Bank Deal Approved—Authority was granted A. A. Schramm, state bank superintendent, in a court order here Monday to trade $1200 in bonds and $800 in debentures, issued by the Mid-Continent Laundries and owned by the Bank of Woodburn, for shares of stock in the corporation. The laundry firm is behind in paying its fixed obligations and the transfer of the bonds for stock is part of an entire reorganization program. The debentures had been charged from the books of the bank prior to commencement of liquidation in August, 1933.
