Dates had been accepted, subject to any investigation they desire to conduct to determine whether the assemblies were bona fide and the required 100 persons were in attendance.

Reports have reached the state department that some of the so-called assemblies were not attended by 100 persons and that they were not held in compliance with the election laws. Attorney General Van Winkle may be asked to investigate a number of the certificates, the secretary of state said.

C. E. McCarty, chairman of the Multnomah county republican central committee, arrived here yesterday afternoon to check on the filing of Barnett Goldstein, for district attorney of Multnomah county. He later informed the secretary of state that he probably would take no further action in the matter.

"The new Austria, which did not delimit its own frontiers, should at least be put in position to defend its territory," he said.

(France, which stood shoulder to shoulder with Mussolini when he rushed 100,000 troops to the border as Austria's men revolt threatened to be successful, sent its armies to study out, through maneuvers, how best to repel an invasion throughout Switzerland, where the league has its seat.)

Earlier the league learned that Arthur Henderson, president of the disarmament conference, had definitely deferred until November any new disarmament efforts.

Mrs. Becker took a just opposite stand, stepping into some of the right and left wing arguments accentuated recently by the advent of the American Liberty league. # RFC RESERVE BIG PRESIDENT TOLD

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Sept. 12.—(AP)—President Roosevelt today called for a rule of reason by federal bank examiners and in a conference with Jesse Jones, chairman of the reconstruction finance corporation, learned that banks are ready to pursue a more liberal lending policy.

Jones reported to the president that returns to the RFC are $200,000,000 more than outgoing since July 1. He also said that instead of RFC loans he was finding the banks ready to take over their natural business.

It was very obvious here today that Mr. Roosevelt and his administration have been disconcerted by the attitude of the banks and all lending agencies. The president said he was watching with interest the meeting of Secretary Morgenthau with federal lending agencies to assure that proper loans would be made.

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 12.—(AP)—The hearing for Calvin Krause on first degree murder charges in connection with the riot death of James Conner, 22, on August 20, will come to an end in municipal court here Thursday, defense and state attorneys agreed tonight.

Today, the sixth devoted to the hearing by Municipal Judge Long, was given over to testimony by Willis V. Behards, Columbia River Longshoremen's association member, who was present during the riot between members of that union and a group of attackers at a hiring hall when Conner was killed. Behards' testimony shed no new light on the circumstances of the shooting.

Krause is the first of 29 men held on the murder charges to receive a hearing.

Connecticut republicans, meeting in convention while the two other eastern states balloted, re-nominated Senator Frederic Wallcott for the senate.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—(AP)—Democrats predicted more outspokenly today the election of a heavily democratic congress in November.

Based on new forecasts upon the returns from the Maine election and the votes cast in yesterday's primaries in seven states, new deal adherents here asserted they would overturn republican hopes of capturing as many as 35 house seats now held by the majority party.

Democratic chieftains estimated that without even counting upward of two dozen uncertain states, the election of more than 160 house democrats in the south and other "sure" sections was assured. Only 218 would give a democratic majority. Democratic control of the next senate already is conceded.

McGilchrist Says Japan and China Present Contrast

William McGillchrist, Sr., gave an interesting talk to the Rotary club Wednesday on his recent trip to the orient. He described Japan and China as he observed them. Japan, he said, is extensively motorized, even fishing boats carrying outboard motors. In China human labor is the chief power.

As to Shanghai, he said, "You can smell it a long way off." Conditions aquald to western senses prevail and whites do not dare to eat uncooked vegetables. Money makes a puzzle in China because of the variation in coinage and exchanges.

The Rotary club voted to join other Salem service clubs in meeting Tuesday to hear Ralph Barnes.
