By ANNE ADAMS

There isn't a sport under the summer sun that isn't more fun for a good looking frock—like this! And if you are not a sportswoman you may still have the fun of the frock—it is that kind of design! The bretelles are its best asset—unless you have fallen in love with the pockets which we are bound to admit have their good points too. We should like it in linen, pique or a very light wool — and if you have enough white frocks, it would be charming in any of the soft pastels which are now so smart—or a vivid red or navy blue with large white buttons.

Pattern 1848 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 takes 3¾ yards 36-inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send 15c in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. Be sure to state size.

Mrs. E. Gallaher Relates Visit to East

HEARING Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt speak in person and lunching with 2700 delegates were but a few of the interesting experiences encountered by Mrs. Elizabeth Gallaher during her visit to the national Y. W. C. A. convention in Philadelphia, Pa. Mrs. Gallaher was the official delegate from the local chapter and made the convention one of her objectives on her recent three month's vacation trip east.

Reports Convention

She reported the convention Tuesday morning at the regular board meeting of the local chapter. Two outstanding measures passed and endorsed by the national convention were the new basis for membership and the social ideals of the church.

The purpose of Y. W. C. A. members as expressed in the constitution is as follows: "To build a fellowship of women and girls devoted to the task of realizing in our common life those ideals of personal and social living to which we are committed by our faith as Christians. In this endeavor we seek to understand Jesus, to share his love for all people, and to grow in the knowledge and love of God." Any woman or girl who accepts this purpose and who is over 18 years of age is entitled to electoral membership in the association.

Paragraphs Quoted

Significant paragraphs from the social ideals of the church include:

"Social planning and control of the credit and monetary systems and the economic processes for the common good.

"Social insurance against sickness, accident, want in old age and unemployment.

"Repudiation of war, drastic reduction of armaments, participation in international agencies for the peacable settlement of all controversies; the building of a cooperative world order."

Delegates at the convention considered programs for the coming two years since the national organization meets biennially.

Conclusions Given

Summarizing the conclusions of the convention, Mrs. Gallaher stated that because of present conditions of unrest there was need for a new philosophy of life. With unemployment comes enforced leisure. The Y. W. C. A. should map out a program to take care of adult leisure time, in conjunction with educational and vocational programs already established in the community. There should be a definite financial plan to carry out this program.

Reports by other board members included that of Mrs. M. B. Wagstaff who served in Mrs. Gallaher's absence and an outline of camp preparation given by Mrs. Frank Spears.

Woodburn.—A piano recital of much local interest was given Friday night in the Woodburn Methodist Episcopal church by pupils of Miss Joyce Woodfin. Assistants on the program were Marian Chase, violinist, and Lois Burton, accompanist, both of Salem. A large audience attended.

Pupils taking part were Eileen and Shirley Bontrager, Maxine Miller, Charlotte Mae Livesay, Betty Dentel, Marian Chase, Millicent Evenden, Wilmer Lessard, Alice May Adams, Fred Evenden, Jr., Marybelle Adams, Dorothy Denten and Floris Nelson.

NOW EATS ANY KIND OF FOOD, AND NO CONSTIPATION

Mr. Durigan Finds Relief in Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

Here is his enthusiastic letter:

"Am 70 years of age, and for 40 of these years there never was a week but what I had to take a pill or some kind of cathartic.

"I took everything, but gained only temporary relief. Until last spring my daughter, who is a nurse in a hospital, brought me some Kellogg's ALL-BRAN.

"At the end of the week, I knew I had something that was it, and I kept on taking it. I haven't taken a cathartic since. I can eat meat any time, as often as I like, or any other kind of food, and no constipation." Mr. L. M. Durigan, 6811 Buffalo Ave., Jacksonville, Florida.

Laboratory tests show Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to help muscle tone. Also iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of lettuce. Inside the body, it forms a soft mass. Gently, it clears out the intestinal wastes.

How much safer than patent medicines. Two tablespoonfuls daily are usually sufficient. With each meal in serious cases. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Sold in the red-and-green package. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Smart Spring Frocks Seen at Dance

What the debutante set will wear on formal occasions was modeled to perfection by the gay party of maids and escorts assembled Monday night at Castillian hall. Nautical decorations with anchors, gleaming portholes and even a pilot wheel, done in cool blues and whites transformed the dancing room.

Hostesses were Miss Harryette Beall, Miss Dorothy Blaisdell, Miss Bernice Croner, Mrs. Ronald Hudkins, Miss Grace Elizabeth Holman, Miss Velma May, Miss Angela Myers, Miss Frances Parks, Miss Rosemary Sawyer, Miss Betty Vaughan, Miss Wilmaholyce Wirtz, Mrs. Robert Eyre, Mrs. John Bone, Miss Marie Stutesman and Miss Dorothy Jones.

Cotton frocks trimmed with white covered buttons or fashioned of printed material with plain trims were equally popular with starched chiffons, organdies and satins. One charming model was of plaid fine gingham with a blue pattern trimmed with blue plaiting. Several stunning white gowns, some with covered button trims or touches of red, showed off to advantage the sunbronzed backs of the wearers. Pale green was a popular shade, possibly because of its compliment to suntan.

TAX LIMITATION TO BE ON FALL BALLOT

The tax limitation constitutional amendment, providing that all taxable property in Oregon shall be assessed at 60 per cent of its true value, will appear on the ballot at the general election in November.

This was announced by Carl H. Cover, field manager, who was in Salem yesterday checking the signatures to the petitions. Cover said that approximately 20,000 names already had been secured and that the remaining 6000 signatures would be available within the next few days. The law provides that the completed petitions, containing 26,667 names, shall be filed in the state department by July 5.

The 20-mill tax limitation would be applied the first year when the constitutional amendment goes into effect. The limitation is exclusive of bond issues, port districts, drainage districts and road districts, but applies to the aggregate of all state, county, city and school levies.

After 1936 the limitation would be reduced one mill each year until it reduces the limit to 15 mills.

Machinery is provided to increase this levy provided the voters desire to do so.

BEND, Ore., June 12.—(AP)—A pleasant surprise to federal men supervising test drillings for the Deschutes irrigation project was discovery of rhyolite—the lava form of granite—at 123 feet.
