Public Reception for Martins to be at State Capitol

THE public reception Monday night at the capitol building is informal but Salem nevertheless will don best "bib and tucker" to greet Governor and Mrs. Charles H. Martin. Street ensembles will be perfectly correct but doubtless there will be many dinner gowns, particularly on the dance floor of the lower rotunda.

Hours are from 9 to 10:30 o'clock. Introducing guests to Governor and Mrs. Martin will be Mayor V. E. Kuhn and Howard Hulsey, president of the chamber of commerce.

The Spinsters will present a beautiful bouquet to Mrs. Martin as a tribute from the young set of the capital city. Miss Margaret Corey, president of the Spinsters, will make the presentation.

BAND WILL PLAY

Music for the reception and for dancing will be furnished by the 82nd brigade band of the Oregon National Guard from Portland. The musicians will be entertained at dinner by the chamber of commerce at the Marion hotel and will parade up to the capitol building at 8:30 p. m.

Several vocal groups will be given during the evening by the Willamette university glee club under the direction of Cameron Marshall.

The directorate which has made arrangements for the affair is made up of T. A. Livesey, general chairman, Brigadier General Thomas E. Riley, William P. Ellis, George Putnam, C. A. Sprague, Henry R. Crawford, August Hucklestein, Paul Wallace, William Muehlstein, Jr., and Dr. Laban Steeves.

Englewood Club Has Meeting

The Englewood Women's club met with Mrs. D. A. Chase Friday afternoon. Lt. Walter Lansing of the state police was the principal speaker. Robert Hutchinson sang several Scotch songs accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Boylan.

At the tea hour assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Luke Shields, Mrs. Laura Eaton, Mrs. R. N. Payne, Mrs. E. A. Fabry, Mrs. E. W. Davis and Mrs. Bertha Yeager.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
Here's a captivating version of the new tunic frock - designed along the smooth unbroken lines that are so very much in vogue this season. The tunic, with its youthful, downy, and slanted, boned back bodice, and slanted hem, may be made knee-length or to the hips as you see illustrated in the smaller sketches. And if you prefer short sleeves, the pattern indicates how to make them, too. A rough matelasse - in that lovely shade called "bud-green" - would be charming for this frock. Or if you'd prefer contrasting colors, a "dusty" pink silk crepe for the tunic and navy blue crepe for the slim skirt would be every bit as smart.

Pattern 2160 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28 and 40. Size 16 takes 4 1/2 yards 33-inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. Be sure to state size.
Send for your copy of the Anne Adams Younger Fashion Book! Crowded with exclusive patterns for the child, the young girl and the student. Price of book fifteen cents but when ordered with an Anne Adams pattern it is only ten cents. Twenty-five cents for both.
Address order to The Oregon Statesman Pattern Dept., 218 South Commercial Street, Salem. Make necessary enclosures. Your order will be promptly attended to.
Orders customarily are filled with ten days from the time received by The Statesman.

She'll be Oregon's First Lady!

Mrs. Charles H. Martin, who comes to Salem today to become a resident of this city. Following the inauguration of her husband, Major-General Charles H. Martin, as governor tomorrow afternoon, Mrs. Martin will be the first lady of the state. Mrs. Martin and the general will greet friends at a reception tomorrow night at the statehouse.

Early Spring Fashions To Favor Tunics, Prints

By J. L. S.
THOUGH wintry blasts may blow for several more weeks, the sun has occasional glances a spring-time warmth and forth windows are blossoming shop with the newest advance spring fashions.

Prints, which usually suffer a decline in popularity during the cold months, are always in favor when one gets that early-season urge to tuck away the plain, dark woens of winter and emerge like a new butterfly in brilliant combinations of colors.

Style centers are conservative, of course, this early in the season but it looks as though the first prints will have dark backgrounds and small or medium sized figures. Sprays of flowers in pastel tints or formal patterns developed by delicate shadows on lighter backgrounds are invited by the board members from the 3 states. On Thursday night an informal dinner will be given by members of the executive committee at the Iron Gate Inn to honor Mrs. A. N. Connitt, Jr., president of the American Women's Club of Paris.

Mrs. Sadie Oz Dunbar of Portland, recording secretary of the land, recording secretary of the General Federation, will be among the national officers giving reports.

Oregon City Former Editor Feted

An assemblage of Oregon journalists gathered at the home of C. A. Sprague Friday night to honor Edward E. Brodie, former minister to Siam and Finland who has recently sold his newspaper interest in Oregon City and will move to San Francisco in the near future.

