

Society News

Dorothy Marcum is Wednesday Bride

Jefferson—Miss Dorothy Marcum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marcum and Leon Boyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boyer, Jr., were married in Salem Wednesday afternoon, November 7, at 6 o'clock, at the home of Rev. Jobe, pastor of the First Nazarene church.

The bride was attired in a blue silk dress, tip-toe length. Those present for the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marcum, Ruby, Leonard and Earl Marcum, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boyer and sons, Donald and Joseph, of Jefferson; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Simonson and Barbara of Seaside; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Stephenson and son Neal, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Clark of Jefferson.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Stephenson. Mrs. Oliver Stephenson, Mrs. Lawrence Clark and Miss Della Stephenson served.

Following a brief wedding trip north, Mr. and Mrs. Boyer will make their home in Jefferson. Both young people are graduates of Jefferson high school. Mrs. Boyer has been employed as telephone operator here during the past year.

OPEN HOUSE INTERESTING

Parrish Junior high school was practically filled to capacity during the "Open House" held during the past week, when members of the faculty and enrolled members were hosts to parents and interested friends. Special departments were open for inspection where work of various types were being demonstrated and displayed. An informal program by the music department, under the direction of Miss Margaret Simms, delighted the guests throughout the evening. Approximately several hundred guests called during the visiting hours.

RICKREALL MAIDS ENTERTAIN

Rickreall—Miss Elva Brown and Mrs. H. A. Dempsey were hostesses for a miscellaneous shower recently for Miss Anna Stauffer at the home of Mrs. Dempsey. Miss Stauffer was the recipient of many lovely and useful gifts. Those bidden were Miss Stauffer, Anna, Ora and Myrtle Stauffer, Mrs. B. Palmer of Bridgeport; Mrs. Robert Brown, Mrs. Edwin Brown, Mrs. Walter Brown, Mrs. Alfred Brown, Mrs. A. Vernon, Mrs. John Young, Mrs. Derrell Hewitt, Mrs. Dale Wilson, Maxine Wilson, Mrs. Warren Allen, Mrs. Davis Allen, Mrs. John Walker, Mrs. Russell Steel, Frank Sorenson, Mrs. Ora Lantz, Mrs. Chester Jenkins, Mrs. C. Jenkins. The Stauffers were former residents of Greenwood.

Independence—The home of Dr. and Mrs. George Knott was the scene of the wedding of their daughter, Helen, to Francis Krieg. Promptly at 4 o'clock Dr. Knott sang "At Dawning" and "With a Song in My Heart", accompanied by Mrs. Homer Grow of Roseburg, who also played Lohengrin's wedding march. Rev. Clark of Eugene read the ceremony.

The bride was becomingly gowned in a floor-length gown of white satin with long sleeves and train. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. She was attended by her sister, Francis. Dr. Fratzke was best man.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held. The table was a picture with its yellow roses and white tapers. Miss Dolores DuMonte of San Francisco, who played Lohengrin's wedding march, and Miss Evelyn Crookshanks of San Francisco, served. Following the reception the young couple left for a short honeymoon at the beach. They will make their home at the Dunckel apartments.

Guests included Rev. and Mrs. Clark of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Grow of Roseburg, Mr. and Mrs. Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cotton, Miss Hazel Krieg, all of Lebanon; Miss Dolores DuMonte and Miss Evelyn Crookshanks, of San Francisco; Mrs. Soledad Krieg, Mrs. Elsie Bolt, Rev. and Mrs. Henry Hanson and Lee Roy, Dr. and Mrs. Fratzke, Dr. and Mrs. George Knott, and the bridal party.

GRANDCHILDREN ARRIVE

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Gray (Almeda Thomas) of Marion are being felicitated upon the birth of a daughter, Donna Lee, born Wednesday, November 7, at a Salem hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gray of Corvallis are also receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son, Donald Sterling, born recently. The "new arrivals" are the grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Gray of Marion, who are spending some time in Salem at the D. B. Gray home.

