

NEW STRIKE IS BEING FOUGHT

Negotiations at Frisco are Backstage; Teamsters Want to Go Out

(Continued from page 1)

"bloody" Thursday's skirmishes between police and strikers. The hill has been acquired by the state as the site for a unit of the San Francisco-Oakland bay project. Bullets fired to warn Deadline Teamsters.

The troops on the waterfront fired several bullets into the ground to disperse strike pickets who had ventured beyond deadlines. Officers at the national guard headquarters denied reports that shots had been fired at the state's soldiers and that one trooper had been wounded in the leg.

Stories of frustration and abuse were related by representatives of the striking unions testifying under oath before the federal board.

A charge that ship owners had taken advantage of the NRA with reference to the International Seamen's union was made by Paul Scharrenberg, representing that draft. He asserted the shippers had organized to obtain benefits under the national recovery act, but had declined to deal collectively with the striking seamen.

He asserted the United States shipping board under the administration of President Harding began to cut wages, eliminate overtime pay and lengthen working hours, and that they were continuing with those policies to "grind the seamen into the dust."

"The ship owners," said Scharrenberg, "refuse to deal with us collectively, contending agreements should be made between the union and individual companies, but they have organized to grind the seamen into the dust."

Shippers Attacked as Low Wage Payers

Scharrenberg asserted the shippers were "keeping wages low, conditions bad and lengthening hours through their hiring halls. They discipline those who resent this treatment and refuse to give them jobs."

"They have organized an extensive lobby at Washington to get all the benefits available, but they claim they cannot organize to deal with us. Their logic is beyond comprehension."

"They have forgotten about the new deal and as far as the men are concerned it is only a raw deal."

HORSE TO COME BACK VETS TOLD IN MEET

(Continued from page 1)

tour of the various state institutions is scheduled for Wednesday morning.

Veterinarians from British Columbia as well as Oregon and Washington are in attendance at the conference which is being held at the Marion hotel.

Speakers on today's program will include: Dr. Robert Jay, Corvallis; Dr. A. R. Galbraith, Centralia, Wash.; Dr. R. G. Cuthbert, Vancouver, B. C.; Dr. B. T. Simms, Corvallis; Dr. E. E. Wegner, Pullman, Wash.; and Dr. Fred W. Lange, Salem. Dr. E. A. Ehmer, Seattle, Wash., will have charge of the afternoon clinic.

Dr. Alfred H. P. Hendricksen, president of the Washington association, will be chairman of the Wednesday session. Speakers will be Dr. A. E. Bruce, San Antonio, B. C.; Dr. J. N. Shaw, Corvallis and Dr. Keown.

The Call Board ...

GRAND
Today—Loretta Young in "Born to Be Bad" and Walt Disney's Silly Symphonies, "Fanny Little Bunnies."
Wednesday—On the stage, the Gilmore Circus; on the screen, Virginia Cherrill in "He Couldn't Take It."
Friday—Baer and Carnera fight pictures and Buck Jones in "The Man Trail."

ELSINORE
Today—Double bill, Joe E. Brown in "The Circus Clown" and Chester Morris in "Embarrassing Moments."
Wednesday—Cary Grant in "Kiss and Make Up."
Friday—William Powell in "The Key."

CAPITOL
Today—Double bill, "Where Sinners Meet" with Clive Brook and Tom Tyler in "Vanishing Men."
Thursday—Pat O'Brien in "The Personality Kid" and episode 10 of "Vanishing Shadow."

STATE
Today—John Barrymore in "Counsellor at Law" and "Animal Gods."
Thursday—Earl Rossman's "Dangers of the Arctic" and Walter Huston in "Keep 'Em Rolling."
Saturday—Tim McCoy in "The Texas Cyclone" and Charlie Chaplin in "The Emigrant."

HOLLYWOOD
Today—Ramon Novarro in "The Cat and the Fiddle."
Wednesday—Fredric March in "Design for Living."
Friday—Double bill, Ray Walker in "City Limits" and Noah Beery in "Mystery Liner."

Belgian Neutrality Sought

Fear of nations: Invasion from the skies. Count de Broqueville.

Parliament, London.

Belgium's historical neutrality, the violation of which at the beginning of the World war caused England and others to enter the conflict against the central powers, is being suggested again for the first time since it was ended after the Versailles treaty in an alliance with France. Nazi Germany's thunder has compelled Belgian leaders, like Premier Count de Broqueville, to confess that their tiny nation would stand little show again against the Reich. England, which realizes that the day of the battleship is over as far as a purely European defense is concerned against airplane attacks, wants to "guarantee" Belgium's integrity again in order that hostile airfields will be too far from the English channel to serve large masses of attacking bombers.