The table was centered with a gold basket of red carnations and greenery and lighted with tall red tapers. Replicas of the original masthead of The Oregon Statesman published in Oregon City, March 25, 1851, were used as place cards.

Toasts on humorous journalistic topics were given following the dinner hour.

Covers were laid for Mr. Brodie, the guest of honor, Harris Ellsworth of Roseburg, E. C. Richardson of Dallas, Elbert Bode of Cottage Grove, Ralph Cronquist of Albany, Sheldon F. Sackett of Salem, Charles F. Bollinger of Oregon City, C. E. Ingalls of Corvallis, F. T. Humphrey of Oregon City, George Putnam of Salem, Verne McKinney of Hillsboro, Ben H. Little of The Dalles, W. E. Tyler of Oregon City, Dean Eric Allen of Eugene and the host, C. A. Sprague.

TEA ON THURSDAY
Miss Lena Belle Tartar will entertain officers of the MacDowell club and members of the chorus with an informal tea at the Tea House Thursday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. An invitation is extended to all who are affiliated or have been associated with the MacDowell club.

TENT WILL INSTALL
The installation of officers for Barbara Fritchie tent, No. 3, was postponed Friday until the next meeting which will be January 25 with Mrs. Elizabeth Skewis, 1797 Center. A social hour and late supper will be enjoyed by the tent Friday at the Woman's clubhouse.

TEA IN PORTLAND
Mrs. Elizabeth Gallaher will be in Portland today as a guest at the tea being given at the home of Mrs. E. B. MacLaughlin, national board member of the Y. W. C. A. Dr. Hazel Ormsbee who is visiting associations in the west is one of the distinguished guests.

Betrothal Told At Smart Affair

THE ENGAGEMENT of Miss Maxine Glover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Glover, to William H. Hammond, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hammond of Oregon City, was announced at a large bridge party Friday night given by the bride-elect's mother.

The news was cleverly given out as the guests dealt their first hand of bridge. There was a 14th card in each deck which caused a misdeal. Upon sorting out the extra card it was discovered to contain the printed announcement.

Date Not Set
The date for the wedding has not been set. Both young people are graduates of the University of Oregon where Miss Glover was affiliated with Gamma Phi Beta and Mr. Hammond with Phi Delta Theta. Friday was also the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Glover.

A bowl of yellow daffodils in the dining room and pink rosebuds on the mantle added the floral touch about the rooms. High scores for the evening went to Miss Dorothy Harbough of Portland and Mrs. John Heitzel. Mrs. Glover was assisted at the supper hour by Mrs. Varium Kuhn and Mrs. John Brophy.

Guests from out of town included the following from Portland: Miss Lillian Fitzpatrick, Miss Sally Holloway, Miss Dorothy Harbough, Miss Daria Sangster, Miss Dorothy Dickey, Miss Jane Cookman, Miss Laura Tallant, Miss Amy Van Horn, Miss Helen Burr, Miss Harriet Hoffman, Miss Margaret McGee, Miss Elizabeth Wright, Mrs. Robert Cummins and Mrs. Frances Heitkemper; from Oregon City, Mrs. William Hammond and Miss Dorothy Hammond; from Hillsboro, Mrs. Donald Tompison, and from North Bend, Mrs. Ray Lucas.

Nine Tables Gards
Those invited from Salem in addition to the honor guest and assisting hostesses were Miss Velma Gilliam, Miss Bernice Humphries, Miss Wilma Gies, Miss Reginald, Miss Dorothy Bell, Miss Eric Jones, Miss Revena Eyre, Miss Roby Laughlin, Miss Margaret Simms, Miss Kay Laughrigh, Miss Winifred Graham, Miss Helen Marcus, Miss Nancy Thompson, Miss Irma Bolander, Miss Mildred Roberts, Mrs. Gerden Simpson, Mrs. Treve Jones, Mrs. E. S. Jones, Mrs. Ellis Von Eschen, Mrs. Charles Claggett, Mrs. Clayton Forsman, Mrs. Chandler Brown, Mrs. Vernon Perry, Mrs. Russell Bogart, Mrs. Kenneth Perry, Mrs. Daryl Myers, Mrs. John Heitzel, Mrs. Raymond Conestoga, Mrs. Don Poole and Mrs. Richard Kuehl.

