motion. Aldermen Vandevort and Hughes each objected to any bill which would "license gambling." Proponents of the measure said it would not license gambling as marble games were not played for a consideration and were games of skill.

An ordinance to license dealers in second-hand books was re-referred to committee on Alderman O'Hara's motion and over the protest of Alderman Vandevort.

New ordinances introduced included one to make Mission street a through thoroughfare from South Commercial to 12th streets and an ordinance providing for the selection of depositories for city funds.

Included in the bills approved by the council were rental payments aggregating $590 which with $300 more already paid June brought the total rentals assumed by the city for the past month to nearly $900. The council previously had voted to discontinue these relief payments since the emergency fund of the city is already overdrawn for 1934.

The council received and commended a report by Chief of Police Minto on the operations of the city prowler car and police radio service. This report showed that in the six months' period ending June 30, 1934, 2065 calls were answered with the prowler car service with the average time between the receipt of the call and the time the officer reported after making the call being only 7.3 minutes. Police made 11,788 radio calls to prowler cars in the six months' period.

the subject of the patriotic address by General U. G. McAlexander, "Rock of the Marne," at the exercises starting in front of the grandstand at 11 a. m. Heads of Salem patriotic organizations will sit on the platform as honor guests but will not speak.

Hundreds of boys and girls are expected to be at the grounds at 9:30 a. m. when the sports program will get under way under direction of H. V. Collins. Fifty-three prizes will be awarded to winners of the many foot and bicycle races, greased pig contest and other feature events. In case the children's program is not completed at 11 a. m., it will be halted during the patriotic exercises and resumed around 12 o'clock noon.

Difficulty in securing supplies of firecrackers, torpedos and other popular fireworks has been experienced but the committee is determined to have an adequate supply on sale at the grounds even if its members have to go to Portland after sufficient stocks, Owen declared.

Thirty legionnaires will police the grounds throughout the day under the direction of O. E. "Mose" Palmateer, district legion commander, while state and city officers will be asked to handle traffic outside.

Toward Prison

Joseph Harriman

Joseph Harriman, former president of the Harriman National bank of New York City, is pictured leaving the New York federal court after being sentenced to a term of four and one-half years in a federal prison on his conviction of misapplication of bank funds. He was permitted to leave the court on a stay of execution, pending an appeal.

only be determined by arbitrators possessing the necessary experience and knowledge to pass upon it. The method of arbitration which was discussed between yourself and other representatives of the city of Salem and representatives of the company, at recent conferences in Salem, was to be a genuine arbitration, that is to say an arbitration of the fair value of the property by qualified experts. Your suggestion of substituting a legal expert changes this and means the third arbitrator will not be qualified to pass upon the matter to be arbitrated.

"We are informed that there are a very large number of available engineers on the Pacific coast who possess the qualifications necessary for appointment as a third arbitrator.

"The company regrets that the city seems now to be disinclined to proceed with an arbitration by qualified arbitrators."

MEIER REFUSES TO DEAL WITH HOLMAN

official retort to the treasurer's attack.

State legal authorities here last night said there was no legal way in which the governor could exclude Mr. Holman from board meetings. Meier could refuse to attend any gathering when the treasurer was present which would place Secretary of State Stadelman in an embarassing place: If he attended a meeting with Holman where the governor was not present, he would probably alienate Meier, who appointed him. If he refused to attend a meeting where Holman was present and Meier absented himself, the state board of control and similar three-man boards composed of the three principal elected officials of the state, would constantly lack a quorum for transacting business.

MEIER RESCUES FROM GALLOWS

Sentences of Riley, Jordan Commuted to Life Terms; Were to Hang Soon

noon. Both Riley and Jordan later were liberated from death cells, and will be assigned to employment in the prison flax plant.

Four conditional pardons, involving persons serving terms of from one to 10 years in the state penitentiary, also were granted by Governor Meier Monday.

Jack Dalton, serving 10 years for assault and robbery, armed with a dangerous weapon, was pardoned with the understanding that he will go to Davisville, Mo., where he has been offered a home by relatives. He was received at the penitentiary from Klamath county April 25, 1930.

Another pardon was granted to William C. Clark, serving a 10 year term for larceny committed in Washington county. Clark was received at the prison July 14, 1919, but escaped during the same year. He subsequently went to California, where he was committed to San Quentin prison. Upon completing his term there Clark was returned to the Oregon institution.

Stephen Clink also received executive clemency. He was received at the penitentiary February 20, 1934, to serve a term of two years for burglary not in a dwelling. Clink was committeed from Lincoln county.

A fourth pardon was granted to Glenn Peterson, who was received at the penitentiary June 23, 1934, to serve a term of one year for larceny. Peterson came from Multnomah county.

agreed to, all men to return to work in same positions they had before the strike, without discrimination.

Any decisions on wages to be retroactive to date men return to work.

Grievances and demands of maritime unions to be taken up immediately following longshoremen's arbitration.