AUXILIARY GROUP MEET

The Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War and their Auxiliary, will meet tonight at 7:30 p. m., in the Woman's Club house on Cottage street, for their regular business meeting. In addition to the regular routine business there will be an election of officers and all members are especially urged to be present.

Chapter AB, P. E. O. met last evening at 7:45 p. m., at the home of Mrs. W. M. Smith, 1485 Center street.

Birthday Dinner Event Of Sunday

W. R. Cross was honored on his 77th birthday anniversary Sunday with a dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cross.

Covers were laid at the beautifully appointed table for Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cross, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Cross and son Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cross and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Cross and daughter, Mrs. Gladys Edwards and son Donald, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. York and son, Eldon, Mr. and Mrs. John Ritchie and son Truman, Mr. and Mrs. Olin Cross and daughter Colleen, Mr. and Mrs. Woodford Cross and daughter, Shirley, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clement, Mrs. Gerald Christopher, Gene Wright and sister, Bill, Arline, Hal and Helen Cross and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cross.

Mrs. F. Barker Hostess—Mrs. F. Barker will open her home at 1190 North Cottage street, to members of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Jason Lee church, Wednesday, 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. S. P. Phillips will be in charge of the lesson hour and Mrs. E. J. Williams will lead the devotionals. A special reading will be presented by Miss Beulah Graham.

SAN FRANCISCO VISITOR

Miss Lucetta Hoover of Salem left Friday night for Oakland and San Francisco, where she will spend a week with relatives and friends.

Grant School P. T. A. Enthusiastic Group

An enthusiastic response was felt in the splendid attendance at the Open House sponsored at Grant school, Friday night when members of the Grant Parent Teachers' association were hosts to parents and interested friends of the organization. E. S. Oliver, of Williamette university presided at the business meeting, at which time a number of important committee heads were named, including Dr. O. I. Paulson, chairman of program committee; Mrs. Lester Barr, chairman of membership committee; Mrs. Arthur Bates, chairman of hospitality committee and Mrs. Fred Anusson, chairman of publicity.

Following the business meeting an informal program was given which was made up of the following:

Reading—Evelyn Ellis.
Talk, "What of Tomorrow"—School principal, E. A. Miller.
Musical numbers by Boys' double quartet.
Talk, "The Objective of the P. T. A. organization"—City Superintendent, E. S. Oliver.
Reading—Billie Mudd.
About one hundred twenty enjoyed the evening.

Woodburn.—A beautiful wedding ceremony was performed at the Church of Christ Sunday evening at 7 o'clock when Miss Evelyn Jacobs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Jacobs, became the bride of Ora Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Morris of Woodburn. Rev. Conley D. Silby performed the single ring ceremony. Mrs. Averill McGilvray of Jefferson played the wedding music and Willet Jesse of Eugene sang "Because" preceding the ceremony accompanied at the piano by Miss Marjory Howe.

The bride was lovely in a dress of white satin with long sleeves and short train. Her veil was held in place by a halo of satin and lace with orange blossoms. She carried white carnations and ferns with ribbon streamers. Miss Helen Hill was bridesmaid and wore a dress of rust color transparent velvet and also carried white carnations. Adrian Jacobs, brother of the bride, was best man for Mr. Morris. Harold Mulkey and Gordon Rich were ushers.

A reception in the church parlors followed immediately after the ceremony. After a short wedding trip the young couple will make their home on the Wolfe farm near West Woodburn. Both Mr. and Mrs. Morris are prominent young people of this community. Mrs. Morris having attended Woodburn schools and graduating from the high school with the class of 1931.

SORORITY GROUP MEET—The Alpha Phi Alpha Mothers' club will meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the chapter house for their regular November meeting. Hostesses for the affair will include Mrs. H. G. Galsworthy, Mrs. Mason Bishop and Mrs. J. B. Ulrich.

The feature of the afternoon will be a display of handmade bedspreads and quilts made by the group members, after which tea will be served.

WITNESSED FOOTBALL GAME—Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McKenzie of Salem motored to Portland Saturday, where they attended the football game, between the University of Oregon and Oregon State college.