CO-OP PREPARES TO PROCESS NUT CROP

(Continued from page 1)

plant will put local nuts in a better position to compete with other deliveries in the east, thus bringing a quicker and surer market. The crop is handled through the North Pacific nut growers' co-op, of which the Salem plant is one of several units.

"We have always been fortunate in getting a heavy tonnage through a small plant, but with the improvements and increased space we will be able to get this year's large tonnage through in record time. Once operations are started, we expect to run every minute until the crop is finished," Mr. Adams says.

"I recently saw orders from Boston for 1500 sacks of all large Franquettes—our very best grade. This is 50 tons. So it is easy to see how Boston feels about Oregon nuts," Mr. Adams said in pointing out that the only fly in the ointment to the industry in this section has been the difference in harvesting and shipping periods which has given foreign nuts an edge on the markets because growers there have been able to get crops in buyers' hands first.

Mr. Adams expects fibertubs will start rolling into the plant before September 1.

Last year only 236 tons of nuts were handled by the co-operative here, with 165 tons being fibertubs and 113 tons walnuts. The huge decrease in the walnut harvest a year ago was due to the severe freeze of the previous winter.

Canal Passage is First for Chief

BALBOA, C. Z., July 9.—(AP)—Plans were made today for the first transit of the Panama canal by a president of the United States. When the cruiser Houston arrives Wednesday, the Canal Zone will be entertaining a president the first time since 1906, when Theodore Roosevelt came here during the construction. The Houston is expected in Cristobal harbor at 8 a. m. Troops will be massed along the canal as the president's ship passes.

Clergymen Case For Hays' Scalp

NEW YORK, July 9.—(AP)—A virtual demand that Will Hays be "thrown out" of his place in the motion picture industry was made today by a leading member of the inter-faith conference of New York clergymen, who extended their drive against undesirable motion pictures to the legitimate stage, burlesque shows and taxi

LABISH TO FIX SCHOOL

LAKELABISH, July 9.—By a lopsided vote, school patrons here tonight voted to make extensive repairs on the school building. Re-painting and replastering of the schoolhouse proper was voted 16 to 1; installation of electric lights was favored by 14 and disapproved by 3, while 13 voted for the building of a play-shed as opposed to 4 non-favorable.

Today and Wednesday
2 FEATURE
ATTRACTIONS!

JOHN BARRYMORE
in COUNSELLOR AT LAW
with BEBE DANIELS - DORIS KENYON - MAYO METHOT

ADDED
A Strange, Weird Story of India's Temples
"ANIMAL GODS"
Different! Baffling - Unusual!

LABOR BODY TO PLAN WALKOUT

105 Labor Unions Said to Favor Drastic Action Behalf Dock Men

(Continued from page 1)

lumber loaded there was towed there by barge from a mill up-river.

Police Chief B. K. Lawson announced some of the regular officers can be "transferred to other fronts," leaving a few regulars and experienced specialists to guard Terminal 4.

A seaman was arrested today on charges of using an improvised sling shot to fire an egg-sized rock at a police car.

About 30 members of the crew of a Rightfield Oil company tanker walked out late today when informed they were handling "un-fair" cargo.

Charles Richmond, pump man, swim ashore and visited strike headquarters to learn whether or not the crew members were considered strike-breakers. Hal Marchand, representative of the seamen's union, said Richmond told him the crew had been led to believe it was handling "fair" cargo.

SEATTLE MAN DIES FROM STRIKE HURT

(Continued from page 1)

dropping Watson, mortally wounded.

