Mrs. Nellie Riches has been moved to the home of her son, Wallace, south of town. She has been quite ill.

Prof. and Mrs. L. J. Uhrhammer's young daughter, Nancy, has been quite ill. John Girardin, who is a cripple, very sick. Mrs. J. E. Whitehead, Jr., is convalescing from a two weeks' illness. Mrs. William Butske has been seriously ill during the past week.

BOYS' DRAMA GETS HEARTY RESPONSES

MT. ANGEL, Dec. 12.—The presentation of the drama, "The Victim of the Sea" by the boys of Mt. Angel college and seminary in the Mt. Angel auditorium Sunday afternoon and evening was a success, financially and artistically. Capacity houses viewed both performances. All those taking part gave an excellent performance. Alexander Williams, playing the leading character of Rev. Albert Remillard, gave a fine and understanding portrayal of the kindly pastor of St. Victoire falsely accused of murder.

A great deal of the credit for the splendid success is due Rev. Gabriel Morris and Rev. James Jentges who directed the play. All the scenery for the play was planned and made with the help of the boys by Father Gabriel and reveals his great artistic talent.

Those taking part in the drama were: Alexander Williams, Paul Newlin, Joseph Donnelly, Gerald Linabehn, Patrick Dooley, Joseph Mesler, Walter Smith, Elmer Bauman, Charles Christensen, Eugene Senter, Roy Gentry, John Paulson, Austin Johnson, Sylvester Schmitt, Willis Whalen, Paul Zeller, Ralph Schwab, Gilbert Mickel and Ted Marx.

Musical interludes were played by the Mt. Angel college and seminary orchestra under the direction of Alexander Scharbach. R. Bryant and A. Johnson played the piano duet and vocal solos were given by Austin Johnson and George Brost and several songs by the quartet—G. Brost, A. Johnson, V. Newlin and P. Dooley.

Training Leaders Present Program for McMinnville

HUBBARD, Dec. 12. Members of the state training school conducted a program at the Christian church in McMinnville Sunday night. Sam Laughlin, head of the school, introduced was John Meyers, also of the S. T. S., who spoke. Mrs. John Meyers sang a solo and a chorus of 10 of the school boys sang.

The rest of the program was made up of numbers by an orchestra directed by Dr. de Lespinasse and consisting of Mrs. Edith Painter, Mrs. George Grimspe, Orva Barrett, Cobie de Lespinasse, Mr. Shrock and Mr. Bevens.

The executive board of the Federated church held its regular monthly meeting at the church Tuesday evening with eight members present. Plans for the new year were discussed.

Social Life Found in School is Topic of Women's Study

SILVERTON, Dec. 12.—Only a small group of club women met Monday afternoon for the December meeting of the club.

Dr. Fred S. Messing of Portland, who was to have been the guest speaker was unable to attend. Rev. C. J. Hall spoke of the work Dr. Messing was doing at Portland in the child welfare line.

Mrs. Jonas Byberg gave a Christmas reading and Miss Sylvester Nelson, with her mother, Mrs. Alf O. Nelson, at the piano, gave a Christmas solo.

The remainder of the time was spent in discussing the social life in Silverton schools. Mrs. L. G. McDonald, president, was in the chair. The meeting was held at the Methodist church social rooms.

Leaguers to Give Playlet in Place of Study Service

SILVERTON, Dec. 12.—"Faith and Works" will be sponsored by the senior Epworth League at the Methodist church Sunday evening and will take the place of the regular Sunday night services. The events of the playlet take place at the time of the revolution. A musical program will accompany the play.

The cast includes Bill Dixon, Olga Green, Zephne Given, Max Scriber and Dr. R. Moore Stewart. Mrs. Harold Davis is directing.

Community Clubs

TURNER, Dec. 12.—Turner community club met Monday night with a full house. Ivan Hadley led a sing, with Mrs. Hadley at the piano. The Doolittle entertainers of Salem furnished entertainment consisting of readings, wise cracks, songs and harmonica and guitar music, which was much appreciated. A burlesque on Dr. Quack was put on by G. B. Kendall and Henry Ahrens with members of the audience assisting. Lester Bones and Kenneth Barber gave harmonica numbers. Joyce Kunkle, a vocal solo, and tiny Beverly Kendall recited "Little Boy Blue." Others called to the stage were E. S. Prather, Ivan Hadley and George Brower.

A short skit, "The Coquette" in pantomime was presented by Miss Mable Tucker, Mrs. Fay Webb, Carl Booth, Lawrence Edwards and Henry and Eddie Ahrens. A Chinese shadow scene was put on by Arthur Gath and Henry Ahrens in costume; piano solo, Mrs. May Hadley.

It was decided to merge the Boy Scout troop with the 4-H building craft club for the present, as both are practically represented by the same boys. Robert Schaefer and W. J. Denham are the leaders. The community club has been sponsor for both organizations. A suitable room will soon be secured and work will begin on the year's projects which will be a barn and garage. It was voted to have some kind of a food sale at the January meeting.

Mrs. J. E. Whitehead, Jr., Mrs. L. J. Uhrhammer and Mrs. E. E. Ball will have charge of the women's annual program to be put on January 14. The club will attend the Christmas pageant to be given Thursday night, December 20, in the school auditorium.

ROBERTS, Dec. 12.—The community club met Saturday night and plans were made for the Christmas program to be held December 22 at the club hall. The program will be furnished by the school, church and community club. In charge are: Mrs. Elsie Carpenter, Mrs. George Higgins and Mrs. Robert Judson. Louis Salchenberg will get the tree. Program committee for the first meeting in January is Roy Rice, Jr., Wesley Goodrich and Henry Query. The Saturday program included song by mixed voices; reading, Mrs. Alice Coolidge; orchestra selections; play, "The Old Spinning Wheel;" quartet.

RICKEY, Dec. 12.—The community club will not hold a regular meeting this month but instead the school will put on a Christmas program December 21 with Mrs. Minnie Joeckel and Mrs. Carrie Branch in charge.

LAUNCH HOT LUNCH PROJECT AT SCHOOL

AUMSVILLE, Dec. 12.—Chris Jensen, who has charge of the care of the school building, is ill at his home with a severe cold. Robert Mountain has charge of the heating plant in Mr. Jensen's absence.

The hot lunch project was started Monday, with Mrs. Fred Steiner supervising, with two S.E.R.A. assistants, Mrs. Perry and Mrs. Williams. The students of the school expressed great satisfaction in having a bowl of hot vegetable soup at noon. Many of them come a number of miles on the school bus. The S.E.R.A. workers on the addition to the gymnasium, are all also summoned to the warm dining room of the school building and served with a hot lunch, and provided a comfortable place to eat.

The Christian Sunday school is formulating plans for a Christmas tree and program, to be held at the Christian church Christmas eve. A choir rehearsal for Christmas hymns will be held at the church Sunday afternoon at 2:30.