ENJOYS FOOTBALL GAME—Mrs. Kate Bell, accompanied by her daughter Miss Dorothy Bell spent the past weekend in Portland as the guests of friends and relatives. They were joined in Portland by Miss Margaret Bell who is a student at the University of Oregon.

Two Couples Honored With Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Brooker entertained at dinner Sunday evening their wedding anniversary and Mrs. Brooker's birthday. Additional honor guests were Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Snyder who were also celebrating their wedding anniversary.

Covers were laid for the two couples above and for Mrs. E. R. Bedwell, Oliver Broadbent, Mrs. E. L. Bedwell and daughter, Miss Ruth, and Mrs. Agatha Prestridge.

MUSIC CLASS TO MEET—The Music Appreciation class of the A. A. U. W. will meet Tuesday, November 13, 7:30 p. m., in the studio of Francis Virginia Melton on Court street. The topic for discussion will be "The Opera from Gluck to Weber".

LOCAL FOLK FANS—Prominent Salem people, including Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Slade, were among the local social contingent who enjoyed the football game in Portland Saturday, returning home late Saturday evening.

TO PORTLAND—Miss Bertha Babcock was a Portland visitor Saturday, for the reason after which she spent the Armistice weekend with relatives and friends.

ATTEND FOOTBALL GAME—Former Salem residents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hadley, now of Independence, Oregon, and Mr. and Mrs. August Glutach of Salem, were among those spending the weekend in Portland, returning to their respective homes Sunday evening.

GROUP MOTORS TO GAME—An interesting group of Salem people including Mr. and Mrs. James H. Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. George Arbuckle, made up a party to see the football game Saturday, remaining in Portland as the guests of friends.

SALEM FOLK VISIT—Mr. and Mrs. John Brophy, prominent Salem residents, motored to Portland Saturday to attend the football game, remaining over the weekend as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cole McElroy of that city.

CORVALLIS VISITORS—Mr. and Mrs. George Buxton (Marjorie Christenson) of Corvallis were guests over the weekend at the home of Mrs. Buxton's mother, Mrs. Josephine Christenson, on North Summer street.

SAW FOOTBALL GAME—Mr. and Mrs. Roger Mything, accompanied by Mrs. C. B. McCollough, spent Saturday in Portland attending the annual Oregon-O. S. C. football game.

DELTA PHI LUNCHEON—The annual Delta Phi Mother's club luncheon was held at the home of Rose Babcock, at one o'clock Monday.

HERE FROM ALBANY—Miss Margaret Irons of Albany was in Salem visiting for the Armistice day holiday at the home of Miss Lois Barker.

Chi Delta Chapter at Millard Home

Chi Delta chapter of Delphian will meet Tuesday at 9:30 a. m. at the home of Mrs. E. B. Millard, 18th and D streets, for the regular session. The discussion, "Sixteenth Century Music" will be led by Mrs. Ralph Kietzing, who will be assisted by Mrs. F. S. Anusson, Mrs. J. T. Delaney, Mrs. J. Vintu Scott, Mrs. L. D. Lambeth and Mrs. George Lewis.

Juice Factory For Second Grade Fruit Is Talked, Dayton

DAYTON, Nov. 12.—Ten local fruit growers attended a meeting held Thursday in Dayton to ascertain the tonnage of second and third grade fruit that is an annual loss that could be utilized for a juice plant at Salem if sufficient amount could be assured to warrant the feasibility of a by-product factory.

The budget of the Dayton Union high school will be approximately the same this year as it was last, according to the board of directors who met at the schoolhouse Thursday night.

The Leader
WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT
THE PERFECT GUM

By CLIFF STERRETT

POLLY AND HER PALS

Excuse My Dust!

MICKEY MOUSE

"Make Yourself at Home!"

