SCHREDER READY TO OPEN STORE FRIDAY

Schreder's Cash grocery will open for business here tomorrow in the Murphy building, corner of Commercial and State streets, after several weeks of preparation in which new fixtures have been prepared and the interior of the store room has been entirely refinished.

Mr. Schreder yesterday announced that Harvey Myers, for many years in the grocery business here, would be head clerk and assistant manager. John Ellis, also experienced in the grocery business in Salem, will be in charge of the produce department. Mr. Ellis recently was employed at Cascade Locks.

A meat department will be a feature of the new store. This department will be owned and operated by C. S. Orwig who has had six years experience in the meat business in Salem. Recently he was with the C. & C. store here on North Commercial street. Assisting Mr. Orwig will be his son, Lawrence.

A crew of men were busy yesterday completing the alterations in the store room and installing fixtures. New stock for the business has arrived and Schreder and his men were busy arranging it yesterday.

1st Turnover of 1935 Taxes Near; 2nd to Be Large

First turnover of 1935 taxes to the treasurer's office will be made within a week, the sheriff's office reported here yesterday. The turnover will be disbursed within a few days thereafter to all the participating governmental divisions in the county.

The second 1935 tax turnover, which will follow the initial turnover this week, will be one of the largest, if not the largest, in the history of the county. The first turnover will include the early 1935 payments, many of which were small. The second turnover will include the payments of utilities which took care of their taxes in full to secure the three per cent rebate. As a result payments were unusually large.

March 27 Is Last Chance, Exchange Of Liberty Bonds

Banks of Salem are cooperating with the United States treasury in the collection of exchange of the called 4 1/2 per cent Liberty bonds. Bonds of the issue which are called are those whose terminal digits are 5, 6 or 7, due Oct. 4, 1933-1938. They will be paid in full or may be exchanged for new government bonds drawing 2 1/2 per cent interest, due in 1960 and callable after 1955. Bonds not exchanged will be redeemed in cash on April 15. The exchange offer closes March 27; so holders of the bonds who desire to make the trade should see their banker on or before that date.

Hamilton, Hood On Interim Group

Representative Moore Hamilton, Medford editor, and D. O. Hood, state budget director, were named yesterday by Governor Martin to serve on the interim committee authorized by the legislature to study a cabinet form of government and to report its findings to the next session. Legislative members have already been selected. Hood sponsored a reorganization plan which made its appearance in the senate the last ten days of the session. It did not receive debate, being referred to the special interim group at Governor Martin's suggestion.

Snedecor Given $1800 for Work Done for Martin

Payment of $1800 to Estes Snedecor, Portland attorney, for legal services during the 38th session to the governor, was approved at the statehouse yesterday and warrants drawn. The claim was signed by Governor Martin. While the period Snedecor worked extended from January 14 to March 19, advisers to the governor said Snedecor also assisted Governor Martin for a month before his inauguration.

Of the payment made to Snedecor, $1000 was taken from the governor's budget for salaries; the remaining $800 came from the legislative appropriation for the services of special agents.

Miss Myrtle Cradick, who served as secretary to Mr. Snedecor during the session, was paid $330 by the governor's office.

Hardware Being Placed in Model House This Week

Placing of interior hardware in the renovated house on the courthouse lawn is in progress this week while interior painting and finishing is also progressing. Interior carpentry work has been virtually completed with the exception of laying the hardwood floor which carpenters will hold up until the interior finishing is completed. Exterior painting of the house will be completed as soon as favorable weather is available. The painting work is in charge of E. G. Burrell.
