

CONDEMNATION COUNCIL ISSUE

Merits Debated, Tenant is Allowed Occupancy Till May 1, is Upshot

(Continued From Page 1) 1931 and numbered 216. More than 3000 ordinances have been passed since that time.

An attempt to push through under rule suspension an ordinance prohibiting the cleaning of vegetables on streets or sidewalks failed and the measure will come up for final action at the next meeting.

Franchise Ordinance is Tabled Once More Tabled regularly since September, 1934, an ordinance granting the Southern Pacific company a new franchise for its siding leading to the brewery once more returned to the recorder's vault last night.

The Oregon-Washington Water Service company was told, in another action, that it must pay $106.61 due the city for street repairs from 1933 forward before the city will pay $13 in water bills for relief families.

A public hearing on the request of Mrs. Hattie B. Cameron for a change from zone one to zone three special of a lot at 398 North 21st street was announced for the next council session.

RELIEF PROBE TRIO CHOSEN BY MARTIN

(Continued From Page 1) tions in Oregon after he became the state's chief executive. He also promised the legislature in the closing days of the session, to conduct an investigation into relief as soon as the session adjourned.

Dusenbery, who heads the three probes, has lived in Oregon the last nine years. For the past 25 years he has been an attorney, serving as prosecuting attorney in Montana in 1913-1920. He is a democrat and a member of the Willamette Democratic society.

The Call Board...

- ELISINORE Today—"Gold Diggers of 1935" with Dick Powell and 12 stars. Thursday—Margaret Sullivan in "The Good Fairy."

Confer on Wagner Labor Bill

Senator David I. Walsh and Senator Robert F. Wagner.

Senators David I. Walsh, of Massachusetts, left, and William E. Borah, right, of Idaho, of the senate labor committee, conferred on details of the labor disputes bill after its author, Robert Wagner, of New York, inset, appeared before the committee in Washington in support of his plan.

RELIEF COMMITTEE POWER BROADENED

Broadening of the powers of the state relief committee is provided for in the new state relief act approved by the last session of the legislature.

Disbursal of all federal funds received is lodged with the state committee or its appointed agents. Plans for the statewide distribution of funds shall be made by the committee, providing that they shall meet with the approval of the federal government.

OLD BOND DISPUTE RECALLED BY AUDIT

Litigation which forced the city more than 20 years ago to issue $400,000 worth of bonds to repay sewer assessments property owners had been ordered to pay was recalled yesterday by the report of J. B. Protzman, who is working on the 1925 city audit, that the 1915 audit which was unearthed last week provided an accurate checkup on these old assessments.

Demand Big for Babies to Adopt

More requests for babies to adopt than can be filled come to Marion county officials, Mrs. Nona White, juvenile worker for the court, said here yesterday.

STATE THEATRE JUST A DIME ANY TIME TODAY AND WEDNESDAY 2 BIG FEATURES "Adventure Girl" and "READY FOR LOVE" with RICHARD ARLEN

MERRIAM FATE TO BE DECIDED

Recall on Basis of Stand Against Townsend Plan Has All Lane Agog

(Continued From Page 1) The registration has dropped from 29,000 last year, many persons who failed to vote in 1934 being stricken from the rolls.

GERMANY WILLING TO TALK SECURITY

(Continued From Page 1) but with calm faith in their own strength. There were plentiful indications that the new conscription law is already in effect in Germany and that the proud storm troops are on the way out.

WILLAMETTE WINS TWICE IN ORATORY

Willamette university last night chalked up two more wins on its already commendable oratory slate when its two entrants, George McLeod and Constance Smart, captured first places in both the men's and women's division of the state old line oratory contest held on the Linfield campus at McMinnville.

WINSLOW FLIES TO HEAR DISPOSITION

To represent the city of Salem when Frederick Hall Fowler, PWA member of the water arbitration board, gives the deposition the water company requested as evidence at the federal court trial today, Walter C. Winslow, special city counsel, will fly to San Francisco and back by airplane today.

CHERRIANS WILL GATHER TONIGHT

Cherrians will meet tonight at the Marion hotel to determine on the organization's program for the next few months. According to William Schlitt, king king, topics to be discussed will include the matter of the uniforms the organization will use, whether or not a cherry fair will be held this spring, and the matter of trips to Lebanon and Portland.