In the face of vigorous opposition by union officials, waterfront employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

The plans for the election, however, were contingent on returns by union officials, water-front employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

The plans for the election, however, were contingent on returns by union officials, water-front employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

The plans for the election, however, were contingent on returns by union officials, water-front employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

The plans for the election, however, were contingent on returns by union officials, water-front employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

The plans for the election, however, were contingent on returns by union officials, water-front employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

The plans for the election, however, were contingent on returns by union officials, water-front employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

The plans for the election, however, were contingent on returns by union officials, water-front employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

The plans for the election, however, were contingent on returns by union officials, water-front employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

The plans for the election, however, were contingent on returns by union officials, water-front employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

The plans for the election, however, were contingent on returns by union officials, water-front employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

The plans for the election, however, were contingent on returns by union officials, water-front employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

The plans for the election, however, were contingent on returns by union officials, water-front employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

The plans for the election, however, were contingent on returns by union officials, water-front employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

The plans for the election, however, were contingent on returns by union officials, water-front employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

The plans for the election, however, were contingent on returns by union officials, water-front employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

The plans for the election, however, were contingent on returns by union officials, water-front employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

The plans for the election, however, were contingent on returns by union officials, water-front employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

The plans for the election, however, were contingent on returns by union officials, water-front employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

The plans for the election, however, were contingent on returns by union officials, water-front employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

The plans for the election, however, were contingent on returns by union officials, water-front employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

The plans for the election, however, were contingent on returns by union officials, water-front employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

The plans for the election, however, were contingent on returns by union officials, water-front employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

The plans for the election, however, were contingent on returns by union officials, water-front employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

The plans for the election, however, were contingent on returns by union officials, water-front employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

The plans for the election, however, were contingent on returns by union officials, water-front employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

The plans for the election, however, were contingent on returns by union officials, water-front employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

The plans for the election, however, were contingent on returns by union officials, water-front employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

The plans for the election, however, were contingent on returns by union officials, water-front employers were making plans for longshoremen to vote Thursday or Friday on the question of returning to their jobs.

8 Hoboes Killed As Train Jumps Track in South

LA VERGNE, Tenn., July 9.—(AP)—At least eight hoboes lost their lives this afternoon when a Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railway freight train, bound from Nashville to Chattanooga, was derailed here.

Many others were reported injured and it was feared some bodies still were in the wreckage.

F. F. Gamble, a garageman here, said bodies of one white man and six negroes had been recovered. A white man, one of several injured started to a Nashville hospital, died upon arrival there.

Twenty cars overturned and two others were derailed.

MRS. THIELSEN IS TAKEN AT AGE OF 83

A resident of Salem since 1898, Mrs. Jennie B. Thielssen, widow of the late Henry B. Thielssen, died Sunday afternoon at the family home on Court street. Almost recovered from a hip injury some time ago, Mrs. Thielssen became seriously ill early in June.

Born in Cheektowaga, N. Y., July 19, 1851, Jane Beuret spent her childhood on her father's farm and was taught by private tutors. She attended Le Roy academy and completing her studies in a school in Buffalo. She was married in 1872, coming west to Portland.

Mrs. Thielssen was a charter member of Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution and had long been active in Salem social life.

She is survived by a daughter, Ellen B. Thielssen; sons, H. William and F. D. Thielssen, all of Salem, and Edward W. Thielssen of San Francisco; grandchildren, Henry W. Gretchen, Hans W. and Frederic Thielssen, Jr., all of Salem; Nancy Thielssen of New York; Jane and Robert Thielssen of San Francisco.

Funeral services will be held from St. Paul's Episcopal church Thursday at 11 a. m. with Rev. George H. Swift officiating. Grave-side services will be held at River-view cemetery at 2 p. m. W. T. Rigdon and Son are in charge of arrangements.

Lumber Cut to be 4 Billion Feet Larger in 1934

WASHINGTON, July 9.—(AP)—The National Lumber Manufacturers association predicted today the 1934 lumber production would total between 16,000,000,000 and 17,000,000,000 feet, or between 3,000,000,000 and 4,000,000,000 feet greater than last year, when production amounted to about 14,600,000,000 feet. This prediction was based on the fact the cut

Tammany Seeks New Camp Head

NEW YORK, July 9.—(AP)—Tammany hall's district leaders—torn by internal strife and bereft of federal patronage—today fixed Monday, July 16, for an executive committee meeting to elect a leader to succeed the deposed John F. Curry. Still unable to drive a compromise between the three strong candidates—James J. Dooling, Stephen Rudin and Edward J. Ahearn—the "Wingmen" chieftains nevertheless decided to go ahead with the election.

First Ladys Too Fast for Press On Visit to Fair

CHICAGO, July 9.—(AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt's visit to the world's fair, which started as a game of hide and seek and developed into a marathon, ended today in a walkaway for the first lady.

The wife of the president closed a whirlwind inspection of a Century of Progress apparently as fresh as when she began. In her wake she left the members of her party and assorted curious, all in various stages of exhaustion.

