Reception is Slated For Christmas Night

FRIENDS of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hodge are invited to call at their home on Chemeketa street Christmas night, December 25, in celebration of their golden wedding anniversary.

Hours will be from 7 to 9 o'clock. The guest rooms will be beautifully decorated in the holiday spirit. Presiding at the urns the first hour will be Mrs. Willard Craven and Mrs. O. A. Kreamer of Independence and the second hour, Mrs. H. J. Clement and Mrs. Frank Power.

Assisting with serving will be Miss Pauline Todd, Miss Lola Miller, Miss Dorothy Pearce and Mrs. William Phillips. Mingling with guests about the rooms will be Mrs. A. F. Marcus, Mrs. Amy Mills, Dr. Helen Pearce and Miss Mirph Blair.

Mr. and Mrs. Hodge were married in Cornwall, Ontario, in 1884 and came west in 1879, settling in Oregon where they have resided ever since.

Zollie Volchok will spend the Christmas holidays in Hollywood, Calif., as a guest of Sol Dongin, exploitation director of Warner Bros.

Butler, and the hosts.

Jefferson.—Mrs. Jack Perkins was the inspiration for a shower given Saturday afternoon at the home of her mother, Mrs. W. C. Looney. The Looney home was decorated with beautiful fall flowers. Assisting were Mrs. Norris Looney, Mrs. Weldon Looney and Mrs. William Hart.

Dayton.—Twelve members attended the monthly meeting of the Dayton Past Matrons club held Tuesday afternoon at the civic club rooms.

Election of officers resulted in Mrs. Frank Hole being elected president; Mrs. Ida Bond, vice-president; Mrs. Harry Gray, secretary-treasurer.

Smart Party Set For Campbell Home

MR. AND MRS. RALPH CAMPBELL will be charming hosts Saturday night when they entertain their guests in a bridge club. The rooms will be decorated with Christmas greenery, a lighted tree and red and green appointments.

After the evening of contract, the hostess will serve a late supper. Mr. and Mrs. Karl Heinlein are additional guests.

Members invited are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Meyer, Major and Mrs. Elmer Wootton, Dr. and Mrs. V. E. Hockett, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Benson, Mr. and Mrs. Harris Liets and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Campbell.

Musicians Gather for Jolly Party

The C. C. McElroy home on Wednesday night was the scene of one of the season's gayest events, when the Mauna Loa club, the Silver String orchestra and the men's Spectrum Guitar band, all under the direction of Mrs. Fricella Meisinger, got together for their annual Christmas party.

The house was festive with holly, mistletoe, red tapers, and a brilliantly lighted Christmas tree. The orchestra members all brought their instruments, and after a bit of music, the evening was spent in cards, ping-pong contests and other games, climaxed by the distribution, by Santa Claus, of the gifts from the heavily laden tree. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

In addition to the orchestra members, the following special guests were present: Miss Lacey, Miss Williams, Miss Doris Whitaker, Miss Helen McElroy, C. G. McElroy, Billy Utley and Frank Crawford.

Rickreall.—Mrs. O. W. Kellogg entertained the members of the card club at the home of Mrs. W. W. Rowell Saturday evening.

Scores that have been kept since beginning of the playing in September were added, high score for ladies was won by Mrs. Rowell, and for men went to O. W. Kellogg.

Play, Card Party Scheduled

Friday night at St. Joseph's auditorium the St. Joseph's club, composed of the younger members of the parish, are sponsoring a turkey card party and the one act play, "The Valiant."

The feature of the card party will be turkeys given away as prizes. Both bridge and 500 will be played.

The one act drama "The Valiant" will be presented after the card players are finished. The cast of the play is as follows: Warden Holt, Fred Riedy; Father Dally, Don Mills; James Dyke, Howard Amend; Josephine Paris, Venita LaBranche; Dan, a jailor, Paul Keber and the attendant, Ed Talbot. The play is being directed by Dr. Harry Moran, well known to Salem followers of the dramatic art.

After the play refreshments will be served. Miss Josephine Barry is general chairman and will be assisted by Miss Mary Ellen Hammond.

Spinsters' Ball Holds Spotlight

The Spinsters' formal Christmas ball tomorrow night at the Marion hotel will attract young people from Eugene, Portland and many neighboring cities. Reservations must be in the hands of Miss Dorothea Corey by tonight at 5 o'clock.

Dick Mote's orchestra from Corvallis will provide the music in a smart night club setting. Hours are from 10 to 2 o'clock Saturday night.

Mrs. John J. Roberts and Miss Mildred Roberts are expected home this weekend from New York. Miss Roberts has spent the past year studying in the east. She is a popular member of the young set as well as a talented violinist.

The International Brotherhood of Papermakers and Pulp and Sulphite workers will entertain families and friends with a Christmas program tonight at 8:15 o'clock in the Fraternal temple.

Shaw.—The Catholic Women's Sewing circle met Wednesday afternoon at the schoolhouse with Mrs. Frank Schneider as hostess. Mrs. Schneider was assisted by Mrs. Mary Schmitz in serving refreshments.

Maccabees Enjoy Annual Affair

The Maccabees annual Christmas party was held at the K. P. hall Wednesday night. A lighted tree was the center of decoration. Mrs. Lyda Covalt was in charge of the program which followed the treat for the children.

A. B. Hasson, pianist, furnished the music. David Cass and Dickey Cass sang and Teddy Covalt gave a reading.

Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor were complimented on their 50th wedding anniversary. They received several gifts.

Refreshments were served late in the evening.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Etta Cave, Mrs. Christine Rodde, Mrs. Mary Myers and Ralph Ryal, all of Portland, and Mrs. Terry Robb, Mr. and Mrs. John Tate and daughter from Dallas.

Lions Make Children Happy

Last night the Lions club entertained with its annual Christmas party for children. Dinner was served at the Marion hotel followed by a tree, gifts and a program.

Mr. Carl Emmons, chairman of the Christmas Cheer fund, had charge of the arrangements. Miss Doris Unruh appeared in a group of readings and there was special music.

The children were taken home at 9 o'clock after which Lions and their wives danced and played cards. Herman Lafky presented the new members with club buttons.

The younger piano students of Miss Elma Weller will appear in a recital and demonstration Friday night at her studio, 695 N. Liberty. Miss Dorothy Borrego, violinist, will be the assisting artist.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lachmund will leave New Year's day for an extended trip abroad, to be gone until the late spring.

Christmas shopping sensibly simplified—a gift order lets "him" choose for himself.
