

Movie Theatres Offer Sparkling Comedies and Exciting Melodrama

"MERRY WIVES OF RENO" AT ELSINORE

Divorce Colony is Setting for Well Cast Play in Humorous Vein

"Merry Wives of Reno," the Warner Bros. picture which gives a humorous slant on the doing in the world-famous divorce colony, is the feature attraction at the Elsinore theatre today.

Margaret Lindsay, Glenda Farrell and Ruth Donnelly are the three merry wives who romp to Reno, Miss Lindsay and Miss Donnelly to seek divorces and Miss Farrell to find a new world of men to flirt with.

Donald Woods, Guy Kibbee and Hugh Herbert are the three husbands involved, the former two framing their wives into a compromising situation with the latter, Woods with the idea of effecting a reconciliation with his bride and Kibbee of reducing his wife's demands for alimony.

The mixups which are involved in these marital scandals are said to be hilarious enough to turn a judge's hair gray and set a courtroom to roaring with laughter.

'LOVE CAPTIVE' IS AT CAPITOL TODAY

If a man's fiancée suddenly declared her love for another man, and even went to live at his home, could he possibly hold her blameless? Yet this was the predicament of Gloria Stuart as the victim of a hypnotist-doctor in "The Love Captive," the strange Universal drama which comes to the Capitol theatre today on a double bill, with Nils Asther as the evil influence. The cast supporting Miss Stuart and Asther includes Paul Kelly, Alan Dinehart, Renee Gadd, Russ Brown, Virginia Kaml, Robert Greig, John Wray and other popular players.

Those who saw the lovely Ann Sothern in her initial screen attraction, the musical romance, "Let's Fall in Love," which was closely followed by "Melody in Spring," another screen musical, probably felt that Miss Sothern was destined to be "typed" for those roles in which only her vocal talents could be exploited. They are in for a surprise, for in her fourth cinematic venture, "The Hell Cat," the Columbia attraction the second feature at the Capitol theatre, Ann Sothern is cast in a fiery dramatic role opposite Robert Armstrong. It's a part that calls for spirited acting, and advance reports credit her with an unusually capable portrayal.

Comedy Trio at Elsinore

Ruth Donnelly, Glenda Farrell and Margaret Lindsay keep their husbands in hot water in "Merry Wives of Reno" at the Elsinore.

Gloria Stuart is the society cab hypnotized by Nils Asther in "The Love Captive" at the Capitol today.

Adalyn Doyle, Lee Tracy and Sally Blane in a scene from "Advice to the Lovelorn" at the Hollywood.

'NOW I'LL TELL' IS FEATURE AT GRAND

Spencer Tracy, Alice Faye, Helen Twelvetrees in Sensational Play

Things millions of women and men want to know will be revealed in Fox Film's latest release, "Now I'll Tell," by Mrs. Arnold Rothstein, which will make its appearance on the screen of the Grand theatre today. The film stars Spencer Tracy.

The screen play reveals a woman's sensational story—told for the first time with all its love and beauty, passion and heartaches.

The film is kaleidoscope in its revelation of the romance, drama, comedy, night life and sporting events of New York city during the past 20 years.

Helen Twelvetrees and Alice Faye head the cast in support of Spencer Tracy.

In spite of the fact that Alice Faye's role in the picture is dramatic, she sings one song. The tune is entitled "Foolin' Around with the Other Woman's Man," and is sung in that inimitable style that won Alice such a tremendous following with Rudy Vallee's Connecticut Yankees.

Legion Post Plans Initiation July 2; Invites Neighbors

SILVERTON, June 9 — The Silverton Legion post will hold open house initiation July 2 at the armory.

The Portland degree team will conduct the initiation and prominent visitors will include Harold Warner of Pendleton, Carl Moser of Portland and Mose Palmateer of Salem.

Posts of the western part of district 2 are to be invited to attend the ceremony. This includes Marion, Polk, Yamhill and Benton counties.

"IT HAPPENED ONE NIGHT" AT STATE

"It Happened One Night," the new attraction at the State theatre, starring Clark Gable and Claudette Colbert, is definitely a must-see. It will surely be one of the ten best pictures of the year, it is certainly the finest of the month. It has that sparkling, entertaining, realistic yet romantic quality that no one between the ages of eight and eighty can resist. The situations are hilarious, the dialogue is scintillating, the direction is brilliant, and the acting—well, just what would you expect from Gable and Miss Colbert?

Gable is cast as an adventurous newspaperman who insults his women first and loves them afterwards. Miss Colbert is a runaway society heiress accustomed to riding roughshod over the rest of the world. Just what happens when these two are forced to spend a week together... but the story's too good to be banded about.

NEWSPAPER STORY ON AT HOLLYWOOD

"Advice to the Lovelorn," the production of Joseph M. Schenck and Darryl F. Zanuck's new 20th Century Pictures, is one of the feature attractions today at the Hollywood theatre.

The wise-cracking Lee Tracy is seen in the starring role, as a flip young reporter on a Los Angeles daily. Demoted to the position of "Miss Lonely Hearts," Tracy writes the wildest advice column ever to appear in a newspaper and gets himself into a maze of adventures. Sally Blane is the leading woman.

Two women vie for George Bancroft's affections in "Blood Money," his new picture which is the second feature at the Hollywood. The two actresses are Judith Anderson, New York stage star, and pretty Frances Dee, charming ingenue from Hollywood.

Heretofore in his pictures Bancroft has had to battle for his women, but in "Blood Money" he enjoys the novel experience of having two personable young ladies "go for him."

HAYING IN ORDER
OAK POINT, June 9 — Haying is the order of the day among the farmers in this community. There is a heavy crop of both alfalfa and clover hay, and balers are busy, baling hay for different farmers. The spring wheat crop has been hit by rust which will lower the yield, but spring oats look fine.