Tribute Paid to Hodges for His Editorial Work

PORTLAND, July 9.—(AP)—Tribute to the work and influence of Lawrence K. "Larry" Hodges, retiring editorial writer of the Oregonian, was paid by members of the Portland Press club tonight.

Hodges started his newspaper career 50 years ago today on the Pittsburgh Times and borrowed six cents for carfare to "cover" his first assignment.

France Cool to Germany's Talk

PARIS, July 9.—(AP)—"Actions speak louder than words" was the tenor of comment in French circles tonight on the gesture toward France by Rudolph Hess, German cabinet minister, in his address Sunday. Official circles made no public comment, but indicated that French suspicions of the Nazi government remained.

A Home-Owned Theater Hollywood

Ramon Novarro Jeanette MacDonald the CAT and the FIDDLE

Wednesday and Thursday 10c

NOEL COWARD'S "DESIGN for LIVING"

FREDRIC MARCH GARY COOPER MIRIAM HOPKINS EDWARD EVERETT HORTON

500 Seats 15c Doors Open 6:45

Where Sinners Meet

BILLIE BURKE REGINALD OWEN ALAN HOWARD ALICE BRIDGES

500 Seats 15c Doors Open 6:45

Tom Tyler in "Vanishing Men"

Fast rides, gun-battles and breath-taking stunts, in the land of "Vanishing Men" ... Tom Tyler in his most sensational epic!

TONITE AND WEDNESDAY TWO BIG FEATURES

TOGETHER AGAIN! Stars of "Cavalry"

500 Seats 15c Doors Open 6:45

DR. CHAN LAM Chinese Medicine Company 393 1/2 Court, corner Liberty - Salem Office Hours: 10 A. M. to 1 P. M. 6 P. M. to 7 P. M. Every Tuesday and Saturday Only Licensed N.D. Physician 16 Years in Business Consultation, Blood Pressure and Urine Test are Free of Charge

CROPS IN DAKOTAS REPORTED FAILURE

Sunshine Sewing Club Has Enjoyable Picnic; Guild Meets

HAZEL GREEN, July 9.—Mrs. H. H. Shively and children Helen, Elmer, William, Ralph and James of Roslyn, South Dakota, arrived Saturday night for three weeks visit at the W. W. Rutherford home. Mrs. Shively is a sister of Mrs. Rutherford. Mrs. Shively says there will be no wheat crop in the northeast section of South Dakota. The grain was blown out of the ground. They may have part of a corn crop if the hot winds do not kill it.

Mr. and Mrs. Jabson and his mother of Berkeley, Cal., and her mother, Mrs. Micalael of Westwood, Calif., were guests at the A. T. Van Cleave home. Mrs. Micalael is an aunt of Mrs. Van Cleave. The group were returning from the world's fair. They will visit also, relatives at Lacombe.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Van Cleave and children Marvin, Geneva and Daryl left Sunday morning for Crater Lake on a vacation.

Mrs. J. H. Wortman will be hostess to the Women's Missionary society Thursday, July 12 at 2 o'clock at the parsonage. Mrs. Louis Wampler is leader.

The Leila Luckey chapter of the Otterbein Guild had an interesting program Sunday afternoon at the W. W. Rutherford home. Beatrice Johnson was elected secretary of literature to fill vacancy made by Genevieve Snyder moving to Garibaldi. The Guild will be joint hostess with the women's missionary society to the women's society and guild of the Englewood church of Salem for an all day meeting in August.

Crowd at Picnic

Fifty were present at the all day picnic of the Sunshine Sewing club Sunday at Hazel Green park. Games, swimming and amusements of the park were enjoyed. Dinner was served at 10 o'clock.

Tubor Tries to Miss Jail Term

SAN FRANCISCO, July 9.—(AP)—Philip Tubor, sentenced to a year in jail for operating with his brother of a "bucket shop" in the selling of grain futures, paid his $1000 fine today and had a hope of release from custody.

Federal Judge Harold Londerback said he "would consider" referring his case to the probation officials.

Phillip's brother, William, was given an 18 months sentence.

Dr. Hogatt of Corvallis Dies

First reports of the drowning of Dr. A. H. Hogatt Sunday in the

for the second quarter of this year was 11 per cent greater than for the similar period of 1933 and production for the first quarter of 1934 was 58 per cent above the cut for the first three months of 1933.