Geometric designs are in vogue and again with small checks and some done in blocks of varying shades in the same color. Silks will shine in the fabric field, shining surfaces are looking up. Pure silks in clear tones and taffetas in both plain, prints and plaids are in the limelight. Crinkle crepes are being made up in combinations of printed tunics and plain skirts. Tunics, incidentally, are still enjoying great popularity.

In brief, advance style notes look to stitching and quilting as ornamentation for collars, cuffs and belts; high necklines for the most part with soft, draped front-shoulder - to - shoulder effects; sleeves loose and open for daytime wear; blouses draped or in tunics worn with slim narrow skirts; wide belts. High crowns in turbans will probably persist from the 3 states. On Thursday night an informal dinner will be given by members of the executive committee at the Iron Gate Inn to honor Mrs. A. N. Connitt, Jr., president of the American Women's Club of Paris.

Mothers' Club Gives Unusual Dinner

The old-fashioned dinner given by the Alpha Phi Alpha Mothers' club at the chapter house Friday was a clever affair of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Galloway were dressed in costumes of 50 years ago and the drawing room was filled with old albums, stereopticon slides and magazines, on display since 1888.

Places were laid for 80 at tables covered with red cloths and set with rare old dishes. Even the menu was made up of old time recipes.

Community singing under the direction of H. B. Glaslauer was enjoyed and Mr. Galloway recited two selections popular in the '90s. Mr. Glaslauer sang and A. Youcum gave a short humorous talk.

Guests and contests entertained the guests the remainder of the evening. Rev. W. E. Cochran sang "The Lost Chord" as the concluding number.

Wisteria Club Holds Clever Dance

Clever features at intermission and a silvered winter motif in decorations made the informal dance given by the Wisteria club Friday night at Castilian hall one of the week's outstanding events.

Miss Virginia Card of Portland appeared in a vocal group and Miss Colleen Kroner from the Barbara Barnes school of the dance gave solo dance. There was also an old-fashioned prize walk.

The committee was headed by Mr. and Mrs. James Teed assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wilbur, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Selander, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Fay Rice.

Sunday Supper for Smiths Tonight

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Smith will be honor guests for an informal Sunday night supper tonight at the Marion hotel being sponsored by the Lions club. The affair is no host and starts at 6 o'clock.

The Smiths are leaving to make their home in Long Beach, Calif., where Mr. Smith has been transferred. He has been very active in the Lions club, the chamber of commerce and other civic groups.

In Opera Now

Above is Miss Thelma Davis, talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Davis, who has recently been engaged by the Philadelphia Civic Opera company in the chorus of the Philadelphia Civic Opera company in that city. The company will give six operas during the season in German, Russian, French and English. "Hansel and Gretel" was presented three times during the holidays and this week "Boris Godanoff" by Maussargy was given in Russian.

Miss Davis Placed in Opera

Salem has long been considered a cultural and music center of the state and news of its former residents who are making good in artistic fields is always of interest.

Miss Thelma Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Davis, is the latest musician to enter semi-professional ranks. Word has been received that she is singing in the chorus of the Philadelphia Civic Opera company in that city.

The company will give six operas during the season in German, Russian, French and English. "Hansel and Gretel" was presented three times during the holidays and this week "Boris Godanoff" by Maussargy was given in Russian.

Miss Davis is also social secretary to Dr. Monroe Everett and soloist for one of the churches of Philadelphia.

The talented young contralto spent her vacation last summer in Salem and is well known in musical circles here. She is a graduate of Oregon State college where she studied with Paul Petri, and has been working and singing in musical studies in the east for the past several years.

Stanley Maves Feted by Bachelors

Many parties are given for brides-elect but seldom are the prospective grooms thus honored. However, Stanley Maves, whose marriage to Miss Joyce May Phelps will be solemnized Monday night, was honored Saturday at a dinner Thursday night at the Spa.

A club was organized and W. E. Patton elected chairman. The group will meet the second Thursday of each month. O. W. McKinnon was elected secretary, treasurer and F. McCafferty, sergeant-at-arms. Many social activities are anticipated by the club.

Covers at dinner Thursday were placed for Mr. Maves, Mr. E. Millburn, C. W. McKinnon, Fred Burrell, Frank McCafferty, C. McKenzie, N. E. McNulty, Kenneth Barker, G. Becker, Chris Jensen, C. Lee, Frank Schackman, W. E. Patton and A. C. Ely.

