FORCES CELEBRATE 50TH ANNIVERSARY
MONMOUTH, March 6.—Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Force were celebrated Monday on their 50th wedding anniversary at San Francisco, where they were married at San Francisco, where they formerly lived in Monmouth for 24 years.
Clarence Elmer Force and Margaret Delphine Welch were married March 4, 1875, at Springfield, Iowa. They left the same day for St. Paul, Nebraska, where for 20 years Mr. Force was engaged in the barber business, and operated a farm as a sideline. They moved to Oregon in 1895, coming to Monmouth soon after where to 22 years Mr. Force was a barber. A card and flower shower were arranged for their 50th anniversary celebration by Miss Mabel Johnson, teacher of music in Portland high schools, who has been seriously ill in a hospital for more than two months, was able to spend the weekend here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Johnson. She accompanied Miss Helen De Armond, also a Portland teacher, who drove to Monmouth to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. De Armond.
H. K. Sickafosse, who has been ill of his home in Monmouth for several weeks, underwent an operation on his right foot last week at a Salem hospital. He is at home, and improving.

MANY CHANGES IN BARBERS ARE SEEN
