AMERICANS RATED LOW IN NET MEET

Parade by Eight Teams to Open Softball Season Next Monday; Plan Announced

LONDON, June 20. (AP)—Members of the United States Davis Cup team were given only secondary consideration today in the seeded list for the Wimbledon tennis championships starting Monday but in a actual play in the Queens' Club tournament they continued into the quarter-final round.

With Dave Jones, former Columbia university star and now a Cambridge student, as a companion, Frank X. Shields, Lester Stofen, George M. Lott, Jr., and Sidney B. Wood, Jr., won third round matches. Shields put out the cup team captain, R. Norris "Dick" Williams.

In the draw for the play at Wimbledon, Shields was seeded only fifth, with Stofen and Wood rated directly behind him in that order. Jack Crawford, of Australia, the defending champion, headed the list followed by Fred Perry, England's cup ace, the sensational young German, Baron von Cramm and H. W. "Bunny" Austin, Perry's cup team mate. Gioglio de Sisti, of Italy, was seeded eighth completing the list.

Although the men were little favored, the sensational play of Helen Hull Jacobs and Sarah Palfray in defending the Wightman Cup last weekend gave them first and third seeding, respectively, in the women's list. Last year's finalist, Dorothy Round of England, was rated second.

Pirates Finally Win—PITTSBURGH, June 20. (AP)—Coming from behind three times with spirited rallies in which they were paced by their new manager, "Pie" Traynor, the Pirates ended a five-game losing streak today by beating the Boston Braves 6 to 5.

Parade by Eight Teams to Open Softball Season Next Monday; Plan Announced

Plans for the big opening of the summer season of the Salem Softball league were announced Wednesday by Dwight Adams, league secretary. The opening double-header, contestants in which will not be known until the parade and the crowd reach Sweetland field, is to be played next Monday night.

The eight teams, with all players in uniform, will form the parade, marching from the Y. M. C. A. at 7:30 down through the business district and out to the field. There will be over 100 players in the procession and the bright uniforms and the significance of the occasion will make it a gala event.

The softball players this season will be "real amateurs," for it will cost them money to play; each member of each team will put in $1 toward the light fund.

Teams entered in the league, and listed in the order in which they will appear in the parade, are: Elks, Merchants (the new team organized by Don Hendrie), Kay Woolen Mills, Parker's, Master Bread, Pade's, Wait's Market, Hoag Brothers.

A drawing will be held to pick the contestants for the two games.

Mechanics Win From Shippers With 8-7 Score

MILL CITY, June 20. — The shipping crew was defeated 8 to 7 in a fast game of softball here Monday by the mechanics. Each team got seven hits. Ray and F. Crenshaw were the batteries for the mechanics and Bruder and Fink for the shipping crew. Two more games will be played this week, one on Wednesday evening and another on Friday evening.

The next game for the home league nine will be Sunday at Me-

Peterson Pitches for Everett Now

ANDY PETERSON, former Willamette university and Salem Senator pitcher who was with the Portland Ducks early this season and hurled for Toledo in a State league game here later, is now a regular on the mound staff of the Everett, Wash., team in the Northwest league, which includes a number of the larger cities in Washington. Everett has a rather weak team, which has won only one of 18 games played to date. Peterson is reported to have had some trouble with control in his recent pitching.