THIMBLE THEATRE—Starring Popeye

New Showing—"A Dose of His Own Medicine"

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

Clouds on the Horizon

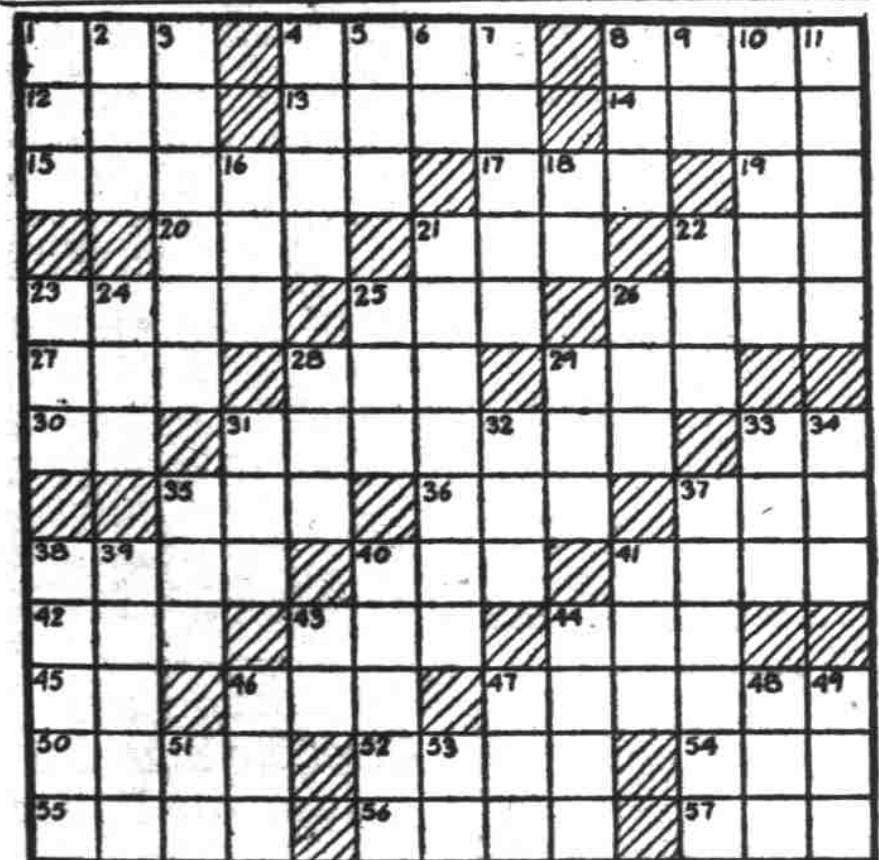

TOOTS AND CASPER

A "Safe" Exchange

Cross-Word Puzzle

By EUGENE SHEFFER

- HORIZONTAL
- 1—Salt
 - 4—Coarse, rough hair
 - 8—List of actors
 - 12—High priest of Israel
 - 13—Rip
 - 14—What state was settled by the Latter Day Saints?
 - 15—Last American novelist wrote "Death Comes for the Archbishop"
 - 17—Malignant spirit
 - 19—Greek letter
 - 20—Draw along after
 - 21—Stinging insect
 - 22—Regard studiously
 - 23—Young of the horse
 - 25—Delved with a spade
 - 26—Frame attached to a wall to serve as a bed
 - 27—Hail!
 - 28—Impede
 - 29—Possessive pronoun
 - 30—Egyptian sun god
 - 31—What motion picture star played the title role in "Cleopatra"?
 - 32—Depart
 - 35—Pull with force
 - 36—Constellation
 - 37—In birds, the crop
 - 38—Food suitable to be chewed
 - 41—Truth in the "Faerie Queens"
 - 42—Back of the neck
 - 43—Utilize
 - 44—Irritate
 - 45—Price offered
 - 46—Watch pocket
 - 47—What is the capital of Montana?
 - 50—Withered
 - 52—Street machine
 - 54—Alteration
 - 55—Woody plant
 - 56—Short, informal letter
 - 57—Native compound
- VERTICAL
- 1—Dry; said of vines
 - 2—Winged part
 - 3—Who is the football coach of Columbia?
 - 4—Boil slowly
 - 5—Possessive pronoun
 - 6—Lava
 - 7—What famous composer wrote the "Four Great Suites"?
 - 8—Drinking vessel
 - 9—By
 - 10—One of a Germanic people
 - 11—Refined