

NEWLYWEDS HONOR GUESTS OF LEGION

Auxiliary Too Joins Social Event For Hansen And Bride

SILVERTON, March 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth C. Hansen, newlyweds, were the special supper guests of the American Legion and auxiliary at the joint social hour which followed the regular business sessions of the post and unit, Monday night. The supper was served in the armory dining rooms with the St. Patrick's day motif used effectively. A large cake, a gift to the Hansens by Mrs. D. C. Davenport, mother of the present commander of the post, Roy Davenport, centered the long table and was cut and served by Mr. and Mrs. Hansen.

During the previous session of the unit of the American Legion auxiliary, a report was made of Mrs. James Searth and Mrs. Roy Davenport taking the chest of garments for children to Portland, presenting them to child welfare headquarters. This donation was largely the work of the members of the sewing circle.

Forty-five books and several magazines were received in the call for donations in the book drive as the practical phase of the community service month work. Mrs. Lee Austin is chairman of the community service committee. Mrs. Del Barber, chairman of the membership drive, reported an over-the-top campaign with the quota of 49 members attained and more promised.

A quilt top was finished at the regular monthly session of the sewing club at the Dr. A. J. McCannell home, during the week. Mrs. McCannell and her two sisters, Miss Jane Graham and Mrs. Ida Mayne, were delightful social hostesses to the members following the work hour.

Mrs. S. A. Pitney will be home hostess to the members of the sewing club in April.

The members of the unit will make 72 signal flags for the use of the Boy Scouts committee of the Legion. The Winlock Handle Factory of which the Leonards are proprietors, will donate the staffs for the flags.

The Girl Reserves will be program guests of the unit at the meeting of Monday, April 1, and will put on a play.

Three appreciated program numbers were put on by the members of the Waldo Hills community club and included a violin duo by John Small and Mrs. Theodore Riches with Helen Goodknecht accompanying, two piano solos by Miss Goodknecht, and a vocal number by Mrs. Harry Riches with Miss Goodknecht at the piano.

Clark A. Downer Dies; Services to Be Thursday at 2

AUMSVILLE, March 19.—Clark Alvin Downer, 16, died at the home of his mother at West Stayton Monday afternoon.

Surviving him are his mother, sisters Beattie and Evelyn at home, Mrs. Leonard Snyder, Aumsville, Mrs. Frank Hunter, Bend, Mrs. Ellis McMurray, Harvey, Mrs. Harley Piggot living in Wisconsin; brothers, Seth, Ralph and Chester living in California; Halle and Dan living in Wisconsin.

Funeral services will be held at Weddel's undertaking parlors, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Kidnap Suspect

Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Austin

Bruno Austin, arrested on the steps of a Chicago church following his wedding ceremony, was named by J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the federal bureau of investigation, as the mysterious "Whitey", said to have received the $200,000 ransom in the Bremer kidnaping case. Austin is shown above with his bride.

"Big Bass Drum" Pounded at Munitions Probe

William B. Shearer, vociferous "big navy" advocate and self-styled "big bass drum" of recent disarmament conferences, was forced to sit by and "take it" when his activities were probed by the senate munitions committee in Washington. He was charged with being largely responsible for failure of the Geneva naval limitation conference in 1927 at which he represented shipping interests.

"I don't like that word cowardly," Shearer cooled off with a drink of water after defending himself from the pointed charges made by the committee. During his testimony the witness was questioned concerning a pamphlet he authored in 1928 which included the name of President Roosevelt on a list of "anti-Americans" under the heading, "knaves or fools?" This incident provoked Bone's wrath.

Community Clubs

ROBERTS, March 19.—The three-act play, "All a Mistake," which was presented by the young people of the Roberts community club, will be presented at the Lincoln schoolhouse Friday at 8 p. m.

ZENA, March 19.—The community club held an interesting meeting at the local school house Friday night. The group discussed competing for the federation pennant but voted against it as the organization affiliated so late this year.

This program followed songs by the school; Miss Gladys Gilbert, pianist; guitar trio by Mrs. Milton Stephens, Ray Allred and Rance Erickson; humorous dialogue by Joe Shepard, Dan McLaughlin, Sam Barker and Raymond Stephens; "An old Irish air" by Ralph Scott, former Zena man, accompanied by Frank Churchill, both of Salem; humorous readings by Lucille Hackett; community singing led by Ralph Scott and accompanied by Frank Churchill; clever travesties on old time and popular music played by the Hay orchestra. All then adjourned to the basement kitchen where they were served refreshments.

Nature Study Club Formed by Pupils Of Grand Island

GRAND ISLAND, March 19.—The improvement club held its business meeting and social hour at the schoolhouse Saturday night. An excellent program was given by a group of students from the Amity high school, directed by Miss Lillian Von Pinnon and Prof. Burrill L. Young. On a debate concerning the government giving federal aid to the educational systems in the various states, the judges' decision was a 2 to 1 for the affirmative.

The club plans to present its community play, "Oh, Susan," at the schoolhouse on Friday and Saturday nights, March 29 and 30.

Funeral Services For Edward Stuckert Set

ZENA, March 19.—Graveside services for Edward Stuckert, 72, who died in Portland Monday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Ralph Wilson, will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Bethel cemetery in Polk county.

Farmers' Union News

MARION, March 19.—Cooperation buying was the topic at the regular meeting of the Farmers' Union local Friday night. A warehouse in Salem on Front street has been leased and will carry everything to supply the farmers' needs. S. B. Holt, state secretary and purchasing agent, will have charge. Flour is also to be purchased in pools under the Farmers' Union brand and delivered to the different locals in the county.

New members present were Mr. and Mrs. Hal Russell, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lot, and Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Phillips.

J. R. Davis, president of the Cloverdale local, reported this newest local is increasing its membership substantially. Arthur Page was appointed as delegate from Marion local to state convention on the purchasing committee.

The Women's Sewing club presented the local with the $5 fee for membership in the county purchasing setup.
