Ladies' Aid Business Meet Slated at Brooks for Today

BROOKS, Dec. 12.—The annual bazaar of the Brooks Ladies' Aid society was held here Tuesday evening with a large attendance. Mrs. Cecil V. Ashbaugh, Miss Thelma Reed and Miss Muriel Gaiser were in charge of the program, the feature of which was a one act play, "Sauce for the Gouline," by Carl Steelhammer, Miss Muriel Gaiser, Jim Riggs, Miss Ruth Loop, Miss Arleta Wood, Miss Thelma Reed, Alfred Lauraine.

Musical was furnished by the Steelhammer brothers. Robert Stalley gave two readings, "Doin' Dishes," and "Troubles," the latter one written by Mrs. Fairy DeRoche of this place. The six o'clock dinner was well attended. The proceeds of the evening were $390 which will be used to buy a new stove for the church. The Aid will meet Thursday afternoon December 13 in the church for a business meeting.

Mrs. Jennie Gilbert spent Tuesday night as guest of Mrs. N. P. Viam, who will visit at the home of Mrs. Williams, until after New Years.

John Bollier has purchased the restaurant and filling station and garage formerly owned by M. M. Gaiser. They have been moved to Salem, Mary Remington is running the garage.

The Brooks Parent-Teacher association will hold its regular meeting in the schoolhouse Friday night, W. B. Russell is president of the association.

PROGRAM BENEFIT FOR SCHOOL LUNCH

GATES, Dec. 12.—An appreciative audience attended the entertainment given Friday night at the high school auditorium by The Faubels and their dog Sandy. The affair was sponsored by the soup committee of the local Women's club and a percentage of the admission proceeds went to the funds that backs the serving of soup to the school children during the winter months.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Syverson who live about two miles west of Mill City, December 6. The Syversons lived at Gates for many years and Mrs. Syverson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Berier of Gates.

Mrs. Ed Davis was hostess to members of the Birthday card club Saturday at her home east of Gates. Card were in play at five tables with Mrs. E. J. Richards winner of high score; Mrs. A. D. Scott first runner up; Phyllis Scott took visitors' honors. The hostess was assisted by her daughter, Virginia.

HOMECOMING HELD BY 'MILLS LODGES

SCOTTS MILLS, Dec. 12.—About 50 members of Baito lodge and Ivy Rebekah lodge attended the homecoming Saturday evening. This program was given: Song, America; vocal duet, Mildred Rich and Mildred Kellis; instrumental solo, Gale Smith; vocal solo, Lois Rich; trio, Mildred Rich, Mildred Kellis and Arthur Rich; a host of speeches by Dr. O. L. Scott, William Kelsey and Monroe Groshong. It was the anniversary of Mr. Groshong, 30 years in Butte lodge, and Sunday was his 80th birthday. Lunch was served.

Visitors from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. William Kelsey, Mrs. Gladys Green and son of Portland, Dr. O. L. Scott of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hay of Silverton, and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Murray of Scholis.

The Bible class of the Christian church met at the home of Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Shoemaker Friday evening. They have named their class "Come Join Us" and meet once a month.

Pouring Twenty-Ton Lens

Many noted scientists watched nervously as workers at Corning, N. Y., pour 20 tons of molten glass into the 200-inch telescope mirror mold in a second attempt to make a flawless mirror for the world's largest telescope at Mount Palomar Observatory, California. A year will be required to cool it completely.

NEW BOOKS GIVEN TO CITY LIBRARY

SILVERTON, Dec. 12.—The November library report submitted to the Silverton city council shows that 1152 books and 57 magazines were passed across the circulation desk during the past month. Sixteen new readers were added; 20 books removed from circulation; four books donated, two books rebound and 25 books purchased. Donations were from Mrs. R. B. Williams, Mrs. F. E. Sylvester, Mrs. George Christensen, Mrs. Edson Comstock, Mrs. MacNeer, Miss Ruth Minor and Mrs. H. B. Latham.

Dillon's "Crooks' Castle," Chase's "Mary Peters," Ostenson's "White Reef," Young's "So Red the Rose" are among the new books at the library. Down's "Silverton Country" is back with a new dress. It is greatly in demand but has been off for repairs. The two fiction books most in demand during the past two weeks have been Miller's "Lamb in His Bosom" and Barnes' "With In This Present." Carner's "Stars Fell on Alabama" is still in the lead in non-fiction.

