

POWELL MEET TO BE SUNDAY

Kinsmen Circuit Riders to Gather at Bethany's Ancient Church

BETHANY, June 20.—The 17th annual Memorial service of the Powell Memorial society will be held Sunday at the Bethany church with a picnic dinner at noon in the surrounding grounds.

The family is descended from John Powell, pioneer Christian church minister of the west, and his sister, Lucinda Powell Probst. The three brothers were well known circuit riders of the 1850s, with John Powell described as the preacher and Noah and Alfred as exhorters.

Bethany Church Oldster The Bethany church grounds were selected as the place because this church is thought to be the oldest of the more than 300 Christian churches on the Pacific coast.

Ferry Powell of Dallas is president of the Powell group and Frank M. Powell of Silverton is its secretary. Its motto is "Portes Fortuna Ajuvat." The oldest member of the clan is John Probst of Albany, who with his three generations of sons is expected to be present at the Sunday affair.

The morning program will open at 10:45. Rev. J. C. Lane of Eugene will pronounce the invocation and greetings will be delivered by F. M. Powell of Silverton. Ira Powell of Monmouth will respond. The society theme song, "Our Folks," will be sung following.

GRANGER'S COLUMN

SILVERTON HILLS, June 20

At the June session of the Silverton Hills grange a resolution was passed asking that the roads to the Silver Falls state park area be filled in the near future. The resolution was sent to the Silverton chamber of commerce for approval and from there it will be sent to the state authorities.

The complaint is that the dust from the heavy weekend travel detracts much from the pleasure of the trip to the motorists and makes it unpleasant for those living along the highway.

CROPS LOOK GOOD IN BETHANY AREA

Two-Year-Old Hopyards in Best of Condition; Clover Fine BETHANY, June 21.—One of the finest fields of corn in the Bethany community is that owned by the Charles Schmedel farm near Pudding river. Seemingly the two-year old hop yards here in Bethany are the best of the lot this season. Few of the newly planted hops of the old yards are not so good. Oscar Sater is a well known hop grower in the Bethany School district, also has an excellent yard. Neither of these yards can be seen from the main traveled highway. Dr. Oscar Sater is very good, and the Morley yards along the pavement near Pudding river are making a fine showing. Several other yards seen in a drive through here are very spotted.

Harvesting Hay Barley, already in the hands of the reaper, is attracting notice along the Torvond road. The hay crop has been exceptional and indications are for a splendid second crop of clover. The hay crop has been exceptional and indications are for a splendid second crop of clover.

ASTORIAN IS HEAD OF UNITED FARMER

WEST STAYTON, June 20.—The state executive committee of the United Farmers league met Sunday with members from different parts of the state attending. At noon they met at the Oak Grove on Lee's place in a joint luncheon picnic with the youth's conference and farmers from surrounding towns. About 100 enjoyed the picnic.

Several of the students of the Farm school on wheels gave short talks. Other speakers were A. Macpeak of the Marine Workers' Industrial union of Portland; Mr. McKill of the Multnomah Federation of Unemployed of Portland; Floyd Ramp of Roseburg.

Miss Scott, the advance teacher of the Farm school on wheels that has been in session here for the past three weeks, left Friday to attend the convention of the U. F. L. at Minneapolis, Minn., then she will go on to Plaxton, N. D., where the school opens June 30 with students enrolled from North Dakota and Montana.

Outlaw Horses For Big Buckeroo Arrive After 21-Day Trip From Hills

MOLALLA, June 20.—Pasture grounds near Molalla were the 21st stopping place late Monday afternoon for the 126 wild horses and eight cowboys and cowgirls driving them on the long trek from Steens mountain in eastern Oregon to the Molalla buckeroo grounds.

The outfit attracted much attention Sunday and Monday as the more heavily traveled highways near Silverton and Molalla were followed, according to Rankin Crow, one of the bosses. People were out guarding their laws against intruders and motorists slowed down to watch and wait while the horses took possession of the highway. Proceeding the horses always went the old truck wagon with a chariot attached.

Later in the week the bucking horses will be brought into corrals at the buckeroo grounds. "And if anyone thinks these horses won't buck," says Crow, "he can just come in and try riding 'em."

The horses were rounded up by Albert Hughes and Crow between February and May. Many of the horses are outlaws. The trip to Molalla was begun May 19. Cowboys with the roundup are Roy Skeins, and his brother, who is known as Flint Spragg, Lee Verley, George Rose, Hughes and Crow. Nancy Boyce, who will be the buckeroo queen, and Mabel Winthorn, also made the trip.

Victor Marshall, Burns, has consented to be the third judge and A. E. Bardwell will be the arena director at the buckeroo July 1, 2, 3 and 4.

Dinners will be served at the grade school at noon on July 1 and 4 by members of the Parent Teacher association in an effort to raise money to support the hot lunch project for school children next fall. The school house will be opened to provide rest rooms and eating places for guests at the buckeroo. Mrs. William Moore, president of the association, is general chairman of the dinners.

ROBERTSON REUNION IS STAGED AT TURNER

TURNER, June 20.—The Robertson clan picnic was held Sunday at the Turner Tabernacle grounds. The descendants of E. W. and Jane Robertson who settled near Turner in 1868 have held their annual gatherings for about 16 years, with names of several hundred near and distant relatives on the roll.

Three sons, John, Frank and Benjamin, passed away in the last six months. Three children are now living out of a family of 19 children. Mrs. Rena Barzee of Corvallis, and I. L. Robertson of Milwaukee, were present. Clarence Robertson of Salt Lake City, was unable to be present. A daughter-in-law, Mrs. Jennie Robertson was in attendance, with the major part of the company of about 60 representing younger generations.

The Robertson home was in Indiana where most of the children were born, the mother of the first five passing away when they were small. L. W. and Floyd Robertson, brothers and A. E. Robertson, are grandchildren, and Mrs. Margaret Fowler and Albert Robertson are great grandchildren who reside at Turner, near the old ancestral home.

The present officers of the clan are president, Mrs. Rena Barzee, vice president, A. E. Robertson, secretary, Deloss Robertson and historian, Eunis Robertson.

BERRY SEASON ENDS WITH WINES LOADED

SUNNYSIDE, June 20.—The berry season is over with a lot of berries still on the vines because of no market. The berries are the finest in years. Much mowing is being done for hay of the poorer fields of wheat and oats. The red rust has been bad in this neighborhood and will lower the grain yield.

The tree fruits are looking well but the season has been peculiar. The fruit men are seeking more knowledge on conditions of the orchards which are puzzling them. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Taylor attended the state grange at Roseburg. Charles H. Taylor and wife accompanied them and then drove on down to the Redwood highway and coast points. Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Clark, delegates from the Red Hills grange, also motored down.