ADULT INSTITUTE FOR DISTRICT AT U. B. CHURCH HERE

An adult institute for the council of religious education of this district of the United Brethren church will be held at the church here Wednesday, with sessions at 2:30 and 7:30 p. m. Visiting speakers will be Bishop Ira D. Warner, Portland; Rev. C. R. Lotz, Colfax, Wash., adult director of the Oregon conference, and Rev. Cleveland Sharpe, Everett, Wash., general director of religious education of the conference.

CAPITOL TONITE AND WEDNESDAY HIS HAPPIEST HIT! Robert MONTGOMERY "Tide-Out" A ROUSING RIB-TICKLING COMEDY

Obituary

Givens Sarah E. Givens, at the residence, route 1, Turner, Monday, March 18, at the age of 74 years. She leaves the following children: George, Givens, Wash.; Pearl, Turner; Ed, Silverton; Roy, California; Harry, Salem, Gentry, and Mrs. Bessie Dahlen of Portland, sisters, Sophie Young, Idaho, and Jane Breeding, Eugene, funeral services, Wednesday, March 20, at 1:30, from the chapel of the W. T. Rigdon company, Interment City View cemetery.

WILLAMETTE WINS TWICE IN ORATORY

Willamette university last night chalked up two more wins on its already commendable oratory slate when its two entrants, George McLeod and Constance Smart, captured first places in both the men's and women's division of the state old line oratory contest held on the Linfield campus at McMinnville.

FRANK B. RILEY TO SPEAK HERE

Frank Branch Riley, outstanding Oregon speaker, has been secured by the chamber of commerce here to speak at its next Monday noon meeting. Riley comes to Salem under the auspices of the Federal Housing administration. Riley attracted national attention to Oregon for many years by regularly going east during the winter to portray to eastern leaders the beauties and opportunities of the coast country.

WINSLOW FLIES TO HEAR DISPOSITION

To represent the city of Salem when Frederick Hall Fowler, PWA member of the water arbitration board, gives the deposition the water company requested as evidence at the federal court trial today, Walter C. Winslow, special city counsel, will fly to San Francisco and back by airplane today.

CHERRIANS WILL GATHER TONIGHT

Cherrians will meet tonight at the Marion hotel to determine on the organization's program for the next few months. According to William Schlitt, king king, topics to be discussed will include the matter of the uniforms the organization will use, whether or not a cherry fair will be held this spring, and the matter of trips to Lebanon and Portland.

ADULT INSTITUTE FOR DISTRICT AT U. B. CHURCH HERE

An adult institute for the council of religious education of this district of the United Brethren church will be held at the church here Wednesday, with sessions at 2:30 and 7:30 p. m. Visiting speakers will be Bishop Ira D. Warner, Portland; Rev. C. R. Lotz, Colfax, Wash., adult director of the Oregon conference, and Rev. Cleveland Sharpe, Everett, Wash., general director of religious education of the conference.

Laurel and Hardy "Tit For Tat" 500 GOOD SEATS 15c

AX FALLS UPON INTEREST BILL

Unfair to Many Who Paid Up 1931-32 Levies, Martin Says in Message

(Continued From Page 1) that only persons and corporations holding large blocks of real property and timber lands have been clamoring for the acceptance of Senate Bill 153 with some of the persons seeking the relief having money in the bank to pay the delinquent taxes. He stated that thousands of farmers and home owners have borrowed money from the federal government in the last two years to pay off taxes in an estimated total sum of $2,000,000.

MARKING OF VETS' GRAVES ARRANGED

An American Legion committee to cooperate with the Sons of Union Veterans in seeing to it that all veterans' graves are properly marked here, was appointed at last night's Capital post meeting at Fraternal temple. Robert Budrow is chairman and Reynolds Ohmart, his assistant.

JURORS FOR APRIL TERM ARE CHOSEN

Jurors for the April term of circuit court here were drawn yesterday by U. G. Boyer, county clerk, and A. C. Burk, sheriff. Nine of the 29 jurors called are women. The complete list follows: Earl DeBart, Central Howell; Orea L. Brubaker, Madras; Maude O. Mosher, Salem; Route 11; Marina Glover, Seaside; Wynola F. Ottaway, South Silverton; Wm. A. Guerne, Turner; Henry E. King, East Gervais; A. A. Geer, South Silverton; Sydney Ferguson, Breitenbush; Fred W. Heasing, East Mt. Angel; Thomas H. Lattin, Salem; Route 1; Fred W. Darling, Salem; Route 4; Robert S. Marshall, West Gervais; Earl E. Steiverson; Joseph H. Dixon, West Hubbard; Virginia Letellier, Mill City; Benson Y. Glover, Salem; Route 2; William O. Ireland, Salem; Route 3; Bert O. Bryles, East Woodburn; Dora S. Stacey, Liberty; B. S. Richardson, Jefferson; Alfred L. Dark, Salem; Route 5; Jacob M. Rickman, Salem; Route 6; Clara E. Healy, Salem; Route 11; Ida J. Forster, Liberty.

