewing and sociality filling the hours preceding the tea hour when refreshments were served to Mesdames Loyel Henderson, George Lovall, Robert Hinds, Elmer A. Lake, Glenn Davenport and T. H. Goss, hostess.

WOODBURN, May 12.—Mother's day will be observed at the various churches of Woodburn Sunday. At the Church of Christ a special program will be presented at 11 a. m., with the mothers serving the Lord's supper. Rev. Conley D. Silsby will have for his sermon topic, "A Remembered Mother." Mother's day will be featured at the Church of God with a sermon by Rev. C. W. Hatch and special music by the Yoder family and Shrock quartet. A pageant "A Precious Heritage," will be given by the young people of the church at the 7 o'clock service.

Everyone is urged to bring his mother or someone else's mother to the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning where an attractive service will be given. The sermon "Martha's Hands and Mary's Mind," will be preached by the pastor, P. M. Hammond. Special services have been prepared by the Presbyterians of Woodburn and Bethel with special Mother's day services and appropriate music by the young people's choir. Rev. George R. Cromley will preach.

TURNER STATUS IN POLK NOT CERTAIN

Fight Close Between Martin and Mahoney; County Races are Close

DALLAS, May 12.—Polk county is getting ready for the primaries next week with state offices holding the limelight instead of local. The six-way race on the republican ticket for the nomination for governor holds most of the interest. Holman is not favored greatly by the voters here but the fact that there are six candidates seems to give him the edge as his opposition will be divided among the remaining five. Democrats are not faring so well with Mahoney holding the limelight and apparently holding a slight edge over his opponent, Martin. There is no decided swing among the democrats to either candidate and the fight will probably be decided here the last minute.

In the congressional race, the democrats hold the interest with the three-way race between Turner, DeWitt, and Goss arousing the interest. The R. R. Turner for-congress club in this county reports favorably on Turner's campaign, but it is known that the recent squabble between the candidates made Turner numerous enemies as well as friends. Turner's change to opposition to the sales tax will undoubtedly sway many of the voters but it is not apparent which way they will swing.

The republican contest between Mott and Devers has not aroused much interest and there are no real indications which man will be favored.

In the county race, the offices of county commissioner, the state representative, and district attorney are holding all the interest. Frank Farmer, incumbent, and Waldo Finn are waging a real battle for the republican nomination for county commissioner and this should result in a close race. For state representative, the republicans also have the only race of interest with Stella Henry, Eben Ray, Lyle Theissen and Ray J. Stumbo working hard for the nomination. The democratic contest between Taylor Dunn and Nicklas Zylstra has not aroused much interest. The republicans have three candidates in the race for the district attorney job with the result practically a toss up. The candidates are Elmer Barnhart, incumbent; C. F. Gillette, and Elmer D. Cook.

Four Receive 8th Grade Diplomas

SUNNYSIDE, May 12.—School will close Monday with a picnic held at the Hazel Green park. Everyone in the district is invited to attend. Actual school work ended Friday. Books were put away, Herald's of Health buttons were issued to Hilda Beckley, Carmen Willis, Maurice Willis, Norman Alexander, Bruce Taylor and Robert Barry. Eighth grade diplomas were presented to Maurice Willis, Ena Pearson, Dixie Rose and Verne Larson. Norman Alexander was awarded a prize for having a complete list of one hundred in spelling.

This closes three very successful years for Mrs. Jessie I. Rains in this school. She will leave for the east about June 5 in company with four other teachers. The group will make the trip by motor, returning about the first of September.

CLUB PICNIC JUNE 3
WALDO HILLS, May 12.—The Willard Woman's club has set Sunday, June 3, as the date for the annual club picnic, providing weather conditions permit. Club members and friends are invited. The picnic will be held at Silver falls. Mrs. Miles Ottoway, Mrs. Ted Finlay and Mrs. D. F. Hillman are in charge. The C. R. Riches family has received word that their son John of Salem is recovering from a very serious illness. He expects to leave the hospital in another week.

Basket Dinner for Patrons Marks End of Bethel School

BETHEL, May 12.—School closed here Wednesday. Parents and friends gathered and served a basket dinner at the noon hour. The teacher, Mrs. Carmelite Weddle, generously provided ice cream. Mrs. Weddle will return in the autumn for her seventh year. Marcella Wolfe, Luella Nichols and Maie Creech were on the perfect attendance roll for the year.

MRS. LAMBERT HOSTESS
STAYTON, May 12.—Mrs. L. S. Lambert was hostess to the Happy Hour club at her home last Thursday afternoon. The women quitted for her on a star quilt, after which delicious refreshments were served to the following:

Myrtle Pieser, Lottie Porter, Leona Porter, Mary Döbler, Ila Alexander, Freoda Bates, Jessie Porter, Zola Flux, Mrs. Wonacott and Mrs. John Dosier. Mrs. Will Fuson was a special guest. The next meeting will be at Mrs. Roy Porter's.

THE HAPPY KITCHEN

. . . don't miss it!

The Oregon Statesman FREE COOKING SCHOOL

Tuesday May 15 Wednesday May 16 Thursday May 17 Friday May 18

2 to 4 p. m.
THE ARMORY

Less work—more fun

ONE of the red-letter events of the year for women is almost here. A cooking school it is, to be sure, but what a cooking school! This year's cooking is done in a kitchen much different from that of grandmother's day. There are hours and hours less time needed in cooking—there's less work and more fun. Today's kitchen is a real "Happy Kitchen,"—or ought to be. If your three-meals-a-day seem just a succession of toast and eggs and potatoes and roast beef and pie, our cooking school is made to order for you! And if you've already found the secret to pleasure and fascination in mixing dainty new dishes and dressing up the old stand-bys in colorful new fashions—you'll love the cooking school just as much.

There will be romance—mapping of uncharted seas of the kitchen—at the cooking school. Each session will glow with new ideas, appetite thrillers, the simple secrets that make cooking happier and easier. We invite you to hear dozens of practical suggestions that make kitchen hours more fun and more joy—to see demonstrated before your very eyes those inspired touches that raise the meal and its preparation to the realm of a happy adventure.

Remember—everything shown in our cooking school has been tried and tested by a whole staff of "Happy Kitchen" experts. Months of planning have gone before.

There are four afternoons of enjoyment in store for you . . . come as our guest!

The cooking school will be under the personal supervision of Miss Hester Heath.

Set the dates aside NOW!

Don't ask for salt—ask for Morton's!

A sure way to avoid clogged saltcellars is to insist on Morton's when buying salt. Made with cube-shaped crystals, which don't stick together in damp weather like the flake crystals of ordinary salt, it's practically impossible for it to form annoying, wasteful lumps! Morton's is also a full-strength salt, and thus goes farther because you use less. Plain or iodized—10c.

WHEN IT RAINS IT POURS

The Statesman cooking school will be under the personal supervision of Miss Hester Heath.
