The Laurence Hammer home was open Friday evening to the young people's Christian Endeavor society for the regular monthly business and social meeting. An enjoyable social hour was enjoyed after the business session conducted by President Lola Hammer. Eighteen members and the following visitors were present: Ellen Smith and Mary Collar and James Crocker of Salem; Harry Feddern, Lial Klamppe, Emil Fed and Owen Crane of Middle Grove.

Henry Herndon, who has been with his mother for two weeks following his father's death, was called to Portland Saturday on account of the illness of his wife.

Future Farmers of Valley Will Meet At Dayton on 20th

DAYTON, March 18.—The Dayton union high school chapter Future Farmers of America will host to the Willamette Valley Future Farmers' public speaking contest the evening of March 20. It is free to the public. There are 20 students in the Dayton agricultural class.

Miss Lena Stilwell, Miss Claire Wagner and Mrs. John Shelburne of Dayton chaperoned ten members of Wintah Campfire Girls of Dayton on a trip to Portland Saturday where they will attend a regional conference.

Miss Doris Braat, who has taught in the Corvallis city school seven years has been reelected. She will spend the spring vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Braat here.

Let's take the TRAIN CALIFORNIA because we can... RELAX while the engineer does the driving. READ or write as we speed over smooth steel rails. EAT in the dining car whenever we're hungry. Complete meals now cost as little as 80c. DRINK cool, clean water whenever we're thirsty. SLEEP in a cozy berth. A Tourist Pullman double lower for the night costs only $1.25. And there's a rest room with us all the way. With rail fares at 2c a mile and less it's real economy to go this way and have all the comforts, conveniences and security of train travel. ## CHURCH GROUP TO HAVE BUSY MONTH

MILL CITY, March 18.—The monthly meeting of Marilyn chapter, O. E. S., was one of the best held for some time, with four candidates initiated into the Star. Esther Stratton and Christina Gall of Vernonia, and Mr. and Mrs. William Nicolson of Mill City. Mrs. Stratton and Mrs. Gall have been residents of Mill City until recently when they moved to Vernonia where their husbands have work on a highway project. A short program consisting of vocal solos by Gwynn Gates and violin solos by Mrs. Sven Eliassen, was enjoyed after which a lunch was served.

This will be a busy month in the affairs of the Presbyterian church and it is hoped that the closing of the mill will not interfere greatly with the church, although a number of the members either have already left or expect to leave in the near future.

On March 19-20 a number of the women will go to Cottage Grove to attend the women's Presbyterian. The spring Presbyterial at Salem a little later will also be attended by the pastor and a number of the laymen. On Wednesday afternoon, March 27, the missionary society will hold the annual election of officers, postponed from last month. March 28 the annual business meeting of the church is to be held.

INCUBATOR STILL IN USE FOR BABY

AUMSVILLE, March 18.—The three pound son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mountain born February 25 is still in an incubator in the Salem general hospital. He is thriving and has gained 4 1/2 ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Collins have vacated the ranch south of town and have moved into the Miller house in the north part of Aumsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Snyder are located in the Fred Garbe house north of town.

The Parents and Teachers will hold the March meeting at the school house Thursday at 8 p. m. A business meeting and program will be features of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Boone are adding an attractive feature to their home in the way of a summer house.

Mrs. M. Hendricks Hostess to Women Of Auburn Section

AUBURN, March 18.—The Auburn Women's club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Myra Hendricks. A lovely luncheon was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. L. C. Mitchell. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. T. B. Jorgenson with Mrs. T. C. Morgan as joint hostess.

Several cases of the mumps have been reported in the Auburn district.

L. C. Mitchell is building a new service station. The old building has been moved to another location.

Grangers' Column

CHEMAWA, March 18.—A large group of members and friends of the Chemawa grange met Thursday night for the regular social meeting. Fred S. McCall acted as master of ceremonies and presented this program: Group singing, piano solos by Henry Isherwood, soprano solos by Mrs. Geo. Tucker, talk on Japan by Mrs. J. Vinton Scott, and an illustrated lecture on China by Dr. J. Vinton Scott. Following the program Carroll Cummings led in a half hour of games and the Home Economics club served refreshments.

