

GATES WOMEN PLAN FOR CO. FEDERATION

GATES, Oct. 13.—At the regular meeting of the Improvement club at the club room on Thursday, Mrs. Irvin Lawson in charge, further plans were made for entertaining the county convention of the Federated Women's clubs of Marion county which will be held at the high school building on October 27.

Reports were heard from Mrs. E. L. Davis, Mrs. A. D. Scott, Mrs. Irvin Lawson and Mrs. Gerald Heath, who represented the local committee of the Linn County Health association, on the results of the seal sale meeting held at Albany two weeks ago. All talked enthusiastically for the seal sale and if nothing prevents Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar will be here to speak at a community meeting on seal sale and purpose during the first week in November.

Mrs. F. W. Jones of the legislative committee gave a short report on the measure concerning the basic law to be voted on in the coming election.

After a lengthy business meeting the club adjourned to enjoy the floral display arranged by flower girls.

Flower and vegetable gardens in this community were not damaged by the frosts that killed garden late in September in other localities so the display of fall blooms was one to be proud of.

Mrs. Lincoln Hennessey displayed several varieties of dahlias which she has originated as well as several other wall flowers. Mrs. Hazel Brown who has a colorful flower garden near the confectionery in Gates displayed a number of blooms. Other who exhibited were Mrs. Linn Young, Louise Graft, and Mrs. Bert Jeffries. Mrs. Jeffries displayed a double petunia. Over 20 kinds of flowers were exhibited.

At the close of the afternoon the hostesses, Mrs. A. B. Horner, Mrs. Chas. Moore, Mrs. Russell Lake and Mrs. Albert Milne served refreshments at long tables attractively decorated.

Local voters who are interested in the Townsend pension plan are looking forward to a meeting to be held at the club room on Sunday afternoon with Dr. E. Davis of Salem as the speaker.

Elmer Scott of Heppner, and W. H. Scott of Sidney are guests at the homes of Mrs. A. D. Scott and Miss Clara Scott. W. E. Scott returned after a short visit but Elmer Scott is making a more extended visit with his brother and sister whom he has not seen for several years. The two men are brothers of Miss Clara Scott and A. D. Scott who live on King's prairie.

Scio Matron's Death Mourned at Lyons, Her Former Home

LYONS, Oct. 13.—Word of the death early this morning, of Mrs. Alta Phillips of Scio has again saddened this vicinity. Mrs. Phillips will be remembered as Alta Brown, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Brown of Lyons and sister of Mrs. Donald Brotherton also of Lyons. Mrs. Phillips has been ill since early summer. She is survived by her husband, Earl Phillips, postmaster at Scio, one daughter and one son at home, her parents and sister at Lyons, a large number of relatives and friends. Funeral arrangements are not complete at this writing.

Several families from Lyons attended the funeral and burial services at Salem Thursday for the late Mrs. Ruth Sherman, who was a former resident of Lyons, Jordan and Mill City.

Miss Lorraine Jungwirth, who has been quite sick the past week, is not improving.

Brush fires kindled on the L. C. Trask farm east of Lyons Wednesday afternoon made it necessary to rescue Mr. Frask's goats. Mr. Trask burned grass and rubbish several days ago where the fire broke out Wednesday. He left last Saturday for a visit at Hillsboro with his son and family and expected to attend the International stock show in Portland also before returning home.

Chemawa Hall is Scene Of Booster Program Fair

CHEMAWA, Oct. 13.—The booster program and fair held at the hall Thursday afternoon and evening was well attended and a very decided credit to its promoters. Well displayed exhibits enhanced by a background of autumn leaves made a sight to be remembered by all who saw it. A bountiful dinner was served in the evening after which the Lake Labish 4-H Canning club with Mrs. A. L. Girod directing gave a canning demonstration. This club also had a well arranged table display. Commendable for its good taste and simplicity was the table of the Kelsor 4-H cooking club arranged under the direction of Mrs. Downey and Mrs. Ruth Rulifson. After the judging and dinner were completed Mrs. Kiehege announced the program which consisted of music by the Burton brothers and readings by Arthur Cummings, W. A. Jones county grange deputy, of McLeay was brief introduced and after giving a brief talk he presented the speaker of the evening, Morton Tompkins, state grange overseer, who gave an inspiring address. Seymour Jones, C. K. Spaulding and W. D. Butler were among others who made short talks during the course of the evening. After the program the Burton orchestra played for an hour of dancing.

The grange appreciates the excellent services given by Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Van Trump, Mrs. Lena Cronk, and Mrs. Pearcey who judged the numerous entries.

SAFETY CAMPAIGN GIVEN ATTENTION

Evidence of growing interest in the "Let's Quit Killing" campaign being waged throughout the state by the Oregon State Motor association in cooperation with other organizations is the increasing demand at the association's Salem office for copies of "The Great American Gambler," a folder pertaining to highway safety and for the drivers' manuals published by the state, according to Mrs. Claudia Benson, local manager.

Fewer injuries resulted from automobile accidents during the week ending October 10 than previously, she also reported. During that period there were 11 accidents and no injuries in Salem and 11 accidents and one injury in the county outside of Salem, she said.

Name Delegates To Gates Meeting

UNION HILL, Oct. 13.—The first meeting of the Union Hill Woman's club was an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. Walter Heater. The day was spent in quilting on a quilt for the hostess and the regular business meeting. At noon a dinner was furnished by the hostess, Mrs. Heater, assisted by Mrs. Clifford Carter, Mrs. Charles Heater and Miss Florence Potoff. Delegates were named for the County Federation meeting at Gates on October 26.

Salem Young Men On Hunting Trip

GATES, Oct. 13.—A group of young men from Salem were guests at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lake and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lake during the week and while here they enjoyed a hunting trip. In the group were Verne Ratsberg, Ed Huey, Frank Nekuda, Elmo Fry, Alvin Fry, and Ed Huey, the lucky one at getting a buck.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Powell and Marshall Powell of Silverton were also guests at the Lake home. Mrs. Russell Lake was formerly Josephine Powell.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Porter who have been guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Donnell for several weeks are moving into apartments in the hotel where they will remain while Porter is at the CCC camp east of Detroit. Other local men who have entered the CCC camp the past week are Porter Alwine who has been at the Oliver Farnum home as guest.