Mrs. Key Presides at Luncheon

Mrs. Ercel Kay was a smart hostess Saturday afternoon in her home on Fairmount when she entertained for Mrs. Sheldon F. Sackett with a luncheon.

Narcissi and violets made up the attractive spring centerpiece for the luncheon table. The afternoon was spent in contract.

Those invited by Mrs. Kay to honor Mrs. Sackett were Mrs. William Elmsig, Mrs. George Flag, Mrs. Arthur Rahn, Mrs. Clayton Bernhard, Mrs. P. W. Byrd and Mrs. Walter Barsh.

Brotherhood to Give Church Dinner

The Brotherhood of Leslie Methodist church will hold a dinner Monday night at 9:15 o'clock for the Sunday school basketball team. A social hour will follow in the church parlors.

Rev. J. E. Milligan will give a talk and music will be furnished by young people of the church. The public is invited.

Miss Phelps to Wed Stanley Maves on Monday Night

ONE of the loveliest of early spring weddings will be that of Miss Joyce May Phelps, daughter of Mrs. Ethel Poling Phelps, and Stanley Maves, son of Mrs. Hulda Maves, at the First Evangelical church Monday night at 9 o'clock.

The church auditorium will be softly lighted with white candles and the altar will be banked with greenery, palms and calls lilies. Dr. C. G. Poling, grandfather of the bride, will read the service.

Miss Kathleen Phelps will sing "I Love You Truly" and Lawrence Maves will sing "At Dawning" accompanied by Mrs. Ivan Osterman at the organ who will also play the wedding marches.

BRIDE CARRIES BIBLE
The bride will be given in marriage by her brother, Poling Gene Phelps. Her wedding gown is of egg-shell satin fashioned along simple princess lines with a circular train. She will wear a three-quarter length veil and carry her grandmother's bible from which white ribbon knotted with orange blossoms will fall.

Miss Savilla Phelps will be maid of honor for her sister. She will wear a green angel-skin lace frock, floor length, with a severe low back. Her flowers will be pale pink carnations and white bowditch.

Miss Kathleen Phelps, another sister, and Mrs. Kenneth Cooper of Corvallis, a cousin of the bride, will be the other attendants. They will be dressed in identical gowns of pink and will carry bouquets of a shade brighter than their frocks.

Little Arlene Hiffiker and Ramona Lee Rice are the flower girls and will wear ruffled satin dresses and carry nosegays.

Lawrence Maves will be best man for his brother and ushers include Joseph Jefferson of Portland, O. W. McKinnon, Ruben Hiffiker and Frank Schackman.

RECEPTION TO FOLLOW

A reception will follow the wedding at the home of the bride's mother. The serving table will be all in white with a floral centerpiece and white tapers. Mrs. Carrie Chase and Mrs. Lloyd Hockett will preside at the urns.

Serving and assisting about the rooms will be Mrs. B. R. Gilbert, Mrs. Ruben Hiffiker, Miss Barbara Elliott, Miss Dot Tucker, Miss Frances Bater and Mrs. Frank Schackman.

The couple will leave on a wedding trip after the reception. For traveling Miss Phelps has chosen a blue silk and wool-ensemble with a checked coat and black accessories. They will be at home after February 1 on South Capitol street.

The bride is a graduate of Salem high school and Mr. Maves attended Willamette university. Both young people have been prominent in musical circles of the city.

LEISURE HOUR CLUB

Miss Oda Chapman will assist Mrs. George Pearce when the latter entertains the Leisure Hour club with a 1:30 o'clock dessert luncheon Wednesday afternoon.

Delta Zeta Alumni Entertained

Alumnae of Delta Zeta met at the home of Mrs. Frances Denison Tuesday night for sewing and knitting. A late luncheon was served with a New Year's motif carried out.

Present were Mrs. Helen Bradley, Mrs. Max Paulson, Mrs. Mark Wald, Mrs. G. E. McGilivray, Mrs. George B. Campbell, Miss Helen Louise Crosby, Miss Clara Mielke and the hostess, Mrs. Frances Denison.

Salem W. C. T. U. Meets Tuesday

The Salem W. C. T. U. will be in session Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the hall on Commercial. A representative from the state liquor commission will speak and Dr. J. E. Milligan will give an address.

Mrs. Sarah Oliver will explain the Lillian Stevens' legislative fund and Mrs. Fred McCall will lead the devotions. Mrs. A. B. Evans will appear in a vocal number.

BENEFIT WEDNESDAY