MOVIE CENSORSHIP DISCUSSED BY CLUB

MT. ANGEL, Dec. 12.—The regular business meeting of the Catholic Daughters of America, Monday evening was followed by a session of the study club. Miss Helen Keber, chairman of the committee, opened the discussion with a general outline of the "Legion of Decency," the subject for studying, Mrs. Valeria Begin, Mrs. Rose Appleby, Mrs. Hilda Eberle and Miss Anna Erwert each read a paper on different phases of the new movement to censor moving pictures.

view of the subject. He explained the "black buying" plan which made it impossible for a theater man to choose each picture he wished.

Rev. Father Aleuta summed up the discussion in a short pertinent talk and gave his idea of what was a moral picture. He said that with the cooperation of everyone a better class of pictures could be run.

THERMOMETER HITS 18 DEGREES ABOVE

AUMSVILLE, Dec. 12.—The coldest weather here registered 18 degree above zero Sunday morning. It necessitated the thawing out of pumps and car radiators about the neighborhood.

Mrs. John Sacre of Salem has been visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Opal Fuson, the past few days. Mrs. Sacre was a former resident here. The Bethel Sunday school has voted to hold the annual Christmas tree services at the church on Christmas eve. John Miz was recently elected superintendent, taking the place of Will Fuson, who resigned to become superintendent of the Sunday school at the Wesleyan Methodist Sunday school.

Special Meeting Off as Result of Re-Vote

RICKREALL, Dec. 12.—There will be no special meeting at the Greenwood school house December 13, because of a re-vote taken on standardizing the Greenwood school and community club, and several patrons expressing themselves as opposed to standardizing.

LUTEFISK DINNER IS SLATED FRIDAY

SILVERTON, Dec. 12.—The last Lutfisk dinner scheduled for the pre-holiday season at Silverton will be given Friday night by Dorcas society of Trinity church at the church social rooms on Second and "A" streets. Mrs. L. A. Hall is president of the society. Reception hostesses are Mrs. H. E. Johnson, Mrs. Marie Bunes and Mrs. L. M. Larson. Mrs. Henry Storlie is in charge of the dining room and Mrs. Hans Jensen is in charge of the kitchen.

This is the third Lutfisk dinner served at Silverton this autumn. For years, this Norwegian holiday dish has proved a popular pre-holiday treat on church dinner menus. At the two previous dinners at Silverton this fall, visitors from Woodburn, Salem, Monitor, Marquam and Scotts Mills have attended. Silverton itself, Norwegians and otherwise, turn out en masse for the affairs. Lutfisk and other Norwegian sweetbreads and cakes are served also.

JOINT MEETING OF SCHOOLS IS STAGED

RICKREALL, Dec. 12.—The joint meeting of the Oak Grove and Rickreall Sunday schools held here Sunday was well attended. The song service was led by Miss Edith Hazeltine. This was followed by a program from both schools: Violin solo, Mrs. Garringer accompanied by Billy Fawk; songs by girls' trio, Katherine Lowry, Elsie and Wilma Ellis; Christmas story by Katherine Lowry; talk by Rev. W. A. Gueffroy, "The Church of the Future."

A basket dinner was served at which Rev. Gueffroy of Salem and Rev. and Mrs. Dean Vermillion of Dallas were special guests. "Sunday School Problems" was the after-dinner topic in which all present expressed themselves.

"When thou makest presents let them be of such kind as will last a long time, to the end that they may frequently refresh the memory of the receiver—and thus partake in some measure of the immortal." —BISHOP FULLER.

NINE STUDENTS ON SCHOOL HONOR ROLL

LYONS, Dec. 12.—Pupils on the honor roll of the Fox Valley school for the past six weeks are: Elaine Clippell, Evelyn Clippell, Joan Holson, Ralph Lyon, Charles Swan, Dean Trask, Nancy Lee Trask, Neal Trask, Robert Wales.

Mrs. Helen Gibbs received word Saturday of the death of her sister, Mrs. Kate Holder, of Salem, who passed away at the home of her daughter at Tillamook.

Miss Edna Holder, who has been in India as a missionary for some time until called home on account of the illness of her mother, was a teacher in the Fox Valley school some years ago. The Juliens are planning to build a small house near their home for the elderly Juliens to occupy. They are living in the Cliff Phillips house at present which is some distance away and as Mr. Julien, sr., is not at all well, they would rather be nearer their son's home. They have the building material on the ground and are at work on the building.
