Lorence Critically Sick at Residence North of Monmouth

MONMOUTH, Oct. 31 .- C. Lorence, 75, well known Monmouth farmer, is seriously ill at his home north of town, Mr. Lorence accompanied his son, Jennings Lorence, to Bend last week where he visited his daughters, Mrs. S. R. Peoples and Mrs. Paul Hosmer, while his son went to Arlington to join friends for a wild goose shooting party. Returning Sunday, via the Mc-Kenzie pass, Mr. Lorence, sr., became suddenly ill and is believed to have suffered a partial stroke. He is being cared for at home and it is said that his condition is only slightly improved. Mr. and Mrs. Lorence celebrated their golden wedding anniversary this fall. They have been residents of this community for 46 years.

CONDITION IS CRITICAL GERVAIS, Oct. 31.-Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Seely were in Portland the last of the week at the bedside of their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Howard Seely, critically ill. A son, born to Mrs. Seely Saturday died at birth. Mrs. Seely was reported in an improved condition Tuesday but not yet out of danger. Howard is in the U.S. navy and is stationed out from San Diego.

Salem Markets

Butterfat prices locally were boosted another cent yesterday, to top of 31 cents per pound, the highest figure which has ruled for PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 31.-(A) highest figure which has ruled for some time. Butter took a half cent increase.

Pullet eggs were quoted up a cent to 19 cents for the producer, and extras were up a cent also, to 33 cents per dozen. Dressed veal was weaker, at $8.50 a hundred.

Other markets were unchanged. PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. $1.-(P) There was another general advance in the price on cube butter during the late session of the produce exchange, values being lifted 1/4 to 1e lb., with top and bottom scores showing the smallest Make of butter continued to reflect a decrease, due to the smallness of the butterfat supply. The latter was not only due to the seasonable influence but to the continued big request for sweet cream for ice cream and so-called frozen sweet. The sale of the frozen sweet instead of decreasing the demand for butterfat as some had charged, has liberally increased it. Butterfat values continued to advance, the official price being country stations, although actual business was shown 2 to 3c Market for eggs showed a generally firm tone under leadership of late advances announced by Oregon Laid Eggs & Poultry. An advance on the exchange followed the announcement. Demand for live chickens was holding firm and prices were being well maintained in all departments. Ducks were slow and there was no call for geese at the moment.

Well held trade tone was showing for country killed meats of all sorts even though late receipts have been generally liberal with the exception of hogs.
