The Merion Merry-Go-Round

By BURNLEY

THIS WEEK THE COOL, CONFIDENT GOODMAN WILL DEFEND HIS U.S. OPEN TITLE AGAINST A MIGHTY ARRAY OF THE WORLD'S GREATEST GOLFERS...

The greatest field that ever battled for an open championship, "That's what a veteran golf writer called the galaxy of links aces who will tee up at Merion this week-end in a race for Johnny Goodman's national title. Astute golf authorities maintain that the race is much hotter in the present open championships than it ever was, even when Bobby Jones held forth only a few years ago. New stars seem to shoot up with every passing season, and as a result the famous links veterans of yesterday find themselves hard pressed to keep their places in the sun.

Such brilliant performers as Craig Wood, Densmore Shute, Paul Runyan, Ky Laffoon, Johnny Goodman, Dick Metz and Ed Dudley are all youngsters who have flashed to the fore in recent years.

The cool, confident Goodman—the first amateur since Jones to win the open title—will be facing almost insurmountable odds in his attempt to retain his title. Besides the sensational young stars, such great veterans as Gene Sarazen, Walter Hagen, Tommy Armour, Leo Diegel, Macdonald Smith (still seeking a national title) and many other world stars of golfdom will be shooting for the crown that rests so insecurely on Omaha Johnny's noble noggin.

BETTING ODDS FAVOR CARNERA

Italian Mountain on Big End of 10-to-7 Odds for Bout With Baer

By EDWARD J. NEIL
NEW YORK, June 4.—(AP)—That sleeping giant, Max Baer's battle with Primo Carnera for the heavy weight championship—awoke with a jolt today as the first definite odds named the huge Italian a 7 to 10 favorite.

With the 15-round battle in the Madison Square Garden Bowl only 10 days off, Jack Doyle, best known of all the fight betting commissioners, chalked up his slate today for the first time and the odds came as a shock to the faithful. He will take your money either way, of course he will put up $3 against your $5 if you pick Carnera; $7 against your $5 if you bet on Baer.

A year ago, after Baer knocked out Max Schmeling with a thunderous punching display and Carnera popped Jack Dempsey out in six rounds, Max probably would have entered the ring against the Italian monster a 3 to 1 favorite. It would have been an even money wager that the duel would attract $600,000 worth of customers, now those close to box office windows seem to think the interest stoked by Ross and McLarnin, the diminution of Baer's stature as a title challenger, the short period between the first two big open air shows, all will have the receipts about half that.

"These are tentative odds," Doyle said today. "I'm offering no figures yet on a knockout. I want to get a better idea of Baer's real condition before laying a definite plan, the number of inquiries I've received indicate this will be a big betting fight, though very little money has been wagered so far."

Baer's condition has the experts, as well as Doyle, somewhat baffled, the big Californian has worked so poorly in training against two huge negroes, Seal Harris and Dynamite Jackson, that another trainer, Dolph Thomas, was called to Asburg Park from San Francisco and now Jack Dempsey has taken charge.

Here's a tip, Leo Diegel, after looking over the course at the Merion C. C., remarked that it seemed to be made to order for a game like Paul Runyan's. Little Paul, the big money winner of the winter campaign, may tear the course wide open with his comparatively short but accurate style of shooting.

DEMAREE LEADS COAST HITTERS

LOS ANGELES, June 4.—(AP)—Frank Demaree, Los Angeles' sensational outfielder, continued to set the Pacific Coast league hitting pace today, unofficial averages showed, although his percentage had slipped to .414.

Still in second place was Louie Almadia, Mission, c11, successively with .406 average, followed by John Bassler, Hollywood, at .387. Gilly Campbell, Los Angeles, was fourth.

While his average slipped, Demaree was continuing to build up his home run total, with 24 circuit wallop, twice as many as the second place man, Gene Lillard, also of Los Angeles. The Angels boasted third place among the home run hitters too, with Campbell holding down the position with eleven.

Fred Haney, Hollywood third baseman, was the leading base runner with fourteen thefts. Arnold Star, Los Angeles outfielder, was second, boasting a total of eleven.

The standings including games of yesterday, showed Portland in sixth place in team hitting with an average of .261.