PWA ASKS IF IT CAN NAME 3D CONFEE

(Continued from page 1)

Itely against this proposition. It probably will be up to the city council, which meets next Monday night, to accept or reject the latest PWA suggestion. Meanwhile the plan will be referred also to water company officials.

Pending decision on the arbitration proposals, the city is pushing its condemnation proceedings. City Attorney Chris J. Kowitz declared last night when questioned, "It is being pushed notwithstanding the arbitration discussions," he said. "We are now awaiting a ruling on a demurrer."

Williamette river between Harrisburg and Corvallis were in error in placing the doctor as a Salem resident. A Corvallis chiropractor, he was visiting friends near Harrisburg and was attempting to rescue the 16-year-old daughter of the family when carried under by the current. His body was found yesterday not 60 feet from the spot where Jessaline Hockensmith, the other swimmer, who managed to swim out of the strong current, last saw him.

that Really Protects my business - I can keep my mind on my GOLF!

FOR ECONOMY - INVESTMENT - PREMIUMS PAYABLE UNDER OUR BUDGET PLAN NEW BLIGH BLDG. - PHONE 7711 General Insurance

Dr. Hogatt of Corvallis Dies

First reports of the drowning of Dr. A. H. Hogatt Sunday in the

for the second quarter of this year was 11 per cent greater than for the similar period of 1933 and production for the first quarter of 1934 was 58 per cent above the cut for the first three months of 1933.

Itely against this proposition. It probably will be up to the city council, which meets next Monday night, to accept or reject the latest PWA suggestion. Meanwhile the plan will be referred also to water company officials.

Pending decision on the arbitration proposals, the city is pushing its condemnation proceedings. City Attorney Chris J. Kowitz declared last night when questioned, "It is being pushed notwithstanding the arbitration discussions," he said. "We are now awaiting a ruling on a demurrer."

Williamette river between Harrisburg and Corvallis were in error in placing the doctor as a Salem resident. A Corvallis chiropractor, he was visiting friends near Harrisburg and was attempting to rescue the 16-year-old daughter of the family when carried under by the current. His body was found yesterday not 60 feet from the spot where Jessaline Hockensmith, the other swimmer, who managed to swim out of the strong current, last saw him.

that Really Protects my business - I can keep my mind on my GOLF!

FOR ECONOMY - INVESTMENT - PREMIUMS PAYABLE UNDER OUR BUDGET PLAN NEW BLIGH BLDG. - PHONE 7711 General Insurance

Dr. Hogatt of Corvallis Dies

First reports of the drowning of Dr. A. H. Hogatt Sunday in the

for the second quarter of this year was 11 per cent greater than for the similar period of 1933 and production for the first quarter of 1934 was 58 per cent above the cut for the first three months of 1933.

Itely against this proposition. It probably will be up to the city council, which meets next Monday night, to accept or reject the latest PWA suggestion. Meanwhile the plan will be referred also to water company officials.

Pending decision on the arbitration proposals, the city is pushing its condemnation proceedings. City Attorney Chris J. Kowitz declared last night when questioned, "It is being pushed notwithstanding the arbitration discussions," he said. "We are now awaiting a ruling on a demurrer."

Williamette river between Harrisburg and Corvallis were in error in placing the doctor as a Salem resident. A Corvallis chiropractor, he was visiting friends near Harrisburg and was attempting to rescue the 16-year-old daughter of the family when carried under by the current. His body was found yesterday not 60 feet from the spot where Jessaline Hockensmith, the other swimmer, who managed to swim out of the strong current, last saw him.

that Really Protects my business - I can keep my mind on my GOLF!

FOR ECONOMY - INVESTMENT - PREMIUMS PAYABLE UNDER OUR BUDGET PLAN NEW BLIGH BLDG. - PHONE 7711 General Insurance

Dr. Hogatt of Corvallis Dies

First reports of the drowning of Dr. A. H. Hogatt Sunday in the

for the second quarter of this year was 11 per cent greater than for the similar period of 1933 and production for the first quarter of 1934 was 58 per cent above the cut for the first three months of 1933.

Itely against this proposition. It probably will be up to the city council, which meets next Monday night, to accept or reject the latest PWA suggestion. Meanwhile the plan will be referred also to water company officials.

Pending decision on the arbitration proposals, the city is pushing its condemnation proceedings. City Attorney Chris J. Kowitz declared last night when questioned, "It is being pushed notwithstanding the arbitration discussions," he said. "We are now awaiting a ruling on a demurrer."