TALBOT, March 18.—Mrs. Ray Reeves and Miss Elda Wintermantel were joint hostesses to members of the Ankeny Home Economics club at their home Friday afternoon. Mrs. Eva Wintermantel resigned as chairman of the club and Mrs. Rex Hartley was elected to fill the office. Mrs. Geo. Potts, Mrs. D. E. Blinston, Mrs. Keith Allen and Mrs. Moe were special guests. The club decided to give a card party at the grange hall March 30. The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. Blinston and Miss Ilene Blinston.

FAIRFIELD, March 18.—Six tables of "500" were played Friday night at Fairfield grange hall following a potluck supper. Prizes for high score were won by Mrs. Ward Lundy and Ward Lundy, Jr.; second high scores were received by Mrs. Perry Seely and Kenneth Ballweber.

TURNER, March 18.—Surprise grange met Saturday night for a social evening with cards forming the diversion. An oyster supper was served at a late hour to the guests and members numbering 40.

Surprise grange visited Stayton grange Saturday occupying the officers' chairs and putting on the program consisting of readings by Alice Titus, Peggy Van Santen and Alice Roberts; talk by Jack Richards; duet by Mrs. Hester Crume and Mrs. Emalie Van Santen; talk by L. C. Schroeder, and accordion numbers by Fred Steiner. Group singing was led by Mrs. Van Santen.

Protest Name
VICTOR POINT, March 18.—Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Morris were admitted to membership in Union Hill grange Friday night at the regular monthly business session.

The grange went on record to protest the Veterans' camp, Mill City, having that name. Instead of a local one, and favored a change of title to Camp Silver Falls if possible, as the camp is located near the South Falls.

The agricultural committee headed by Vern Scott is to arrange a special meeting, probably all day, when a poultry demonstration will be held, also a strawberry growers' meeting and to secure a speaker to explain the benefit of the use of lime, locally.

The juvenile grange met Friday night and initiated two new members, Arlene and Eudoris Morris. The two groups met jointly for the program hour and the juvenile lecturer presented an especially interesting program.

OAK POINT, March 18.—An interesting program with skits and guessing contests was enjoyed by

REELLECT TEACHERS OF STAYTON SCHOOL

STAYTON, March 18.—At a special school board meeting Wednesday night the following teachers were re-elected: High school superintendent, Howard George; coach, M. H. Beal; and Misses Margaret Ireland and Lucille Shirley. Miss Virginia Magness' plans for next year are indefinite so the board deferred her election for the time.

Grade school teachers re-elected are: Principal, Victor N. Phelps; and Misses Edna Perry and Phyllis Thurston. Mrs. Helen (Patton) Phillips, married last fall, does not plan to teach, it is said. Mrs. Phillips has taught in the upper grades here for the past eight years. Miss Doris Neidreiter, radio teacher, has indicated she will not teach after this year. At present she is ill and there is a possibility that her health will not permit her to return here again this year. Mrs. Floyd Humphreys has been taking her place for the past two weeks.

Boys Give Program At Clear Lake Club

CLEAR LAKE, March 18.—The community club met Friday night and a full house enjoyed a program put on by the boys. A boys' chorus, which has been drilled by Mrs. T. C. Mason, made its first appearance. A one-act play, vocal solos and other numbers made out the program. At the next meeting of the club the girls will furnish the program.

A special meeting of the Federation of Community clubs has been called by the president, Luther J. Chapin, for Wednesday evening, March 20, at the Salem chamber of commerce rooms. The meeting is called to make the annual drawing for place on the spring program. All clubs are urged to be present whether they wish to draw for place on the program or not as the matter of picnics and community chorus and other matters of interest are to be discussed. Numbers for which places are to be drawn are: Two one-act plays, reading, oration, orchestra and possibly other numbers. The meeting is called for 8 o'clock.

MONMOUTH, March 18.—About 50 members and guests of the adult Sunday school group of the Baptist church enjoyed an oyster supper in the social rooms of the church Friday night. Men of the group prepared and served the repast. A program of games was in charge of Mrs. Siebert Williamson.
