

MRS. MARTIN TALKS TO HUBBARD WOMEN

HUBBARD, Oct. 20. — The Hubbard Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. Coble de Lespinasse on Wednesday. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Ida Garland. Mrs. Vera Boje gave a splendid report on the Dallas convention held last Friday. Plans for a play or card party in the near future were discussed but tabled until the next meeting. Mrs. de Lespinasse read several original poems which were written by the members. A talk by Mrs. Hannah Martin of Salem on proposed constitutional amendments was much enjoyed by the members. Several piano selections by Mrs. Wilson were very much appreciated. Mrs. Strickland, president of the Marion County Federation addressed the club members. The president appointed Mrs. Braden, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Fobert on the membership committee and Mrs. Meta Friend on the Child Welfare committee. Mrs. Garrott was elected a member of the club. It being guest day there were 12 guests present. Mrs. de Lespinasse presented Mrs. E. U. Anderson with flowers as it was just 10 years since she joined the club.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses who were Coble de Lespinasse, Lucile Moomaw, Doris Silke and Emma Grims. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Ellen Carl on November 7.

Mrs. and Mrs. Will Dick and daughters of Portland attended the funeral of Mrs. John Kerby Thursday and visited with Mrs. Ida Garland and mother. The Dicks formerly lived in Hubbard.

Darrel Salter, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Adam White is seriously ill with school trouble.

Mrs. Sadie Scholl and daughter, Velma, returned Wednesday evening from a two weeks' vacation in California.

Miss Englehart and John Warner Wed at Mt. Angel

MT. ANGEL, Oct. 20. — The marriage of Miss Mary Englehart, granddaughter of Mrs. Eva Schaffer and John I. Werner, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Werner of Woodburn, was solemnized with a nuptial high mass at St. Mary's church here Thursday morning. Rev. Alvin Heibel, O. S. B., officiated and St. Mary's choir sang accompanied at the organ by Miss Helen Keber who also played the wedding march. Miss Pauline Salfeld sang Ave Maria.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, John Englehart, was beautifully groomed in white satin and wore a silk tulle veil arranged in cap effect with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Talisman roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Agnes Hida was bridesmaid and wore all green tulle. Her bouquet was of pink carnations.

The bridegroom was attended by Mr. John Zumstein of Woodburn.

A wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride. The Misses Mildred and Bernice Duda assisted in serving. A reception was held in the afternoon for immediate relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Werner left the same day for a brief wedding trip and upon their return will make their home in Woodburn. A wedding dance will be given in the honor, at the Foresters' hall in Woodburn, Monday evening.

WHAT IS HOME WITHOUT A GARDEN?

By LILLIE L. MADSEN

I have finally acquired an acre of land on which I can plant a "wood". There are no trees on it now. I want trees and shrubs and plants that will grow informally together. I want lots of varieties. It may look like a botanical garden—I don't care. Tell me some pretty trees and shrubs and plants to use.

And:

"We bought a small acreage far up in the hills. As the trees are all gone we got it cheap. We are going to build a convenient little cabin on it. We expect to spend our summers there year after year. What do you think of planting trees and shrubs and making a little forest? We do not want to be bound to just native things although we might use some. What do you suggest?"

These inquiries came the same day. There are many things one can plant. I think the idea would be most interesting. If it is to be an informal spot, why shouldn't one plant as many varieties as one desires. Some years ago I was told that there were 120 varieties of trees and shrubs on the state-house grounds.

Suggests Exotic Trees

Some of the trees and shrubs which I shall describe may be used in either planting, or they may also be used where a tree or shrub is needed on the home grounds. However, were I the people with the summer home, I think I should particularly choose those things which are at their best in the last of June, in July and August. I think in both cases I would use some of the exotic trees which flower in July and August. Perhaps they are difficult to secure here. They may be a little more expensive than desired. I am only suggesting them because they will give an added interest if they are used.

There is for instance the pagoda tree (sophora japonica) which may resemble the locust tree but is not so subject to insects. It is an exceptionally hardy tree and will grow 60 feet or more tall. I once saw one in flower in St. Louis, Mo., in August and it was lovely, with its great amount of white flowers.

Another tree, which I have not seen myself, but which I am told is lovely with its shiny green leaves and bright yellow flowers, is the variegated tree (koeleruteria paniculata). It seldom grows much over 25 feet tall and its branches are very spreading. It

Brother Denies Norton Was Guilty Of Wrong-Doing

SILVERTON, Oct. 20. — Zayne Norton, elder brother of Willard Norton, pugilist, who last week-end came into considerable notoriety after he was said to have assaulted Perry Campbell and left with his 18 year old daughter, Hazel Campbell, denies that his brother was guilty of any misconduct in the affair. The girl had her mother's consent to marry Willard, his brother said, but was advised to wait until her father was not at home. Zayne Norton took the two to Woodburn from where they left for an unknown destination. He claims they came to his home for him and that Hazel went along willingly as far as he knew.

Willard Norton and the girl are still at large although a warrant was sworn out by Campbell, for Norton's arrest on an assault and battery charge.
