Miss White Goes To Wisconsin Conclave

Representing the Oregon Older Girls' conference of which she is president, Miss Pat White left this morning for Portland where she will board the Spokane train Friday for a mid-day train to attend the International Youth Council at Lake Geneva, Wis., June 26 to July 1.

Miss White will represent the state of Oregon at the council and on her return will fill speaking engagements throughout the state reporting the conference. Following her week at Lake Geneva she will visit in Chicago and at Evanston, Ill.

She will return by the southern route going over into Old Mexico from Texas, coming through Phoenix, Ariz., stopping over in Los Angeles and San Francisco, Calif., and returning to Salem August 1.

Mrs. Lytle Entertains Writers' Section

Poetry, articles, and stories comprised the program of the Writer's section of the Salem Arts League at the June session, held at the rural home of Mrs. Julia Lytle on Riverside drive Tuesday night.

In the Valley Social Realm

In a very pretty ceremony performed Tuesday night at the Pratum Methodist church, nuptial vows which united Frances Klampe of Labish Center and Rudolph H. de Vries of Pratum were solemnized. The impressive single ring service was read by Rev. Harvey R. Scheerman of Everett, Wash., assisted by Dr. D. H. Leech, Salem, in the presence of 275 relatives and friends.

The bride was lovely in a floor length gown of white satin with short train and high cow neck. It had short puff sleeves and a row of small white buttons down the back. Her full length tulle veil was worn cap-shaped and held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Cecil Brunner roses and white sweet peas.

Her only attendant was Olivia de Vries, sister of the groom, who wore pink silk net with cascaded skirt. She carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations and white roses. Valmer Klampe acted as groom's man, and Paul Sikke, Arthur de Vries, and Dan Bischoff were ushers.

Preceding the ceremony a short prelude of piano music was played by Raymond Brunkow of Portland, who also played the wedding marches and accompanied Linden Lauer of Albany as he sang "Love Never Fails."

Immediately following the ceremony a reception for the guests was held in the church dining room. Bernadene Daugherty, Florence Pugh, Phyllis Leedy, Erma and Naomi Hornschuch, Louise Tontz, and Eva Dow served, assisted by Grace Klampe and Miriam de Vries. Assisting about the room were Mrs. Lottie Smith and Beulah Gerik and Irene de Vries.

Mr. and Mrs. de Vries left following the reception on a honeymoon trip to Crater Lake and they will return via the McKenzie pass and Columbia highway. For her going away costume, Mrs. de Vries selected a sandy beige suit with brown accessories. Upon their return they will reside in their new home at Pratum. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Klampe of Labish Center, and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred de Vries of Pratum.

Miss Caldwell Bride of Mr. Estes

The marriage of Miss Malda Caldwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Caldwell, and Aubrey D. Estes of Joseph, son of Mrs. Mamie Estes, was solemnized at a beautiful garden ceremony at the home of the bride in Quinaby Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Miss Marguerite V. Davidson played Mendelssohn's wedding march and Mrs. Isabelle Wilson sang "I Love You Truly" by Bond and "Thank God for a Garden" by Teresa Del Riego. Rev. Willard A. Elkins officiated. He also performed the ceremony which united Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell 31 years ago.

Vows were exchanged before a pink rose-covered arbor flanked by hollyhocks.

The bride was gowned in a tip-top length frock of white lace over white satin made along princess lines. She wore a wreath of brilliant and carried a bouquet of pastel roses and sweet peas with streamers.

Miss Mildred Martin was maid of honor and wore an ankle-length dress of blue eyelet embroidery. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas.

Kermit B. Estes was best man for his brother.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Caldwell residence. The table was decorated with pink roses and matching tapers and the rooms were fragrant with white and pink snapdragons.

For traveling the bride wore a wine-colored swag suit and a large straw hat to match. The couple will spend two weeks at the Oregon beaches, returning to the bride's home for a short visit before going to Joseph where they will make their home after July 1.

