

COMMUNITY TREE SLATED MONDAY

Program Numbers Listed for Event at Aumsville; Get Vacation

AUMSVILLE, Dec. 20.—The community Christmas tree committee has announced the following program for Monday evening at the high school auditorium:

Invocation, Henry Porter; song, Welcome Christmas Day; number by the primary children, with Mrs. Eva Carter directing; recitation, George Steiner; number by the intermediate room, with Mrs. Julia Starrett, directing; recitation, Henry Meyers; pageant, "The Christmas Star"; song, solo, Mrs. Lamb; song by a community choir; song by the audience; distribution of candy.

Chris Jensen, who has been ill at his home for two weeks, is suffering an attack of double pneumonia. Sam Weiss has charge of the school building at present.

School will close Friday, for the annual vacation and will convene again January 2. The teachers are preparing programs to be given in the different rooms Friday afternoon.

Reverend Porter of Mill City, will deliver a Christmas sermon at the Christian church here next Sunday at 11 a. m.

SELL T. R. SEALS LIBERTY, Dec. 20.—Sale of Christmas seals is being carried on here by the school children as in the past few years. The teachers are in charge.

Evergreen Helps Produce Colorful Centerpiece For Christmas Dinner Tables

A decorative centerpiece for the Christmas dinner table may be made by filling a low red bowl with sprigs of evergreen and the large cones from the pine. Place a sprig of evergreen in each gift package that you tie with festive ribbons and put at each place.

Tie each package differently, using red and silver and white as the main colors to contrast with your mass of green. If you don't wish to go to the expense of a gift for each one at the table, use funny toys, amusing puzzles or what you will, so long as it comes in a Christmas package.

Make your menu a symphony of red and green, food which are gay with Christmas flavor. Here is a suggestion for it, the recipes serving eight persons:

- Christmas Dinner Menu
 Stuffed Olives Spiced Crabapples
 Hot Tomato Juice
 Roast Turkey or Chicken with Mushrooms Stuffing
 Mashed Potatoes Giblet Gravy
 Brussels Sprouts with Drawn Butter
 Cranberry Sauce

Holly Berry Salad
 Mince-Meat Ice Cream
 Cordial Drops Coffee Nuts
 Hot Tomato Juice: Combine the following ingredients and bring to boiling: contents of two 15-ounce cans of tomato juice, two bouillon cubes, one and one-half cups water, salt and pepper to taste and a few drops of Worcestershire sauce. Serve in cup with a sprinkling of minced parsley on top.

Mushroom Stuffing: Sauté for a few minutes in four tablespoons butter four tablespoons chopped onion and mushrooms from one 4-ounce can of mushrooms which have been chopped up. Add to one and one-half quarts of dry bread. Then add two teaspoons salt, one-half teaspoon pepper, two teaspoons sage and one teaspoon thyme. Moisted with the mushroom liquor and as much water as is needed. This is enough to stuff a four to five pound chicken, and the ingredients should be doubled for stuffing a large turkey.

Holly Berry Salad: Drain beets from a No. 2 can of whole or rosebud beets, and scoop out the centers. Cover with French dressing and let stand several hours in the refrigerator. Meanwhile chop two hard-boiled eggs, season with salt and pepper and moisten with mayonnaise. Drain the beets, stuff with egg filling and arrange three or four in a wreath of watercress which has been dipped in French dressing.

By act of the recent legislature, the governor of Kentucky is vested with power to discharge any appointive official of the state government.