ACHIU CELESTIAL, BULLDOG OPPOSITE

Famed Wrestling Pair to Go at Each Other Tonight; Reed, Kirk Clash

Aside from the concrete fact that "Bulldog" Jackson almost broke Walter "Ninkit" Sneezer's Achiu's back a few weeks ago when they weren't supposed to be wrestling at all—the fall had been awarded—some local fans have figured out another though slightly involved reason why the principals in tonight's main event at the armory should be natural rivals.

Consulting the dictionary, the aforesaid fans have confirmed their offhand belief that China, Achiu's fatherland, has some claim to being called the "celestial" empire. The old dime novels always referred to the Chinese as "celestials" but a little research is necessary to establish the basis for it.

It being settled that Achiu is a "celestial," the next thing is to classify Jackson. But what fan hasn't noticed the diabolical expression he habitually wears in the ring? The "Bulldog" seems intent on looking just as much like his Satanic Majesty as possible and it isn't difficult to imagine horns and a causal appendage.

And there you have it—the celestial kingdom against the kingdom of darkness! The battle of the centuries!

Aside from all that, it promises to be a lively encounter, with Achiu pitting his famous flying tackle against the guile and wick-edness of Jackson.

Robin Reed and Joe Kirk, two boys who can accept it and ladle it out, will figure in the semi-windup and Jack Curtis will serve as trial horse for the debut of "Dutch" Aultman in the opener.

SALEM EAGLES WIN HARD FOUGHT GAME

Behind the fine pitching of Don Burch the Salem Richfield Eagles defeated the strong Mehama club on the latter diamond Sunday 2 to 1.

The game turned into a pitching duel between Burch of the Eagles and Johnson of Mehama, each allowing only five hits over the entire route. Neither team scored until the sixth when Mehama scored one run. Goar was safe when Falst dropped the throw at first and scored on Burch's three bagger, which was Mehama's only extra base hit of the day.

In the Eagles' half of the seventh Matthes connected for a home run to tie the score. The ball, a high hard driven ball, clearing a grove of trees in left field, no doubt is the farthest hit ball in Mehama's park for some time.

The only other score of the game came in the Eagles' half of the ninth when Elliott first up hit a three bagger and scored on Jurgens' double. The score: R. H. E. Eagles.....2 5 2 Mehama.....1 8 0 Batteries: Eagles, Burch and Elliott; Mehama, Johnson and Egeiston.

CURT COMMENTS

BEND, Ore., June 4.—Haw, haw! You may say the joke's on us, up here among the sagebrush, juniper and pine, to see the Senators play ball, whereas the Senators stayed home. But you're wrong; the joke's on the ball players, for 2:30 Sunday afternoon found the sun shining, the ball diamond dry and everything ideal for the game except the lack of ball players.

Just one of those reversals of form; the "rainy" Willamette valley was dry and cloudless, the mite-high McKenzie pass foggy but rainless and we had to approach within 15 miles of Bend to find any rain—in this arid region where irrigation is an absolute essential. It all cleared up around noon.

Anyhow, this city which acquired mountain water after a struggle just as bitter though not so protracted as Salem's, seems to have plenty of it, for almost every inch of unuprooted ground in the residence districts is green with well-kept grass; they know the summer is going to be dry here and start irrigating early instead of waiting till the grass turns yellow.

We found an equally green golf course on the desert tract that we helped the Bend golfers purchase about nine years ago; the firmness of the turf is surprising even though it is evident that they irrigate it every day for about nine months out of the year. Hazards consist mostly of trees left growing in the fairways; there are also a few outcroppings of lava rock. We didn't investigate the rough very extensively—believe it or not, Sips, but what we saw of it was not at all reassuring. The greens just now are not all they should be, but taken altogether it is a pleasant, interesting course. We hope to see the Salem Golf club send a team up here some day though that day may be postponed until after the North Santiam highway is completed.

WOODBURN JUNIORS MAKE FINE START

Battery for Silverton was Coomer, pitcher and Simmons, catcher, Umpire, Moore.

The complete schedule for the Marion county Legion Junior series is as follows: Wednesday, June 6, Salem at Woodburn, 3 p. m.; Silverton at Stayton, Sunday, June 10, Woodburn at Stayton; Silverton at Salem; Wednesday, June 13, Woodburn at Salem, Stayton at Silverton; Sunday, June 17, Stayton at Woodburn, Salem at Silverton; Sunday, June 24, Woodburn at Silverton, Salem at Stayton.