Guests at the wedding were: Mrs. Mamie Estes, Willis T. Caldwell, Mrs. Edith Burge, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. V. Nadman and children Jack and Cleona, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Wilson, Miss Marguerite V. Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

This frock is attractive on anyone from size 16 to 44. It has the style which accompanies subtle simplicity and good lines. Without a superfluous detail to take unnecessary time and labor in making, it contrives to give an exceedingly smart effect. The tie knotted at the front, which may, of course, be omitted if one wishes, gives an opportunity for the introduction of a telling note of color. With a print it may repeat the outstanding shade in the pattern—and with a plain fabric strike a lively contrast. It is a perfect frock for cottons—not difficult to launder nicely.

Pattern 1911 is available in sizes 16, 18, 20, 24, 28, 32, 36, 40, 44. Size 16 takes 3 1/2 yards 26 inch fabric and 1 1/4 yards 5 inch ribbon. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send 15c in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. Be sure to state size.

The smartest warm weather fashion, the newest fabric, and the summer season's outstanding accessories are illustrated and described in the new Anne Adams pattern book for 1934. Order your copy of this helpful new summer book. Price of book 15c. Book and pattern together 35c.

Address orders to: The Oregon Statesman Pattern Dept., 215 South Commercial street, Salem. Make necessary enclosures. Your order will be promptly attended to.

Orders customarily are filled within four days from the time received by the Statesman.

"Knot a Care" Club Entertained

Mrs. Dalbert Wilson entertained members of the "Knot a Care" sewing club at her home Tuesday afternoon. Sewing and informal conversation were enjoyed followed by a late luncheon.

Present were Mrs. William Thomas and daughter Joan, Mrs. Carol Robinson, Mrs. Elton Birch and the hostess, Mrs. Dalbert Wilson and daughter Beverly.

Robert J. Maaske has returned from an extended trip east. Mrs. Maaske is still in Monte Vista, Colo., visiting with her mother, Mrs. C. D. Tucker. She will return to Salem about July 1.

The Salem Press club will hold its annual picnic Sunday at Nescott beach with a large number of members and families expected to attend.

Noon Today Deadline for Turning in Cooky Recipes

Cool mornings are ideal for baking. And what is more satisfying than to prepare food that is enthusiastically received and which lasts for a few days. Cookies are that way. They aren't hard to make and they keep longer than pies or cakes.

Today at noon is the deadline for cooky recipes to be received in the Recipe Round Table contest. Send your contribution in this morning and watch for the winners and next week's topic in Friday morning's Statesman.

Lamb is being advertised in all the meat markets now and the following recipe for carrot meat balls provides a novel way to serve.

Carrot-Lamb Meat Balls

7 small carrots
1 1/2 lbs. shoulder of lamb
2 small onions
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
dash pepper
1 egg, beaten
4 tablespoons fat
1/2 cup hot water
3 tablespoons flour
1 1/2 cups broth

Select a lean piece of lamb. Cut meat from bones and put through a food chopper with the carrots and onions. Add the seasonings and beaten egg. Shape into small balls and dredge with flour. Heat the fat in a deep skillet. In this brown the meat balls on all sides. Add the hot water, cover the skillet and cook slowly until the meat is done, about 25 minutes. Remove the balls. Add the flour to the fat in the skillet. Let brown. Add the broth slowly while stirring constantly. Cook until thick. Pour over the cooked meat and serve with steamed rice.

Stuffed Carrots

4 large whole carrots
1 cup sage dressing or any meat left-over ground fine
Hollow out the centers of the carrots (lengthwise) with a small knife. Stuff with the dressing or chopped meat. Place in greased baking dish. Dot with butter and sprinkle lightly with water and seasoning. Bake in a moderate oven until carrots are soft and slightly browned. This recipe may be used for a main dish, serving one large carrot to a person. A sprig of parsley placed at the large end of each carrot will add an attractive touch.