BILL ABOLISHING AUDITOR OFFICE VETOED MONDAY

Vote of a senate bill to do away with the office of auditor in Clackamas county was announced late yesterday at the governor's office. "No good reason has been put forward for abolishing this office," the governor's message read. "Many citizens have indicated the desirability of continuing this office."

PLEA FOR CHERRY TARIFF OBSERVED

A legislative memorial against any changes in the existing tariff rates on cherries, whether natural or in brine, will receive the careful attention of the committee for reciprocity information before any change in the tariff is made. Cordell Hull, secretary of state, advised Governor Martin yesterday. Hull pointed out that domestic interests were always taken into consideration in the negotiation of trade agreements under authority of the act of June 12, 1924.

SPA INTRODUCING THE 'CARDER SYSTEM' OF SERVICE DURING LUNCH AND DINNER. WON'T YOU TRY IT TODAY?

WILL ROGERS reigns with a rain of HA, HA's... America's ace star... at his funniest and best. WALTER ROGERS Life Begins at 40

Theft of Roller Skates Charged To John Fetsch

John Fetsch was held in county jail here last night following an appearance before Justice of the Peace Hayden in which Fetsch was charged with theft of roller skates in Portland. Fetsch was unable to furnish $100 bail. The district attorney's office said he might be removed to Multnomah county for an appearance before the grand jury there.

TRAIN KILLS FARMER

ASTORIA, Ore., March 18.—(AP)—Sam Kamara, 50, Quincy farmer, was killed today when struck by a train near his home. He was walking on the track.

MRS. LANGAN ON MARTIN'S STAFF

Appointment of Mrs. Margaret Langan as a member of Governor Martin's staff here, was announced yesterday. She was employed on his secretarial staff in Washington and has been assisting in the office work during the legislature. Mrs. Langan replaces Miss Jessie Starr who worked in the executive offices during Governor Meier's term of office. Mrs. Helen G. Tyson will remain on the governor's secretarial staff.

LADIES TO MEET

KEIZER, March 18.—A hard-time gathering of the Keizer Ladies' Aid is set for this Thursday. The meeting is an all-day affair. Mrs. H. R. Irvine will be hostess at her home here.

SPA INTRODUCING THE 'CARDER SYSTEM' OF SERVICE DURING LUNCH AND DINNER. WON'T YOU TRY IT TODAY?

WILL ROGERS reigns with a rain of HA, HA's... America's ace star... at his funniest and best. WALTER ROGERS Life Begins at 40

WORKING WOMEN'S VIEWPOINT IS TOLD

90 Per Cent of Two Million Employed Support Some Dependent, Stated

Ten million women are engaged in gainful employment in the United States and 90 per cent of them are caring for dependents from their earnings, Miss Avis Lobdell, women's personnel director for the Union Pacific railroad, told Salem chamber of commerce here Monday. They are willing to relinquish their jobs provided federal authorities will set up a new "XZ" authority which will assure them of sufficient income on which to live.

TRAIN KILLS FARMER

ASTORIA, Ore., March 18.—(AP)—Sam Kamara, 50, Quincy farmer, was killed today when struck by a train near his home. He was walking on the track.

MRS. LANGAN ON MARTIN'S STAFF

Appointment of Mrs. Margaret Langan as a member of Governor Martin's staff here, was announced yesterday. She was employed on his secretarial staff in Washington and has been assisting in the office work during the legislature. Mrs. Langan replaces Miss Jessie Starr who worked in the executive offices during Governor Meier's term of office. Mrs. Helen G. Tyson will remain on the governor's secretarial staff.

LADIES TO MEET

KEIZER, March 18.—A hard-time gathering of the Keizer Ladies' Aid is set for this Thursday. The meeting is an all-day affair. Mrs. H. R. Irvine will be hostess at her home here.

SPA INTRODUCING THE 'CARDER SYSTEM' OF SERVICE DURING LUNCH AND DINNER. WON'T YOU TRY IT TODAY?

WILL ROGERS reigns with a rain of HA, HA's... America's ace star... at his funniest and best. WALTER ROGERS Life Begins at 40

ELISINORE Hurry! Today and Wed. GREATEST OF ALL THE GOLD DIGGER HITS! WALTER ROGERS Life Begins at 40