CHERRIANS LAUNCH BLOSSOM DAY PLAN

Back Chemeketas' Play, to Settle Other Issues At Later Date

Cherrians of Salem, undecided on the most questions of what type of uniforms to select for this year and whether or not to revive the cherry fair, popular in Salem many years ago, referred both matters to special committees at last night's dinner meeting held at the Marion hotel. A questionnaire will be sent all members of the organization to get their views on the two questions.

Plans were laid for the annual Blossoms Day event sponsored by the Cherrians with Frank G. Deckebach, Jr., named as general chairman. Selection of the exact day will await weather developments. Assisting Deckebach will be George Arbuckle, R. G. Brady, W. W. Chadwick, A. A. Gueffroy, Carl Abrams and E. H. Blingenheimer. T. A. Winslow will be chairman in charge of the group of Boy Scouts who will assist in the observance of the day. Cars for visitors to use in going over the Blossoms Day route will be provided by a committee headed by Kenneth Wilson and Raymond Bonesteel.

Will Sponsor Play—Cherrians approved action of their council of nobles in voting to support "Adam's Apple," a Chemeketa Players' performance to be put on here April 2 and 3. Each member of the organization is to be responsible for the sale of two tickets. Net proceeds from the play will go to the uniform fund.

William Schlitt, king bing, presided at the meeting last night which was well attended. One of the uniform committee Schlitt named Carl Gabrielson as chairman with Fred Moxley, Ralph Allen, Gus Hixson and Dr. W. A. Johnson as other members. The committee for the Chemeketa play Schlitt named the following committees: Programs, Gardner Knapp, chairman; Donald Deckebach, tickets; Harold Tomlinson, ticket takers; James H. Clark, Harold Olinger; ushers, Clayton E. Foreman, John R. Coughell, Eugene Legg, Kenneth Perry, Daryl Myers, Donald Pritchett, Vernon Gilmore.

The organization deferred its decision on whether or not to attend the Lebanon strawberry fair and the Portland rose festival until the matter of selecting uniforms was settled.

BRILLE WRITING PROJECT ADOPTED

Five Salem women, meeting with Mrs. Edith Foote, volunteer Braille transcriber, at the Marion county Red Cross chapter offices, yesterday decided to send at once to Washington, D. C., for the slates, styluses and manual needed to take up the work here of "writing" for the blind. They will transcribe into Braille selected reading materials.

Those attending the first meeting with Mrs. Foote were Mrs. Phil Asplund, Mrs. Frederick C. Deckebach, Mrs. B. H. Smith, Mrs. S. H. Kromer and Miss Gladys Backe. Others have expressed interest in the project, according to Olive Doak Bynon, executive secretary of the Red Cross chapter. A Braille transcription was espoused by the American Red Cross as a national project in 1921.

YAKIMA MAN HELD, AUTO THEFT COUNT

Lovell Gordon La Vanway of Yakima, Wash., was taken to Toledo, Ore., last night to face auto theft and store larceny charges last night following his arrest early in the day by state police at Independence.

The automobile he is alleged to have stolen from William Penn at Toledo at midnight Monday was recovered after A. Flickinger, who conducts a service station business seven miles south of Monmouth, at 3 a. m. heard someone prowling around his gasoline pumps. He called an employe and the two took La Vanway into custody. While the employe, L. A. Starnbaugh, went to Monmouth to call police, La Vanway escaped from Flickinger, who had armed himself with a shotgun.

Chris Jensen, 66, Passes Away at Aumsville Home

STAYTON, March 19.—Chris Jensen, aged 66 years, died Tuesday at his home near Aumsville. He was born in Denmark October 19, 1868, and came to the United States when six years of age. He had lived near Aumsville for the past 17 years.

MARTIN DOERFLER RITES SET FRIDAY

STAYTON, March 19.—Martin Doerfler, aged 72, died Monday, March 18, at his home between Sublimity and Silverton.

He was born January 21, 1863, in Bohemia and came to the United States 69 years ago. He had resided in the section where he died for 58 years.

Surviving besides his widow, Anna, are four sons, John J. Silvertown; Sylvester M. Portland; Martin, Jr., Silverton; C. Frederick, Silverton; three daughters, Margaret W., Silverton; Mrs. Ray M. Fox, Portland, and Frances K. Doerfler, Los Angeles; a brother, Joseph Doerfler, Silverton, and nine grandchildren.

Requiem mass will be celebrated on Friday, March 22, at 9 a. m. at the Catholic church at Sublimity with Rev. Frances Scherbring officiating. Interment will be in Lone Oak cemetery. Pallbearers will be his nephews.

Mr. Doerfler was one of the substantial farmers of this section and had a host of friends.

EFFORT TO FORCE RECALL DEFEATED

Dismissal of mandamus proceedings against George R. Funk, Portland auditor, seeking to compel Funk to file recall petitions against Mayor Joseph K. Carson, Jr., of Portland was ordered yesterday by the state supreme court. The action of the court removed a threat of recall proceedings against the mayor.

The court disposed of its last criminal case on the docket by affirming Justice James W. Crawford of Multnomah county in sentencing Raymond L. LaPlante to 15 years in the state penitentiary for assault and robbery with a dangerous weapon. The opinion was by Justice Kelly.

George Cobban, Jr., Astoria, was declared liable for $10,611.55 damages in favor of Harry Clarkson, Astoria, who suffered injuries in an automobile accident. Judge Howard K. Zimmerman, who set aside the verdict, was reversed in an opinion by Justice Rand. George Wong, owner of the car driven by Cobban, and Albert Wong were declared not liable for damages.
