Congregationals To Hold Family Supper Tonight

A family supper will be held at the First Congregational church tonight at 6:30 o'clock. A special treat is in store for a program. Rev. Fred Grey of Seattle will tell about his experiences with Dwight L. Moody, the evangelist.

Mr. Grey was intimately associated with Mr. Moody during one of his visits to the British Isles and has a story which is said to be intensely interesting and which sheds light on the spirit and methods of this man. The talk will following a potluck supper. Persons attending should bring a contribution of food and eating utensils.

LAND GRANT FUND TO BE DISCUSSED

Future congressional action relative to the Oregon and California land grant lands in the 18 western Oregon counties will be considered at a meeting of the Oregon-California land grant executive committee to be held at the chamber of commerce here Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock. So announced County Judge Victor P. Moses of Corvallis, who is president of the executive committee.

Proposals to put these lands under federal and state forestry departments presented by them mean no taxes will accrue from them. At the present time, Oregon counties receive over half a million dollars annually from them under terms of the Stanford act, which placed the land in hands of the government as trustee, with the counties reimbursed in taxes through sale of timber.
