JESSE F. FIKAN IS HEAD MASONIC UNIT

Joint Installation Will Be Held December 27 With O. E. S.

WOODBURN, Dec. 20.—Woodburn lodge No. 106 A. F. A. M., held their annual election of officers Monday night at the Masonic hall and elected Jesse Fred Fikan worshipful master for the ensuing year.

Other officers elected and appointed were Lester R. Gilbert, senior warden; Earl W. Gibbons, junior warden; Frank Proctor, secretary; Fred G. Evenden, treasurer; W. P. Lessard, senior deacon; Carl E. Peterson, junior deacon; Thomas Sims, marshal; Howard Sayre, chaplain; Ivan C. Beers, senior steward; H. W. Bladorn, junior steward; C. Ray Shaner, tyler.

Joint installation of officers with Evergreen chapter No. 41, O. E. S., will be held on the evening of December 27 and will be open to the families and invited friends of members of both orders.

The Federated Women of Methodist Episcopal church held their Christmas meeting at the church Tuesday afternoon with Miss Pauline Livesay, Miss Freda Hall, Mrs. Hattie McKee, Mrs. Ella Goss, Mrs. E. A. Lytle, Mrs. Ida Brennan and Mrs. Earl Gallager as hostesses.

The December meeting of the Presbyterian Missionary society was held in the church Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. D. J. Gillanders, president, presiding. Mrs. Hiram Overton was instructed to send the articles to overseas headquarters in China and Alaska.

Chauncey Johnson Dies at Woodburn, Home for 30 Years

WOODBURN, Dec. 20.—Chauncey Bennett Johnson, 79, died at his home on Cleveland street Wednesday morning. He was born in Alameda county, California, March 17, 1855, and came to Oregon in 1884. He has made his home in Woodburn the past 30 years and has been employed as janitor for the Woodburn bank for many years.

He was the last of a family of seven sons. Surviving are a half-brother and half-sister and several nephews and nieces, all in California. Funeral services will be announced later.

Community Clubs

MIDDLE GROVE, Dec. 20.—A Christmas program consisting of songs and recitations, a play "Santa and son", and a pageant, "The Birthday of the King," being prepared by pupils of both rooms and directed by Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Yunkers, teachers, will be given at the Community club Friday, December 21, at 8 p. m., in the school auditorium. The school board is taking charge of the Christmas treat.

KINGSTON, Dec. 20.—The Kingston community club will hold its annual Christmas entertainment Saturday, December 22. A one-act comedy play, "Her Christmas Hat", will be presented by several young people of the community.

The cast includes: Warren Williams, owner of the apartment, Alois Brand; Kitty Williams, his wife; Mildred Gassner; Miss Laura Lacey; Kitty's chum, Marian Follis; Maginnis Goggin, janitor of the apartment house, Ralph Standley; Mrs. Goggin, his wife; Louise Gassner; Eddie, the negro elevator boy, Clinton Standley; Aunt Minerva, the William's aunt from Niagara, Venice Follis; Hard Times Annie, a poor beggar woman, Della Titus Hogan, the police officer, Charlie Gassner.

The rest of the program includes several musical selections and recitations. Jolly old Santa will distribute various treats.

Booster Program Will Be Saturday

BRUSH CREEK, Dec. 20.—The Brush Creek booster program to have been held Friday night at the school has been postponed to Saturday night. A Christmas treat with an exchange of gifts and treats will be a feature of the evening. A program by the children of the school and the young people of the community will be given. Miss Inga Goplerud is the teacher, and John Goplerud, jr., is president of the Booster club.

MISS JENSEN RETURNS BRUSH CREEK, Dec. 20.—Miss Thea Jensen, who has been in California for the past few years, employed near Paso Robles, returned to her home here Tuesday for an indefinite stay.