Board to use its good offices to abolish necessity of seamen applying to marine service bureau for work.

Arbitration hearings to start Friday.

Bids Called for Transients Camp Materials Here

Bids for materials out of which the transients' camp on the North Santiam route above Mill City is to be built were called for yesterday by F. W. Poorman, assistant SERA purchasing agent, 248½ North Commercial street. He estimated 70,000 feet of lumber would be required along with miscellaneous roofing and insulation materials and hardware. Bids close at 2 p. m. Monday, July 9.

This camp will house from 50 to 100 men placed there by the federal transient relief administration to clear right-of-way for the highway. Later it will be turned over to the county, probably for public use.

THIEF OVERLOOKS $100 AND DIAMOND

Some thief is bemoaning his lack of thoroughness today. For it cost him just $100 and a diamond ring.

Police reported yesterday that in a purse stolen from Lydia Cooper at Olinger field Saturday and recovered from the creek by children Sunday, was a $100 bill, tucked in the bottom of the cash pocket, and the diamond ring it had contained when taken from a car owned by E. L. Riney, 1825 North 19th street. The thief found the other $60 the woman had left in the purse.

The children who found the purse submerged in the creek said it contained a quantity of pebbles, evidently intended by the thief to keep it out of sight in the stream.

lion ahead of June, 1932, when $8,861,863 was recorded.

The first six months of this year have shown a month by month gain over 1933, and except in February, a short business month, and April, a month by month gain over each other. February, 1933, the low point in banking business here, was only slightly bettered by March, 1933. But in February this year, more than two million was gained on February, a year ago, and March virtually doubled the March, 1933, conditions.

Month by month, the tabulation for the first half of this year and the corresponding period a year ago, shows:

	1934	1933
Jan.	$ 9,222,297	$ 6,852,658
Feb.	7,766,138	5,704,769
March	10,727,357	5,772,878
April	10,002,164	7,695,266
May	10,864,470	9,484,305
June	11,577,570	9,296,280
	$60,159,996	$44,806,156

Harry Corn Rests "Fairly Well" is Hospital Report

Harry Corn, 148 South Commercial street, who was injured in a train-automobile crash Saturday afternoon, was reported "resting fairly well" at Salem Deaconness hospital Monday afternoon. There were no new complications in his condition. He is suffering from double fracture of the right leg, a severely bruised left arm and minor lacerations.

Mrs. Kent Landers of Buena Vista, who was severely cut about the face in an automobile collision near the Salem Heights school Saturday afternoon, was able to leave the Deaconess hospital Sunday.

DRINK BRINGS 22 TO JAIL IN JUNE

Twenty-two persons were arrested by city police during June on charges involving intoxicants, Chief Frank A. Minto reported yesterday. Five were charged with drunken driving and the other 17 with simply being drunk.

The drunken driving case against I. H. Barron was set for 2 p. m. Friday and E. P. Bedwell case for 10 a. m. Saturday. Negotiations were under way in the case against Leo Gregson for the latter to pay a $100 fine in two installments. Time for trial has not been set in the drunken driving cases against E. A. Carrow and Grover C. Hough. The charge against Emery E. Moore of Newport was reduced to simple drunkenness.

Additional statistics in the monthly police report were:

Accidents reported, 102; arrest for felonies 12, for traffic violation 35; juvenile arrests 2; miscellaneous arrests 11; total arrests 48. Jail sentences imposed by police judge none; burglaries reported, including two attempts, 10; larceny cases reported 25; automobiles reported stolen 9; stolen automobiles recovered 10; officers' special reports 41, meals served to prisoners 126, total fines imposed $133; meals served in Hotel de Minto 5522; transients given overnight lodging 1906.

Flood Control Surveys Start, City's Ditches

City Engineer Hugh Rogers today or Thursday will begin making surveys required as the city's part in the flood control program which is being carried out with SERA labor. Working from a preliminary survey made Saturday, he and his men will lay out definite lines for widening ditches and digging a short canal in south and southeast Salem.

Work on the county's end of the program has been stopped temporarily. It is expected it will be resumed when further surveys have been completed. The first unit, now completed, consisted of erecting a dike along Mill creek from the Southern Pacific tracks near the state penitentiary annex to Turner road.

ENJOY THIS WAY OF INCREASING YOUR ENERGY

Smoke a Camel —and notice its "energizing effect"

With the pleasure of Camel's distinctive flavor comes an added benefit—an actual increase in your flow of natural energy. That exhausted, "dragged-out" feeling slips away...your "pep" comes flooding back.

This discovery, confirmed by a famous New York research laboratory, means that by smoking Camels it is possible to restore the flow of your natural energy—quickly—delightfully—and without jangling your nerves.

For no matter how often you choose to "get a lift with a Camel," Camel's finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS never get on your nerves!

"Camels give me a refreshing 'lift' in energy when I feel tired out. And they don't interfere with my nerves."
HELENE MADISON
OLYMPIC AND WORLD'S CHAMPION SWIMMER

● Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS —Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand.
